THE regular monthly meeting of Port la Joe Encampment, No. 4, I. O. O. F., will be held this evening in Odd Fellows' Hall. Patriarchal degree.

MEMBERS of the First Methodist Church choir will please remember the practice this evening at 8.30 in the basement. A full attendance is requested.

MISS MITCH, head milliner at F. Perkin's of Co's., has just returned from New York, where she has been attending the large millinery openings and also studying under Madam Pietersone.

LOCAL COUNCIL.—A meeting of the Executive of the L. C. W. will be held next Saturday the 11th, afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in P. W. College. Committees for "Labour Bureau" and "Associated Charities" are requested to be present.

THERE was crossing from both sides at the Capes yesterday, but only one bag of mail, which had been left at Tormentine the day before, was brought over, the mails not having arrived from Aulac station in time on Monday to connect with the boats yesterday.

MR. DANIEL FERGUSON, in the employ of the city, while picking ice to remove a plank in the Prince Street sidewalk yesterday afternoon, accidentally drove the pick entirely through his right foot near where the fourth and fifth toes join together. He was able to walk home after having his foot dressed by Dr. Warburton. The wound is a painful one and will lay Mr. Ferguson up for some time.

MISS MAMIE McLEOD crossed at the Capes yesterday on return from a trip to New York and other leading American cities, where she attended the large dressmaking openings; also studying the latest American and Parisian fashions. Miss McLeod is now prepared to meet all her old customers and as many new ones as will favor her with their patronage in her parlors in F. Perkins & Co's store.

THE annual convention of the Summerside District of Epworth League will be held at Kensington, on Thursday, March 9th, first session opening at 2 p. m. Delegates attending convention will have reduced railway rates. A public meeting will be held in the evening, at which Dr. Sprague and others will deliver addresses.—M. E. BENTLEY, Dist. Secretary.

A CORRESPONDENT draws attention to some inaccurate statements made in an item which recently appeared in our columns regarding the late Mrs. James Whitehead of Kensington. She was Mr. Whitehead's second wife, and not the mother of the large family as stated in the obituary notice. By his first wife, Mr. Whitehead had a family of nine. The second wife had only one son who is now in the United States. The late Mrs. Whitehead was an amiable and excellent woman and was beloved by her friends and highly respected in the community.

A LARGE audience assembled in Stretch's Hall, Long Creek, on Thursday evening at the concert given by the members of the Baptist Church of Charlottetown. Mr. W. E. Stretch presided and shortly introduced the ladies and gentlemen as old friends who had on several former occasions favoured the people with such an entertainment at request of the Baptist Church of Long Creek. The different items on the programme were very finely rendered reflecting high credit on the Baptist Church Choir. All the selections were listened to with great appreciation some of the selections by the ladies being specially appreciated, as also were the songs by Charles Earle. Mr. Wood added to the entertainment by excellent selections from the graphophone. At the close a vote of thanks was proposed by D. K. McNeill, Long Creek, seconded by John Gordon, Ch' Town, and carried unanimously, and after being presented by the chairman, Mr. Earle suitably replied. The audience dispersed after singing the National Anthem. An excellent repast was provided for the choir by the kindness of Mrs. W. E. Stretch.—Com.

The death of Mrs Donald McMillan recorded in another column, which occurred yesterday at her home in Point Pleasant Hotel Stanhope, will be regretted sincerely by a large circle of her relations and friends. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Mallett of Union Road and was in the forty second year of her age. By her death a husband is left to mourn besides one child about five years old and two infant babies lose a kind and loving mother. THE GUARDIAN extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Kipling on The Future.

When Earth's last picture is painted, and the tubes are twisted and dried, When the oldest colors have faded, and the youngest critic has died. We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it—lie down for an aeon or two. Till the Master of all Good Workmen shall set us to work anew!

And those that were good shall be happy; they shall sit in a golden chair; They shall splash at a ten-league canvas with brushes of Comet's hair; They shall find real saints to draw from—Magdalene, Peter, and Paul;

They shall work for an age at a sitting and never be tired at all!

And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame; And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame; But each for the joy of the working, and each, in his separate star, Shall draw the Thing as he sees it for the God of Things as They Are! —Rudyard Kipling.

If Watches Could Speak.

What a sad story of bad treatment and abuse they would have to tell. Make it a Personal Matter. Hasn't YOUR watch been running perhaps for years without attention? or it may have stopped and you have merely shaken it to make it go again. Treat your watch like the delicate piece of mechanism that it is. Allow me to examine it for you and if necessary clean or repair it.
