IN MEMORIAM

MR. WILLIAM G. COMPTON.

There passed peacefully away at Morell on Friday morning, Nov. 21, one of its most respected citizens in the person of Mr. William G. Compton, at the age of 72 years. The deceased had been in poor health for some time, but the end came suddenly at the last. He was a man of many sterling qualities, upright and generous in all his dealings and of more than usual intelligence and will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives.

He leaves to mourn besides his widow, two sons and three daughters, namely: J. Robbins, of Morell, East, William at home, Mrs. Vinchall Dockendorff, of Mount Hope, Emmeline, a medical missionary in Central India, and Eliza, in training at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, and who was his faithful attendant during the last days of her father's illness.

The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. M. McLeod, and a large concourse of people followed the remains to his last resting place in the Bangor Cemetery.

FOUND WITH FEET AND LEGS FROZEN

GUELPHI, Ont., Jan. 17.—Thomas Campbell, a returned soldier, of this city, was found late last night lying beside the road with both feet and hands frozen. His legs were frozen from the knees, and a pair of rubber boots, which he was wearing, were frozen to his feet and legs and had to be cut off. He is in the General Hospital in a critical condition.

Grade V.—1, Gertrude MacLeod; 2, Mildred Murchison; 3, Ethel MacLeod. Grade IV.—1, Hector Murchison; 2, Kenneth MacRae. Grade III.—1, Borden Murchison. Grade II.—1, Albert Murchison; 2, Augustine MacLeod; 3, Martin MacRae. Grade I.—1, Neil Murchison; 2, Billie Erwing.

A GREAT GAME.—The Abegweit hockey team arrived home last night from their trip to Amherst. The game which they played with the Ramblers which resulted in a tie 7-7 in a twenty minute overtime play was one of the best ever seen in Amherst. The visitors according to reports from Amherst, showed wonderful speed and line combination despite the soft condition of the ice. The Stewart brothers played well for Amherst but were held in check by the wonderful back skating of the visitors.

MR. JOHN McDONALD

The death is announced of Mr. John McDonald, one of the best known residents of Wheatley River, P. E. I., which occurred on Dec. 9th, 1919, of general debility, at the advanced age of 80 years. Mr. McDonald was the son of the late Alexander McDonald and Margaret McLeod, and was of pure Highland Scotch ancestry, his parents having emigrated to the island many years ago, taking up their residence near Rustico. He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly Mrs. Alexander McDonald, and a large concourse of people followed the remains to his last resting place in the Bangor Cemetery.

A. EMMETT DEROCHE

The death of A. Emmett DeRoche, son of the late Alphonse DeRoche and Mary Ann Fortescue occurred on New Year's day, at his home in Wheatley River, P. E. I., at the age of 42 years. Mr. DeRoche was sick but a few days, death being due to pneumonia, which was the cause of a severe cold. In his early life he took up the teaching profession, and at the time of death was principal of Wheatley River school. In his death the teaching profession loses one of its most painstaking, and efficient members, and the town a kind mentor and friend. He was a young man of rare ability, a kind disposition, and will be missed by a large circle of friends. He is survived by six brothers, James, Alexis and Bernard on P. E. Island, Joseph, of Mecklin, Saskatchewan, and John and Augustine of Moncton, N. B. His remains were laid to rest on Jan. 3rd in St. Augustine's cemetery, Rustico, the pall-bearers being Moses Doucette, John, Anthony, George Chandler, Theo Ling, Milton Rackham, and Fidel Gallant, services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Chaisson, P. P. A large concourse of friends and acquaintances following him to his last resting place. The sympathy of the community goes out to the surviving brothers.—R. I. P.

MRS MARGARET SHERIFF

There passed peacefully to rest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louis D. McLeod, Victoria, Louisa, on the morning of January 10th, inst. Mrs. Margaret Sheriff at the ripe age of 89 years.

Mrs. Sheriff, whose maiden name was Margaret Gordon, was one of six children, who with their father, the late venerable elder James Gordon, immigrated to this province in the year 1850 and settled at North River, but subsequently came to reside at Appin Road, Lot 30.

The late Mrs. Sheriff was for many years a member of the Hampton Church, was highly respected, and lived an exemplary Christian life. She was always a kind and true friend in time of trouble, and in her younger years, nursed many a sick person back to health. These were fruits of righteousness in her life, but she looked not on any of these things for her salvation. Her hopes for eternity were not built on the sand, but on Jesus Christ who, she believed, bore her sins in His own body on the tree.

There are left to mourn their loss, one son, James Gordon on the homestead, and two daughters, Mrs. Catherine McCallder, Riverdale and Mrs. Elizabeth McPhail, Lowell, Mass. U. S. A., her husband having predeceased her many years ago. Her only son died one year ago, and her only daughter died some eighteen years previous. Her funeral service at the home was conducted by the Rev. W. A. McQuarrie of Bedouin and was solemn and impressive. The remains, followed by a large number of relatives and friends, were borne to Appin Road and reverently laid away in the family plot there which was once part of the Gordon homestead. The pall-bearers were: Louis D. McLeod, Judson McEachern, John Gordon, James Smith, Alfred Sherrin and K. C. Holm. (Patriot please copy.)

MR. JOHN LARGE.

In the death of Mr. John Large, which took place on Dec. 18th, West Devon has lost one of its most highly esteemed and honorable citizens. Although he had not enjoyed good health for some time, his friends and relatives had hoped to see him restored to health, but "God, who doeth all things well" decreed otherwise and on Thursday morning his spirit went to be forever with the Lord.

Mr. Large was of a very humble and unassuming manner and had by his uprightness and honesty made a great many friends, who will greatly miss him.

His home was one where both friend and stranger alike were made welcome. All who were ever there entertained could not help but feel that love reigned supreme. On Saturday, Dec. 20th a large number of friends assembled at his home to pay their last tribute of respect.

The funeral service was conducted by his pastor Rev. E. E. Styles assisted by Rev. Mr. Turpel, after which interment was made in the Methodist Cemetery, West Devon. A sorrowing widow (nee) Miss Lydia Pour, two daughters and four sons are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. The daughters are—Mrs. Ray-
