"TO DEFEAT CONSCRIPTION"
 Under this heading in last Thursday's Guardian appeared a letter signed "A Woman Voter" in which it was stated that Mrs. George E. Hughes and Mrs. Thomas Campbell were canvassing for women's votes and were stating that they were out to defeat conscription. Mr. Thomas Campbell informs us that there is no truth in this so far as his wife is concerned as she has not been out canvassing at all, and Mr. George E. Hughes informs us that it was another Mrs. Campbell who accompanied his wife. The Guardian regrets this mistake and apologizes to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell for any pain or inconvenience caused them by giving currency to the statement made by "A Woman Voter." —Editor Charlottetown Guardian.

A WOMEN'S PLEA

Sir,—Will you give space in your valuable paper to a few lines from the pen of a country woman regarding this great election and its issue. Now that women have a vote the question naturally arises, "in whose favor will I cast my vote? All women should have been granted a vote. I have no one to represent me at the front yet. I am just as loyal and patriotic, and regret that I cannot vote for my country. I believe it is up to the women of Canada, and especially on P.E.I., to prevent party blind men from doing what cannot be undone in electing Laurier. My father has voted Liberal all his life. I remember well, as a child the thrill of pride when my father with a smile would announce a Liberal victory, but Sir, all that is changed. I fall to see in this great election where the Liberal party is. To me it is Unionism and Laurierism. The man or woman who thinks they are voting Liberal, are not Liberals, but Laurierites. What is Sir Wilfrid's policy? A referendum "if" and Militia Act. Rather uncertain and mysterious is it not? The Union policy is known, what more can the people of Canada want, but the uniting of two great parties, Conservative and Liberal, during the war. Will it be any benefit to the Eastern people to elect Laurier. Will it help win the war or strengthen our soldiers at the front? Sir, don't you think this is an election between Life and Death for the country? Life is represented by Unionism. Death by Laurierism under disguise of Liberalism, and why will we women make cake puddings, sew, knit away in the small hours of the morning give our money time and labor in order to bring comfort to our boys and yet turn around and stab them in the back by voting for Laurier. The Germans can't use them any worse. The Germans are kinder, for if they intended them to die they would give no food. I can see a banner waving above the Canadian trenches. How red it is, probably dyed with the blood of the soldiers who paid the Supreme Sacrifice, and how white are the words inscribed on it, only three, God, Home, Union. Now Sir, in closing I thank you and I appeal to every man and woman, Catholic and Protestant, to vote for Union. After the war we can vote for Laurier, not now.
 I am Sir, etc.

IN MEMORIAM

DANIEL ANDERSON
 There passed away at St. Peter's Lake on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21st, David Anderson, in the 77th year of his age. While death was for him a happy release, it remains from the community a highly respected citizen. A widow, two sons, Frank of St. Peter's, and Everett of Boston; also one daughter, Mrs. Weaver, of East Boston, remain to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral took place on Friday morning, Nov. 23rd to the West St. Peter's cemetery, the services at the house and the grave being conducted by the Rev. R. P. Murray of Mt. Stewart.

MRS. PETER NICHOLSON.

The deceased was a true hearted wife and mother, who exemplified in her life the Christian virtues—cheerfulness, kindness, industry and patience, which endeared her to a large circle of neighbors and friends. Her illness was of short duration, but attended by much suffering which she performed by Rev. J. A. MacLeod, Montague. She leaves to mourn four sons and two daughters: Mrs. Frank W. Budick, Crescent Beach, Conn.; and Minnie at home. Samuel on the home-gan, Neil and Alex at Head Cardigan, and Angus in Davenworth, Wash. and also one brother Samuel McDonald in Lorne Valley and one sister in Charlottetown, Mass. Mrs. A. McNeil.
