A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Geo. H. and Mrs. Hooper, Brookline, Mass., on Wednesday evening June 14, when their sister Miss Maud Hunt Munn was united in marriage to Wm. Ivory Emerson of Cambridge. The wedding party was proceeded by Anne C. Munn, sister of the bride and Mildred Emerson, niece of the groom, who acting as ribbon girls, led the bridal party to the parlor, where under a canopy of palms and cut flowers, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Avery A. Shaw. The bride who was simply but exquisitely gowned in white crepe-de-chene wearing the conventional bridal veil and carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas, entered on the arm of her brother Geo. H. Hooper. The groom was supported by Charles H. Walls of Forest Hills. Following was an informal reception to many of their friends who witnessed the ceremony. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple departed for the Hotel Touraine, Boston. After an extended wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Emerson will reside in Cambridge. A formal reception will be given at their new home on Thursday September 21 after which date they will be at home. (Mrs. Emerson is the daughter of the late Dougald Munn, Esq., of Rosneath Mills, P. E. I.)

OBITUARY.—It is a sad duty to announce the death of Miss Frances Morris, daughter of Mrs. George Pippy, Alexandra, which took place on June 19th. Some time ago she contracted a cold, and despite all that loving hands and medical aid could do to stay the hand of death, she passed peacefully away. Anxious hopes were entertained for her recovery until the last, but God in his wisdom, saw otherwise, and claimed her for His own. Although called away at the early age of eighteen years, just in the bloom of youth, she will long be remembered by her many friends and associates, for her kind disposition. "To know her was to love her, to name her was to praise." She was bright and intelligent, possessing a great talent for music which was admired by everyone who had the pleasure of listening to her. Her chief delight was to attend her Sabbath School when she was able. She was a member of the Mission Band, and it can be truly said of her she was one of the brightest, purest, and best of girls. She leaves to mourn, besides her mother already mentioned, a step-father, two step-sisters and three brothers. Her funeral took place Sunday, and all that was mortal was interred in the quiet cemetery at Birch Hill, there to await the final summons.

THE CROCKETT PICNIC. At an ideal spot for a picnic on the bank of a clear flowing river and amid scenes of sylvan beauty on the farm of Lemuel Crockett, Little York, the Crocketts with friends and relatives, young and old, gathered at their annual picnic on Wednesday the 21st. last. They numbered in all about seventy-five. The snow-white table linen spread upon grass of emerald green and decorated with the best that the culinary art could produce presented a scene to tempt the appetite of the most fastidious. The pleasure of the occasion was enhanced by the presence of two former pastors Revs. R. Ople and T. Hicks, who with the present pastor Rev. G. F. Dawson had just arrived from the late Conference.

A lively game of Cricket was played in which the clerical gentlemen took no mean part. The bowling of Mr. Hicks elicited the admiration of all. Some tried the fishermen's art with varying degrees of success. Football and other games made the time pass most pleasantly. All enjoyed themselves and the bonds of family and social ties were made stronger than ever.
