LONG CREEK Farmers' Club meets at Long Creek on Friday, 24th inst., at 7 30 p m. A full meeting is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

THE Baptist choir of Charlottetown are making further preparation for the concert to be held in Pownal on Thursday, 23rd. There is no doubt but this will be one of the best ever given in this part of the country.

CORNWALL—Remember the grand entertainment at Cornwall tomorrow evening by the First Methodist church choir under the management of professor W. Harry Watts, assisted by the S. S. Orchestra. Refreshments after entertainment.

THE members of Excelsior and Cherry Valley Lodges, I. O. G. T. paid Gough Lodge, Vernon River Bridge a fraternal visit on Friday evening, the 3rd inst. Bro. W. L. Acorn, Chief Templar, Excelsior, occupied the chair, while a splendid programme was rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc. After the close of the meeting the visitors repaired to the beautiful new home of Bro. D. P. Irving, D. T., where an excellent repast, served in the Misses Irving's usual style was partaken of.

THE following further particulars of the schr. Delight, which has already been reported in these columns as being abandoned, have been received by an exchange: "Barque Axel (Nor.), from Buenos Ayers, has arrived at Berwickon-Tweed and reports Feb. 20, lat. 26.
lon. 37, sighted abandoned schr. Delight, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., whose crew were reported landed at Lisbon prior to March 8. The Delight was boarded and found to be on fire and with rudder gone, but otherwise little damaged. Six hours later flames shot up from the Delight and she disappeared from sight."

A SUDDEN and unexpected death occurred at Union Road, Lot 33, on Sunday last when Mr. Henry Clements, a young man in the prime of life, passed away. The deceased was in Charlotteton on Friday, the 10th inst., and the following day became ill with inflammation of the lungs. A wife and one young child are left to mourn. Rev.
Robert Clements of the Methodist Conference is a brother of the deceased and another brother Mr. Eli Clements, Brackley Point, has been quite ill with the same disease, but is recovering. THE GUARDIAN extends sincerest sympathy.

CRAPAUD, March 21.—The dedication of the Orange Hall, Crapaud, will take place on Friday evening, March 31st inst. Grand Lodge officers will be present and officiate. There will also be a pie social in the lower flat of the same building on the same evening.
Admission to dedication and entertainment only 10 cents. Ladies with pies free. Doors open at 7 p. m.—Dr.
Robertson has been confined to the house since Saturday with neuralgia notwithstanding this fact the doctor is always ready to relieve his suffering neighbors when called upon and can still manipulate the forceps with comparative ease.—The heavy rain last night has caused quite a flood of water with the result that the tannery at Crapaud will be run with water power instead of steam.—Preparations are in progress for a large output of maple sugar this spring and of course the best grades of brown will advance in price.

FAREWELL WORDS.

Yes darlings, the twilight is falling,
The shadows are creeping apace;
'Tis surely the Master that's calling "Come home, I've prepared you a place."

I'm glad, Oh! so glad to be going, Don't blame me my darlings, for I Have long been weary, a.d. knowing The rest that remaineth is nigh.

I can but rejoice though I leave you,
To go on a little before;
Oh! think with what joy I'll receive you When your watching and waiting are o'er.

I'm weak, but God's never forsaken,
Nor left me to journey alone;
My cares and my burdens He's taken,
And infinite patience has shown.

But soon I shall pass Heaven's portal
And leave all my weakness behind;
New life there, and vigor immortal,
And service delightful to find.

My father is waiting to greet me,
He long has been waiting, you know;

My sisters and friends they will meet
me,
Their faces with love all aglow.

All Heaven with joy will be ringing When safely the harbor I gain;
And then I shall join in the singing—
"All praise to the Lamb that was slain."

But sweetest of all will the greeting Of Jesus, the dear Master, be; Long, long has the thought of that meeting
Brought joy beyond words unto me.

His mercy and love have ne'er failed
me,
No promise has been unfulfilled;
When fierce, raging storms have assailed me,
His voice all the tempests have stilled.

I pray that the Friend of your father
May be the same Friend unto you, The Friend of all friends, there's no other Like Jesus, so faithful and true.

Oh! trust Him my darling, He never Will fail you whatever you need.
Oh! follow, unquestioning, ever Wherever his wisdom may lead.

My blessing I leave you; no father Has children more worthy than you.
Your kindness to me and each other Will brighten your journey all through.

The love that I bear you can never Grow less in my absence, my dears;
But deeper and stronger forever
'Twill grow through Eternity's years.

Now, kiss me, dear loved ones; for faster
The shadows are gathering 'round;
I fear naught of evil; oh, Master!
Thy rod and Thy staff I have found.

The shadows are dark, but unfeating I enter them; since Thou art nigh,
What strains of sweet music I'm hearing,
Good bye! oh! my darlings, goodbye.

TAILOR-MADE VS. FACTORY-MADE!

Take up the printed announcements of makers and importers of ready-made clothing, and when they strive to give emphasis to the alleged merit of their clothing they invariably tell how nearly they approached to tailor-made.

Here are some quotations—

"Elegantly tailored."
"Cut and finished equal to ordered work." "Equal in quality, fit, and finish to suits made to order, or similar statements."

Then tailor-made clothes are different to imported factory-made, otherwise there would be no need to make comparisons. If tailor-made were not the better clothes they would not be held up as the ideal to which the ready-made strive to reach.

The fact is, here is a great deal of difference between a factory-made imported suit and a tailor-made in style and durability.

The man that is different as to the appearance of his clothes when he buys them and when worn a month, may be satisfied with a factory-made, but if he has regard to looks and economy, he will buy tailor-made garments.

For those who are not disposed to give the prices usually paid for clothes made to special order, and are not satisfied with the imported ready-made clothing, we have made, and are daily adding, Suits and Overcoats of superior workmanship that we are selling as low in price as imported makes of inferior quality.
