AN ODD CASE OF SOMNAMBULISM

Read Books and Played Piano while Asleep—Facts are Vouched For—British Medical Journal is Authority.

LONDON, March 22—The particulars of an extraordinary case of somnambulism are communicated to the British Medical Journal by Dr. James Russell, assistant physician at the Birmingham hospital. He says that a girl, 21 years old, who is a teacher of the typewriter and a student of music, entered the hospital to be cured of sleep-walking. While under observation there she habitually left her bed after three or four hours' sleep and busied herself in various ways, including descending into the music room and playing the piano, tuning a violin and fitting new strings to it and crocheting.

Her most remarkable feats, however, were reading and writing in the dark. If even there was a faint artificial light in the room she would avoid it, and go to the darkest corner, where she would read various books, study the theory of harmony, and write letters. One of her letters was addressed to her music teacher. It contained a short essay on the "Sonata Form," which was accurate in sense and construction. Another letter she wrote was in German. When she was awake she did not in the least remember writing or reading. An examination of her eyes did not reveal the reason for her being able to see in the dark. She has now left the hospital, her condition having improved, but she occasionally walks in her sleep.

JAPANESE COME HINDUIS EXCLUDED

Moral that the People of India will Draw from Canada's Action.

LONDON, March 22—The Manchester Guardian says: "The fact that the Japanese have been admitted into British Columbia while the Indian subjects of the King have been excluded throughout India, and the deduction will be drawn that precisely because they are fellow subjects and are thus unprotected by a foreign government the Indians have been excluded.

"The moral basis of our rule in India, which has been violently assailed already, will not be fortified if such a conviction takes root."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "No man can answer for the stability of our rule in India if the minds of the people are inflamed by the well founded story of harsh treatment dealt out to their compatriots in the British colonies."

GERMAN PRESS RESENTED INSULT

Refused to Publish Speeches Because Reporters were Insulted by Members.

BERLIN, March 22—The newspaper of Berlin and the provinces have unanimously decided not to permit a word of the Reichstag debates until adequate retraction is offered for the insulting expression addressed to the reporters' gallery by Herr Groeber, leader of the Centre party, because jeers had come from this division at a statement used by a member to the effect that negroes also had immortal souls.

The official news agencies are compelled, according to their arguments, to take down the declarations of the minister stenographically. The parliamentary reporters of the newspapers abstained altogether from attending the Reichstag today and as a result no fewer than twelve deputies who had intended to speak on the colonial budget withdrew their names from the president's list and refused to address the house at a time when their remarks would not be given publicity.

The resolution adopted by the reporters in which they demanded apology and fullest retraction for the insult offered them will be presented to the leaders of every party in the Reichstag to bring influence to bear to bring about a settlement of the incident.
