

AFTER BABY COMES Strength Often Returns Slowly

Mothers May Depend Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore a Normal Condition

Many, many letters similar to the following recommend the Vegetable Compound as a wonderful medicine for bringing the mother back to normal health and strength.

It is an excellent restorative, contains no harmful drugs and may be taken in safety by a nursing mother. Thousands of mothers who have regained their strength by taking it are its best recommendation. Why not take it yourself?

Could Not Gain Strength

Bury, Quebec. "I have had great help from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am a different woman now. I was very sick before my first child was born. I did not get my strength back afterwards, and he did not stay with us long. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for three months before my second child was born, and have taken it occasionally ever since. My doctor had said that medicine would not do me much good, but my nurse wished me to try the Vegetable Compound, so I did. I do not go without having it in the house now and I am looking well and feeling fine. I do all my work, sewing and all." Mrs. JOHN SIMONSON, Box 555, Bury, Quebec, Ontario.

all the time so I could not do my own housework. I picked up one of your little books and read it and then I tried some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It seemed to help me quite a bit and I felt much better after I had taken the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I thank you for your help and I am taking your medicines right along. If any woman wants to write to me I will tell her the same." Mrs. J. MCGINN, 300 Courcellette Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario.

Before My Baby Came

Vancouver, B. C. "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came as I was suffering from neuralgia pains. I had not been taking anything for these pains because I thought there was nothing I could do, but when I read about the Vegetable Compound in the 'Vancouver Daily Province' I began taking it; and of two things I am sure that I had an easier time when the baby came and that it is the best medicine ever. I recommend it to all my friends who suffer as I did, and you can use my letter as a testimonial." Mrs. JOSEPH BLACKMAN, 222 9th St. West, Vancouver, B. C.

Cullen-Pendergast Wedding

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Cullen, daughter of Mr. T. P. Cullen, Sherwood, Charlottetown, to Mr. James Pendergast of Kensington, was solemnized at 5.30 Saturday morning in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, Rev. Father Maurice Macdonald performing the ceremony.

The groom and the bride were respectively attended by Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Aylward.

The bride looked very charming in a most becoming travelling suit of navy tricotine and sand hat, and Mrs. Aylward was handsomely gowned in blue velour and black satin.

After the ceremony the bridal party and other guests had breakfast at the home of Mrs. E. G. Kelly, an aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Pendergast then left by motor car for Borden, en route to Boston and other American cities on a short honeymoon trip.

The gift of the groom to the bride was a valuable gold watch. She had also been the recipient of many beautiful and serviceable gifts from her numerous friends, having been "snowed" at two very enjoyable functions, one held at "Willow Farm" the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Roper in Central Row on Monday evening, and the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, East Row, on Thursday evening.

The bride is a very talented and popular young lady, and the groom is an enthusiastic sports promoter and an ex-all round champion athlete. Both have a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

In the hearty felicitations which will be extended from town and country to the newly wedded pair, the Guardian gladly joins.

IN MEMORIAM

Many relatives and friends throughout the Island were grieved to hear of the death of Mr. Hugh P. McQuaid, which occurred at his home in St. Teresa's on Monday evening, the 23rd inst., after an illness of only a few hours. Mr. McQuaid was born at St. Teresa's in 1846 and passed his entire life in the district. For 40 years he was employed as Section Foreman on the Prince Edward Island Railway at Cardigan and was considered one of the most efficient employ-ees on the road. About eight years ago he retired from active service and was subsequently awarded the Imperial Service Medal. Of a gen-eral, kindhearted disposition he was extremely popular and won the respect of all classes and creeds. His sterling Christian character will not soon be forgotten by those who knew him best. He left for those who live after him a grand example of what a man can attain in fulfilling the teaching of God's Holy Law. He leaves to mourn the loss of a faithful husband and kind and loving father, a sorrowing wife, two sons and three daughters, namely, Mrs. Patrick McQuaid, St. Teresa's and Gertrude, Ethel, Aeneas and Edmund at home. His funeral on Wednesday morning was very largely attended by sympathic friends, who came from far and near to pay a last tribute of respect to one who was deservedly loved by all.

MR. ANDREW LEWIS

The sudden passing of the late Andrew Lewis of St. Peter's Bay on February 22nd, was a great shock to the whole community. A man of exceptionally keen intellect and noble qualities, he was esteem-ed and respected by all who knew him.

He lived the greater part of his life at St. Peter's Bay, where he was born on May 16th, 1841, and for thirty-seven years he held the office of Clerk of the Court.

On January 17th, 1870 he was married to Mary E. Bowers, daughter of the late John Bowers of Charlottetown and she died in 1891. One son, Bowers, died in 1914.

"Truly in the midst of life we are in death" for the deceased was in the best of health when he was suddenly stricken with acute indigestion and died before medical aid could reach him.

The following family are left to mourn the loss of a beloved father: Mrs. John Quinn of Jamaica Plains, Mass., Mrs. R. McKinnon of New York, Greely of Souris, P. E. I. and Mrs. Lannin of Boston, Mass.

A large procession followed his remains from his old home to the Roman Catholic Church where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father McAnulty, and he was gently laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery beside his loved ones to await the Resurrection Morn.

Lives of great men all remind us. We must make our lives sublime. And departing, leave behind us, Foot prints in the sands of time. (Inserted by a friend)

MR. JOHN WAYE

There passed away in Hunter River, P. E. I., at his home on May 1st, 1924 John Waye in the 75th year of his age. Born in New Brunswick in 1849, four years later he came to the Island with his parents. Dur-ing his life of association with the Methodist Church which extended over 30 years he was honored with the position of Sunday School Super-intendent for 25 years. In the life story of the last 30 years of Mr. Waye and his wife, just having pre-deceased him by five months, there is the story of a devoted service to their church. They were loyal sup-porters of the cause, regular at-tendants at all of the Means of Grace, an open door to their home's hospitality to the ministers serv-ing the field. The vacant place in the congregation is keenly felt. The faith that inspired his life, in death did not fail, as he fell asleep fear-less, not there was left to mourn two sons, Walter Waye of Hunter River, Walter Waye of Port Elgin and two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Callbeck of Alberton and Mrs. W. E. Callbeck of Moncton, N. B. The community has lost a kind christian citizen. The family a kind father. The beau-tiful floral tributes bore mute testi-mony of esteem. (Patriot Please Copy.)

Does Peter Manning Dread The 2.00?

MONTREAL, July 6.—Reports were current before Thomas W. Murphy parted with Peter Man-ning, 1.58% that the champion trotter was becoming a rogue, with Ed Gurney Guy. His recent perfor-mances in the hands of Ed Geers at Canton, Ohio, seem to confirm the story. Starting to beat 2:05 1/2 on the half mile track, he failed to beat 2:07 1/2. Peter Manning has trotted more miles below 2:00 than any other horse that ever lived. It is not unlikely that he has learned to dread the heart-breaking effort required of him every time he ap-pears in public.

Exhibitions against time are com-monly regarded as "easy money" for the great trotters, but for a high-strung horse that puts his whole heart—and soul—into the race against time it is often a more exhausting physical and nervous strain than a contest with another horse would be. Nedda, 1:58 1/2, was such a trotter. She became worth-less for racing by reason of her ex-tremely sensitive and nervous tem-perament, and after a few starts against time she was affected in much the same way as in actual con-test. In her last exhibitions her driver, Harry Fleming, had to dis-card his customary bright racing colors and substitute cap and jack-et of neutral tint, lest the com-ing mare should guess what was com-ing and go to pieces with nervous excitement.

Guy, 2:00 1/2, was another of the same kind. A model of deportment on the road, he was a crazy horse on the track, and though one of the fastest of his day he could never be controlled for racing.

It is related that Alice Carnal, dame of the famed racehorse Lex-ington, acted the same way. She worked fast enough to beat the champions at home, but when saddle-d for a public race she worked herself into a frenzy of excitement and became an easy mark for run-ners of inferior speed.

SHEIK WINS SECOND RACE FOR THE CURRIE CUP

Only a Fair Breeze For the 18 Footers Saturday Afternoon—Barney Google Second and Winona Third.— Race Next Saturday Will Be a Hummer.

The second of a series of yacht races, the best three out of five for the Currie cup was won by the Sheik Saturday afternoon, with the Barney Google second and Winona third; the Emerald J. Polly-wog, Byng Boy and Swallow finished shortly afterwards in the order named.

There was only a fair sailing breeze and the 18 footers had a hard time crossing under the time allowance. Taken on a whole it was a very good race to watch and the large number of spectators voiced their sentiments in a like manner.

The yachts got away at 2.30 sharp the Byng Boy leading the proce-sion over followed by the Winona Emerald J., Sheik, Barney Google, Pollywog and Swallow well bunch-ed. On the run to the first buoy Winona passed the Byng and roun-ded first. The beat to windward for the Harbor buoy changed the pos-itions somewhat. The Sheik taking second with Barney Google third, the Byng Boy apparently not liking the light wind fell back to fourth position and was passed later on by Emerald J., and Pollywog. The remainder of the race developed in a race for first honors between Sheik, Barney Google and Winona and almost over the last lap of the course it was anybody's race between the three leaders, the Sheik finally getting away on the last leg and won by a minute with Barney and Winona finishing sec-ond and third respectively with on-ly seconds dividing them.

"WIND-JAMMERS" The Committee boat served two purposes Saturday—as a mother-ship to the aquaplanes and as of-ficial race boat.

Two straight wins for the Sheik. Mr. J. A. Nesservey has offered a cup to be raced for by the 25 foot yachts—Now what—are we going to have that long looked for race?

Capt. Kenny—Get off the river! Buntain, you're takin' all the wind! Ivan—Speak to me Winona—speak to me!

Jocoy—Never mind, next Satur-day is coming—and I hope it blows good and hard.

Jack Mills—Me too!

Leander Eight Won Grand Challenge Cup Henley Regatta

HENLY-ON-THAMES, Eng. July 5.—The Leander eight, stroked by W. P. Mellor, Oxford, won the grand challenge cup of the Henley regatta today by defeating Jesus College, Cambridge, in the final heat by six feet. The Diamond sculls were won by J. Berford, junior, a previous winner of this trophy, who captured them in 1920. He was defeated by Walter M. Hoover, the United States oars-man in 1922 and failed last year to get to the finish. He had an easy victory today in the final over K. N. Craig of Pembroke College, Cambridge.
