 A SPLENDID
ILLUSTRATED SOUVENIR

Suitable for ready reference in the office or home, or for mailing to friends abroad.

WHAT SIR HENRY THORNTON SAYS:

"I am very much obliged to you for the advance copies of the SOUVENIR EDITION. I congratulate you upon the excellence of the production which is really well done and full of interesting articles dealing with the Garden of the Gulf."

THE HALIFAX HERALD SAYS:

"With the compliments of The Charlottetown Guardian, we have received a brochure entitled 'The Golden Future,' setting forth the attractiveness of Prince Edward Island.

"The spirit of optimism which characterizes this publicity publication is particularly commendable, and the fact that one of the provinces of Canada, in the face of a world-wide depression, is singing a song of faith and confidence, is a good indication that this Dominion has yet many things for which to be thankful.

"Prince Edward Island, pre-eminently a farming district, has led the way in many branches of progressive farming, and also in co-operative marketing. The people are, on the whole, exceptionally contented. They invite the rest of the world to share their happiness with them. And the initiative of the Charlottetown Guardian in the publication of this strikingly illustrated little booklet is highly commendable."

WEDDING BELLS.—On Tuesday morning, November 11th, St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Mary Morrissey, daughter of the late William Morrissey and Mrs. Morrissey, of Millview, became the bride of Mr. Charles Walker, son of the late Augustine and Mrs. Walker, of Mt. Ryan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. P. Croken, P.P., of Fort Augustus. During the Nuptial Mass, Gonnod's Avra Maria and other appropriate selections were rendered by the choir of which the groom is a valued member. The bride was most becomingly dressed in a navy blue coat with sable trimmings and wore a picture black hat. Her evening dress was of royal blue georgette. She was attended by her sister, Eileen, who wore a navy blue coat with raccoon trimmings and hat to match. The groom was supported by his brother Walter. After the ceremony, the happy couple motored to Charlottetown, where dinner was served to them in the Revere Hotel, after which they left for a motor drive, returning in the evening to the home of the bride, where a delicious wedding dinner was served to the immediate friends of both parties. The bride is warmly beloved for her amiable manner and well known kindness, proof of which was shown by the numerous showers tendered her previous to her marriage and the groom is one of Mr. Ryan's estimable young men, widely known for his musical talent. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.—Patriot please copy.

BRITISH POLICE DISTRICTS PLAN TO AID EACH OTHER

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Theorizing that two heads are better than one, plans are being advanced for closer co-operation between the police districts of England and Wales and Scotland Yard in Great Britain's age-old war against crime and criminals. Under conditions that have existed for years each borough of England and Wales has sole jurisdiction over its respective territory and Scotland Yard has no standing whatsoever outside the metropolitan area of London, unless called in by officials of the borough.

It is a favorite trick of sensational journalists to bring into their stories a Scotland Yard detective who takes control, ignoring almost entirely the local police. While unquestionably some of the finest detectives in the world today are attached to Scotland Yard, and the organization for the detection of criminals is the most modern in existence, these officers and the organization are maintained primarily to deal with crime within the London metropolitan area.

Some time ago Lord Brompton, who as Sir William Jowson Hicks was the then Home Secretary notified every chief constable in the country that the services of Scotland Yard officers were always available to them, and urged the need for closer co-operation between the "Yard" and provincial forces. Particularly cases of murder and other serious crime was it urged that the assistance of "the Yard" should be obtained at the earliest possible moment.

Under the present regulations however, there is no power to compel local police forces to call in help from Scotland Yard, and in some counties the view is held that local detectives are better equipped to deal with local cases. Many countries and boroughs, however, have adopted the suggestion of the Home Secretary with excellent results.

A Real Asthma Relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has never been advertised by extravagant statements. Its claims are conservative indeed, when judged by the benefits which it performs. Expect real relief and permanent benefits when you buy this remedy and you will not have cause for disappointment. It gives permanent relief in many cases where other so-called remedies have utterly failed.

and 1,500 Indians belonging to various tribes. When he is north of Churchill Mr. Turquetil speaks neither French or English, but one of the other of the primitive native dialects.

British Soldiers Pursue Murderers Through Jungle

RANGOON, Burma, Dec. 29.—British soldiers swinging the native machete hacked a way through the tangled jungle of Tharwaddy district today, dragging machine guns along with them in pursuit of embattled natives who have murdered a government forest ranger and killed at least four policemen in the past two days.

Villages in the vicinity of Veya have been terrorized by the rebels, whose activities were attributed to discontent with the burden of taxation in a year during which the rice crop has been pitifully slim. The marauding bands, which have appeared out of nowhere to battle the skeleton police guards, disappeared quickly again into an almost impenetrable forest and their pursuers have had great difficulty catching up with them because of the difficulty of making any progress through the jungle and across the rice swamps.

CHURCHILL HAS FINE OUTLOOK FOR FUTURE

MONTREAL, Dec. 27. Churchill, the new terminal port of the Hudson's Bay Railway, is destined to become popular, not only as a grain-shipping port but for the many enterprises connected with a project of its importance according to Mr. Turquetil, a member of the congregation of Oblate Fathers engaged in mission work in the far north for the past 30 years, who was interviewed by the Gazette on a recent visit here. The construction of water-works was begun last June and carried on until October and the engineers said would be resumed in the spring so that the new town would have a modern aqueduct early next summer.

Adventurers were being kept out of Churchill by the federal and provincial authorities, who were exercising good judgment in refusing admission to such, Mr. Turquetil said. "No land is leased or sold at the present time," he stated. "Applicants are required to send a request to Winnipeg, and I am informed that more than 17,000 have been received by the Provincial Government of Manitoba. Applications are considered according to the kind of business the applicants want to open and with regard to their usefulness for public service. Home builders, hotel and restaurant keepers and are shop keepers receive preference because at the present time there are houses except those occupied by the officials and workers on the pier or terminal elevator and other undertakings connected with Government work at the terminal."

As to the possibilities of navigation Mr. Turquetil said Churchill had one of the finest natural ports in the world. There were ice fields but no icebergs, and the port could be open for five or six months in the year.

"Two trains a week run out of Churchill, one carrying mail, so that nowadays, we are only a few days from Montreal," the missionary said. He recalled that until a few years ago mail leaving Chesterfield Inlet or Pond Inlet for Montreal took a long time to answer. In fact, mail sent out one summer could not be answered until the following summer with the return boat trip. In the winter the mail service was more precarious, the mails being carried from post to post by Indians on their way to Le Pas and Winnipeg. In connection with the possibilities of the future growth of Churchill and district Mr. Turquetil referred to the advantages of the railway, aeroplane and radio.

Churchill is more than 500 miles north of Le Pas, Manitoba, and is now the episcopal seat of Mr. Turquetil, who settled at the new railway terminal last summer after having lived at Chesterfield Inlet among the eskimos for a long time. He has a modest house and a small place of worship at Churchill, the church accommodating 100 people. His is bounded on the north by the Pole, on the south by Churchill, on the west by the Mackenzie River and on the east by the Atlantic Ocean, according to Mr. Turquetil, it being known as the Hudson's Bay Diocese. His pastoral flock consists of 6,500 Eskimos, who speak various dialects.
