

The Paper That Covers Prince Edward Island
Like The Dew

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News
Worth Printing
All The Ads
Worth Reading

Charlottetown Guardian, Three Cents.
Morning Guardian, Founded 1891. Evening Guardian, 1887.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1920.

By Mail, Canada, $3.00, U. S. A., $4.50.
Annual Subscription, delivered, $4.00.

FIERCE RIOTING IN BERLIN STARTED BY REVOLUTIONISTS

Revolutionists Attacked by Great Body of Workmen when Former Turned Machine Guns on Citizens, Killing and Wounding Many. Soldiers Looted Stores.

(Special to The Guardian.)

BERLIN, March 17.—Troops marching through the northern suburbs today and carrying an old flag at the head of their column for the purpose of exciting enthusiasm and winning followers for the new government, were savagely attacked by a great crowd of workmen singing "Deutschland über Alles," and forming into a hollow square. The soldiers turned machine guns on the throngs which rapidly melted away into the side streets. The casualties were unknown but a dozen bodies were picked up later in the avenue where the fighting occurred. In other parts of the capital wild looting and rioting were taking place. During the afternoon soldiers dispersed crowds before the shops and began plundering on their own account. More than a dozen civilians were killed in one busy street and fourteen were shot on the walks before a large department store in another thoroughfare.

BERLIN, March 17.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has sent a telegram to Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, urging him to withdraw his troops and restore the constitution. At the same time Hindenburg sent a message to Friedrich Ebert, De Jure National President, advising him of his telegram to Dr. Kapp, appealing to Ebert to consider the question of national elections.

CONDENSED SPECIALS:

FOR SALE—LARGE RANGE
Loneragan's Restaurant, City.

*WANTED—RELIABLE ERRAND boy for drug store. Apply at Guardian Office. 7495-3-9ME1F.

*JNO. ALFRED McDONALD, Land Surveyor, Souris.
7555-3-12-ME9p1d

COMPARE OUR VALUES IN household linens, we have what you want. Beer and Weeks. 7704

FOR RENT ROOM SUITABLE for kitchen and three rooms on second flight. Phone 702L.
7694-3-4-8ME3p1d

*FOR SALE—MOTOR BOAT.
"Hazel R." built in 1914, 13 tons registered, engine 25 H. P. D.
Murchison, Victoria, Lot 39.
7696-3-18-ME3p1d

LOST.—Fur neck piece on Kent
St. See classified ad page one.
7702

*WANTED—TWO ROOMS AND board for three people. Apply stating terms to "S" care of Guardian.

THERE WILL BE A HORSE RACE
on the ice at Hickey's Wharf at 2 o'clock. By order of Committee. 7691.

*WANTED—PANTS AND VEST makers also a couple of girls to learn pants and vest making. Apply at McDonald and Perry.
7691-3-16-ME3p1d

*WANTER—MAID ABLE TO DO
plain cooking. Another maid kept
Apply Mrs. Edwin Aitken 241
Euston St. D.T.F.

FOUND NICKEL CASED WATCH
Owner can have same by proving property and paying for ad.
Apply Post Office Pownal. 7693

*WANTED—A MAID. ONE WITH experience preferred. Good wages
Apply 1 Grafton St. between 7 and 8 in evening. 7663-4-17-ME1F

*WANTED, BY MAY 1ST, HOUSE with modern conveniences and centrally located. Apply "M",
Box 116, city. 7454-3-6-ME1F

*FOR SALE—AT A BARGAIN 10
H. P. engine 18 H. P. boiler both in first class order. Also a large quantity of brick Henry A. Mc-Tavish, Eldon, P. E. Island.
7665-3-18-ME41

FOR SALE—A BRICK DWELLING house 3 stories high, about 20 rooms, also barn which may be made suitable for automobiles.
For particulars apply McKinnon
& McNeill, 90 Great George St.,
7692-3-18-ME3p1d

*LOST, PATCH FOX NECK piece on Kent Street, between Prince of Wales College and Guardian Office. Finder please leave at Guardian Office.
7702-3-18-ME3p1d

SPECIAL SHOWING HOUSEhold linens, sheetings, 68c to $1.40, pillow cottons circular 54c to 80c, slips 70c to $1.25 pair.
Turkish towels 27c to $1.80 each.
Bedspreads $2.00 to $6.50, towelings 25c to 45c table damasks
by the yard 75c to $1.25 Napkins
$3.15 to $20.00 dozen. Extra special values in English long cloth cottons 24c to 45c yard. English madapolams 36 and 40 inch at 40c to 50c yard. Best values best variety in the city. Free hemming. We specialize on these goods. Beer and Weeks. 7704

THE WEATHER TEMPERATURE TIDE, MOON ETC.

TORONTO, March 17.—Westerly winds fair.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.35 and tomorrow at 10.13; it will be high tonight at 9.26 and tomorrow at 10.17.

Sun sets this evening at 6.10 and tomorrow at 6.11; it rises tomorrow morning at 6.04 and Saturday at 6.02.

Last quarter Moon Friday March 12th 1.57 p. m.

SEARCH FOR SUNKEN TREASURE PROVES WONDERFUL SUCCESS

Already Fifty Million Pounds has been Brought up from Sunken Ships by most Marvellous Contrivance in Modern Engineering.

(Special to The Guardian.)

LONDON, March 17.—Sunken treasure worth £50,000,000 has been raised since the war began around the British Isles. The Restorer and the Reliant, two sailing vessels that were bought by a British concern from the United States navy have a new device, an oxyacetylene flame which is worked under water for cutting holes in the sides of submerged vessels.

Each ship has twenty-five electric pumps capable of pumping 10,000 gallons of water an hour and carries two divers, searchlights, line throwing guns, electric welding plants, rock drills and other accessories each diver is equipped with telephone. The Restorer last recovered £100,000 in gold from the Laurentic, off Loukhswilly, and both vessels are now operating off New Haven on the channel coast.

"ERIN GO BRAGH" AT THE PRINCE EDWARD

An Excellent Irish Play in Three Acts Most Capably Acted by Local Talent, and will be Repeated Tonight.

A fitting climax to a well-observed St. Patrick's Day was the splendid Irish drama, in three acts "Erin Go Bragh" put on by the Pastime Amateur Dramatic Class last night under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society of this city.

The performers in this production nearly all made their initial appearance in theatricals in this play, many of them not yet being out of their teens. The play was another apt demonstration of the fact that Charlottetown has no lack of dramatic talent and from the capable local director, Mr. J. Austin Trainor, down, all took their various parts in a manner which was highly creditable indeed.

The play was clean devoid of blood and thunder, evictions, and other sensational features and there is not an offensive line in the piece. It was written by Bernard Francis Moore the great Irish playwright, who has many successes to his credit.

The spacious Prince Edward Theatre was filled to capacity and the play was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The part of James O'Brien, the hero of the play was capably taken by Mr. Jack Connolly, who in his first appearance on the stage, certainly looked and acted his part and in every voice and gesture betrayed careful training.

The part of Squire Donnelly was taken by Mr. Walter Trainor who gave a most realistic portrayal of his character.

Mr. Wilfrid Pineau, as Bartie Brannigan the character heavy part had a difficult role, but sustained in a manner which reflected great credit upon him.

As "Philip O'Connor," a young Irish American, Mr. Eddie Durfy filled the bill admirably and added to his laurels already won in the part he played in "The House Next Door."

The comedy end was most ably and happily played by Mr. Ivan Hughes as "Terry Murphy," proud of his birth. His interpretation of the role furnished abundant merriment.

The leading juvenile lady's role of Margaret Donnelly was very realistically portrayed by Miss May Brothers, who is a welcome addition to local theatricals. Her enunciation was excellent and her play was eminently satisfactory.

Miss Louise Arsenault, as Blanche Flynn, Margaret's cousin, did the important role very effectively. With each new appearance of Miss Arsenault on the stage she shows decided improvement.

The part of Alice Gorman, Terry's future better half, was played by Miss Jean Kelly, who gives every promise of being a decided acquisition to the local stage.

As "Old Nancy" who tells more truth than folks like to hear, Miss Annie Egan took this heavy character part in her well-known capable manner and added much strength to the cast. As in the past her work was up to a high standard.

The scene of the play was laid in Garryowen, Ireland and there was a pleasing touch of the old land about it which is always found in Irish plays of the right type.

Delightful specialties were supplied by Mr. Charles Earle, Miss Georgie Kelly, Mr. G. E. Ritchie and Mr. Joseph Doyle. Mrs. Frank McGuigan was the capable pianist for the occasion.

Much credit is due to Mr. J. Austin Trainor who directed the performance on behalf of the Pastime Club. The only regret on the part of the audience was that Mr. Trainor did not take a speaking part himself in this pleasing production. "Erin Go Bragh" will be repeated this evening when another bumper house is assured.

Kapp Says Negotiations Are Off.

(Dom. Press Special.)

LONDON, March 17.—A despatch filed in Berlin yesterday and received here today stated that Wolfgang Kapp informed the correspondent the negotiations with Ebert cabinet had been abandoned because all powers must be concentrated against the Communists.

Kapp, according to this despatch, said the counter revolutionary government expected a radical revolution and warned correspondents to stay off the streets.

Ebert Government will Have No Dealings with Revolutionists.

(Dom. Press Special.)

STUTTGART, March 17.—President Ebert's cabinet, in session here, has decided unanimously to continue in its stand against any dealings with Berlin revolutionists. General Mercker, who claimed to represent the Ebert Government in negotiations with revolutionists in Berlin, has been relieved of his command.

Von Kapp Defies Counter Revolutionists.

(Dom. Press Special.)

LONDON, March 17.—A News Agency despatch via Copenhagen says Independents and Communists in Berlin have proclaimed a republic and delivered an ultimatum to the Von Kapp, head of the revolutionary government. Von Kapp replied by establishing martial law, the despatch said.

75 Persons Killed in Berlin.

(Dom. Press Special.)

BERLIN, March 17.—It was unofficially estimated today that 75 persons have been killed in fighting in Berlin and its suburbs. The counter revolutionary government denied officially the reports that it intends to bring the former Kaiser back to Germany. The revolutionists also insisted that General Mercker came from Stuttgart with full authority from President Ebert and War Minister Noske to conduct negotiations. No reply has been received to the revolutionary messages sent to Stuttgart.

Diocesan Church Society Meetings

The annual meeting of the Diocesan Church Society took place in St. Paul's Parish Hall last evening. Archdeacon Watson presiding. There was a large attendance. Canon Simpson, Rev. H. D. Raymond, Messrs W. L. Cotton and J. E. Bell were elected representatives to the Domestic Mission Board.

The speakers of the evening were Colonel R. H. Campbell, Superintendent of Education and Rev. H. D. Raymond.

Colonel Campbell's subject was

The Provincial Horse Show Opens

Owing to the judges from Ontario, Messrs Scharfe and Gregory, having been unable to make train connections at Saskierville, judging in the Provincial Horse Show will not start until today.

The program as arranged for yesterday will therefore be carried out.

A total of ninety eight horses are entered in the show which makes it the biggest ever held here. These comprise some decidedly fine specimens of Clydesdales, percherons, grade draft mares, standard breds, hackneys, etc.

As judging did not take place yesterday only a few owners of horses stabled their animals at the Agricultural Hall, which has been splendidly fitted up for the purpose. The building when filled with horses and people today will present a lively scene and all interested should make it a point to attend.

There will be a sale of horses before the show closes.

RELIEF NOW IN SIGHT FOR CANADIAN BUYERS OF CLOTHES

British Government Has Released 20,000 Suits to be Shipped to Canada at Wholesale Export Prices of About Fifty-four Shillings or About $12.00

(Special to The Guardian.)

LONDON, March 17.—The Canadian clothes buying public will benefit by the recent release of large quantities of woolen clothes by the British Government. Twenty thousand ready made men's suits are to be shipped to Canada from London at wholesale export price of about 54 shillings per suit (which at present exchange rates is about $12.00).

The suits comprise Government tweeds, serges and worsted and are not of the type known here as standard suits. The shipment has been arranged under the auspices of the Canadian Export Pioneers of Toronto by J. Murray and Co., who have recently been active in developing the Indian market for Canadian products. The recent establishment of the tailoring business in London by Mr. Malby Deeley, millionaire member of parliament, with the avowed object of fighting clothing profiteers is meeting with great success, so many orders have been booked from two to four pounds per suit that a ban had to be temporarily imposed on further orders.

7,000 LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE IN NEW YORK

Practically all Shipping Tied Up and 2,000 Men Thrown Out of Employment.

(Dom. Press Special.)

NEW YORK, March 17.—Coastwise shipping was practically at a standstill today as a result of the workers on the piers of all Sound lines joining with coastwise longshoremen in strike for higher wages.

About 7,000 longshoremen, stevedores and checkers have gone on strike since Saturday morning and more than 2,000 members of the crews on vessels who were unable to operate have been thrown out of employment as a result.

EDITH CAVELL STATUE UNVEILED IN LONDON

Impressive Ceremony in which Her Majesty the Queen Participated Reported by Wirelss to Charlottetown.

The following message from London was received by a private wireless plant in Charlottetown yesterday a few minutes after the unveiling ceremony:

The statue in memory of Edith Cavell was unveiled today in the presence of a large number of men on active service.

The Queen in a speech said: "This beautiful statue will stand for all time as a memorial to one who met a martyr's fate with calm courage and resignation which has rarely been excelled. Countless thousands will pass this spot in our time and in future generations will think with sorrow of her cruel death, with pride in her splendid fortitude and with affection for her unselfish and womanly character. Edith Cavell's name will remain honored and revered throughout the Empire."

Her Majesty added: "I am particularly glad to welcome the Belgian delegation today and to join with the Queen of the Belgians in presenting our national flags upon this occasion. Blending them together is symbolical of the friendship and alliance which existed—and please God will always exist—between our countries."

The statue in memory of Edith Cavell was unveiled today in the presence of a large number of men on active service.

The Queen in a speech said: "This beautiful statue will stand for all time as a memorial to one who met a martyr's fate with calm courage and resignation which has rarely been excelled. Countless thousands will pass this spot in our time and in future generations will think with sorrow of her cruel death, with pride in her splendid fortitude and with affection for her unselfish and womanly character. Edith Cavell's name will remain honored and revered throughout the Empire."

Her Majesty added: "I am particularly glad to welcome the Belgian delegation today and to join with the Queen of the Belgians in presenting our national flags upon this occasion. Blending them together is symbolical of the friendship and alliance which existed—and please God will always exist—between our countries."

FLOOD SUBSIDING IN VALLEY TOWNS

The Situation has Improved and People have Returned to Their Homes--Annapolis, Bridgetown and Lawrencetown without Lights.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S. March 16.—The flood which covered parts of this town and the surrounding country during Saturday night and Sunday has subsided considerably and is still going steadily down, although the situation is far from normal. The rivers are swollen, and there is as yet no communication by rail with outside points. The water has receded, leaving the railway line exposed, but particularly between Middleton and Annapolis there are large sections of tracks covered with blocks of ice.

Towns in Darkness.

In Bridgetown the situation is very much improved. Most of the people who were forced from their homes on Sunday have been able to return. The cellars have been pumped out, and along the waterfront the streets and warehouses are beginning to assume their pre-deluge appearance. This afternoon the south end of the town was re-connected with the north end by telephone. There is no light and no water in the south end as yet, however, and townspeople are prevented from crossing.

Bridgetown, Lawrencetown and Annapolis are without light, and in the case of the last named it is expected that it will be a month at least before power is available on account of the destruction of the electric plant at Lequille.

The flood did no damage at Granville Ferry, the piers at the bridge, which is in process of construction, standing the strain well. As far as could be learned, there were no casualties.

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the

10,000 Allied Troops Police German Areas

(Special to The Guardian.)

COBLENZ, March 17.—The American army of occupation numbering 10,000 men is being issued with full field equipment and is under orders, issued before the German revolutions. There have been no movements however to reinforce any positions or any military activity except those concerned with policing the occupied territory. The total allied forces along the Rhine are estimated at slightly more than 10,000 men.

Billion Dollar Credit by U.S. to Germany

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Extension by the United States treasury of one billion dollars credits to Germany for the purchase of food and raw material in the United States, is proposed in a bill introduced in Congress today. The credits would be controlled by the war finance corporation which would regulate the purchase and accept payment of Germany's obligations to this country, having such security and priority as permitted by the peace treaty.

THE GERMAN REVOLUTION GRAVITATING TOWARDS FINISH

Kapp's Resignation is Demanded Within Twenty-four Hours. All Financial Departments Were Notified that Honoring Kapp's Demands will be Regarded as Treason.

(Special to The Guardian.)

LONDON, March 17.—The German revolution headed by Von Kapp was believed near an end today, Kapp, faced with growing opposition on all sides and deserted by many early supporters, had tendered his resignation. The action of the dictator is believed to have been just time to avert a widespread civil war.

Scores of lives have already been sacrificed and hundreds wounded.

Fear Of Soviet Government Induced Kapp's Resignation.

(Dom. Press Special.)

PARIS, March 17.—Threats of immediate establishment of Soviet Republic and attack on Berlin was responsible for the decision of Kapp and Luetwitz to resign as heads of the revolutionary government according to Berlin despatch by way of Frankfurt today.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY WAS DULY HONORED

Parade of Irish Societies and Religious Service in the Morning. Appropriate Sermon for Occasion by Rev. Fr. St. John.

The feast of Ireland's patron Saint yesterday was duly honored by the sons of Erin of this city.

Though the weather in the morning was disagreeable it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the members of the local Irish Societies—the Benevolent Irish Society and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, who turned out in large numbers for the annual parade and church service.

The parade headed by the League of the Cross Band playing the ever-popular Irish melodies, left the hall, lower Queen Street at 9.45 proceeding to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where High Mass was celebrated with Rev. Maurice McDonald as celebrant, Rev. R. St. John as deacon, and Rev. Lawrence Smith as sub-deacon, and an able sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Rev. Father St. John.

At the close of the service the procession re-formed and proceeded from the Cathedral to Richmond Street, thence to Prince, up Prince to Kent, along Kent to Queen and back to the halls of the societies.

The parade which was witnessed by hundreds of citizens was one of the best in recent years.

Mr. Edward Ready was Marshall of the B. I. S. and Mr. Louis McMahon of the A. O. H.

A very pleasing feature of the day was the fact that a committee of the B. I. S. took the Band and proceeded to the Charlottetown Hospital where they gave a serenade to Bro. Robert Kelly confined to his room, there on account of illness. Bro. Kelly, needless to say deeply appreciated this thoughtful act. He has been a member of the Society for 40 years and the ardent wish of his friends is that he may be spared for many years of further usefulness.

loyal lip of Tradition and the living throat of song. It tells you of Saints and scholars of poets and Patriots. It tells you of glorious achievement of bitter struggles of services given and lives laid down for God and for country, for Faith and for Fatherland.

In a word it tells you of all these things that make you proud of what you are, the Catholic descendants of a Catholic Nation, made Catholic by the labors of St. Patrick, and preserving intact the divine legacy he bequeathed to you.

You are joyful because it affords you a special opportunity to show honor to one who lived it in a special way.

It gives you an opportunity to make some small return to him who has so much given to you. It affords you the privilege of adding your mite to the perpetuation of his blessed memory for the ages to come.

And yet, this joy is not yours alone, for wherever the sons of St. Patrick have gone, there also has gone the blessings which he gave them and those other people and other lands share in your joy this morning and join in your praises. Holy Church, too honors St. Patrick this morning, not only here or in Ireland, but in every land where her altars are raised and her liturgical sung; for by someone act of Canonization she has declared with unfeigned judgment that he was a man of heroic sanctity, he is in Heaven with the Just and that he must be venerated by the universal church. Therefore my Dear Brethren and the thought ought to make your joy complete—the whole Catholic world joins, with you today in showing honor to your Patron Saint.

Let us now for a few moments, consider the history of St. Patrick's life.

It is a disputed question as to where St. Patrick was born, some affirm that the place of his nativity was Kilpatrick in Scotland, others say the southern part of Wales near the river Ussk and others still affirm that he was born in France, however be that as it may it matters little to all true Irishmen whether, Scotland, Wales or France has been honored as being the country of his birth, since it is certain that he lived, loved, performed his life's work and died in Ireland.

Various dates have been assigned as those of his birth but it is now conceded that he could not have been born earlier than 387 since he set out for and reached Ireland in 432 A. D.

When sixteen years of age he was captured and taken to Ireland as a slave and there for six years he tended the flocks on the hillsides of the Emerald Isle, then he learned to love the Irish people, and there without doubt he formed the resolution of preaching the gospel in Ireland.

Some time after being freed from captivity we find him in France at the school of St. Martin of Tours and under the tutelage of St. Germanus of Auxerre, there for twenty years he studied in preparing himself for his glorious mission. In 43 he is sent to Ponce by St. Germanus and on making known his intentions to Pope Celestine I, was consecrated Bishop and after a short time spent in the eternal city, leaves for the scene of his future labors.

For a second time he landed Pagan Ireland—this time however

THE SERMON AT ST. DUNSTON'S

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the

THE SERMON AT ST. DUNSTON'S

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the

THE SERMON AT ST. DUNSTON'S

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the

THE SERMON AT ST. DUNSTON'S

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the

THE SERMON AT ST. DUNSTON'S

The sermon by Rev. Father St. John at St. Sebastian's Cathedral was as follows:

"Be Ye Imitators of Me, as I Also am of Christ," Corinthians, IV-16 My Lord, My Dear Brethren:

These words of the Apostle St. Paul to the Corinthians apply to each and everyone of us for not only St. Paul but all Saints through their works give us example and seem to call to us in the words "Be ye imitators of us, as we also are of Christ."

But, though all the saints are given to us by Christ as examples by which we are to guide our lives, there are, however, particular ones which have been selected as patrons by particular persons by parishes by dioceses and even by nations.

It is then of one of those particular Saints that I am about to address you a few words this morning a saint who has not only been selected by a great Catholic Nation as its patron, but one whose memory is cherished wherever the Catholic church has taken root. I refer to St. Patrick the Patron Saint of Ireland. The name and memory of St. Patrick has followed the exiled footsteps of Ireland's faithful sons and today wherever a Catholic Irishman is to be found, pain and sorrow are laid aside, and he is honoring the memory of that man who above all others recalls to his mind the glories of Ireland's past. It is the past that speaks to you from across the troubled waters. Its voices speak to you from out the storied pages of History of the