

Woman's Realm / Social and Personal / Fashions / Literature

Happenings Of The Week

Princess Elizabeth played at the controls of a United States-made bomber of a Royal Air Force coastal command station Sunday while her sister, Princess Margaret, lay down and focused the bomb light.

King George's detailed memory of his Canadian visit astounded Major General Crerar. Chief of Canada's army staff who recently returned from England.

Mr. S. G. Merriam manager of the Royal Bank of Summer side entertained the members of his staff to a theatre party Thursday night.

Mrs. R. R. Bell entertained at a birthday bridge at her lovely home 100 Brighton Road on Thursday.

Mrs. H. S. Henderson has been entertaining friends at a series of nicely arranged luncheon bridges at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Miss Pauline Nicholson student nurse at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal is on a holiday visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. D. Nicol on Fitzroy Street.

Miss Katherine MacLennan came home by plane last Saturday from Montreal and greatly enjoyed the trip by air.

Miss Maud Haslam of Springfield is the guest of her sister, Miss Carrie Haslam, Kent Street.

The friends of Mrs. Roberta Smallwood, who has been a guest for several months at the Charlottetown Hotel, will regret to learn that she is now in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Mrs. A. B. Lee Horne of Summerside is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. P. Jardine, Brighton.

Miss Mary MacNeill of Cavendish is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Warren in Ottawa.

Annual Meeting Queen Mary Needlework Guild

The annual meeting of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild, was held at the home of the Hon. President Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, on Friday afternoon, January 31st at 3 o'clock.

The President's splendid address and the reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, showed an amazing amount of work accomplished since the last annual meeting.

As usual over 100 garments were sent to the Prince Edward Island Protestant Orphanage—sweaters, pyjamas, nightgowns and gingham dresses.

The box for overseas consisted this year of refugee garments for the evacuated Maternity Home in Central England.

The Guild has responded to several appeals for large donations to the Navy, the Army and the Mercantile Marine—and 40 letters of greetings have been received from R. C. N. V. R. ratings—merchant marine officers and privates overseas.

One new phase of work was the dispatch of a parcel of refugee clothing to Mrs. Allenby, a former member, who is now head of the Plymouth War Relief.

While entering on all these new fields of activity the Guild has not neglected the work for the Orphanage so successfully carried on for the last 22 years.

Proceedings were held for the local Red Cross and Mrs. Wallace Campbell at Red Cross Headquarters, Toronto, for many courtesies received.

Members were sent to the members absent through illness. The election of officers resulted in the following slate being elected: Patroness, Mrs. B. W. LaPaze.

Hon. President, Mrs. A. A. Bartlett. President, Mrs. Chester McLure. First Vice President, Mrs. W. A. Huest.

Treasurer, Mrs. F. E. Smallwood. Executive Committee, Mrs. James Paton, Mrs. J. P. Gordon, Mrs. Benj. Rogers, Mrs. C. P. Dewar, Mrs. W. H. Pethick, Mrs. V. L. Goodwill, Mrs. J. C. Houston, Mrs. E. T. Higgs, Mrs. G. D. DeBois, Mrs. H. McLeod.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Dorothy Dix Says

SULKINESS IS WORST FAULT ANY HUSBAND CAN POSSESS

Women Have More Reason to Complain About Grouchiness Than Any Other Thing Their Men Do

Dear Miss Dix—What would you do with a grouchiness husband who goes into the silence and stay, that way for days? Sometimes my husband won't speak for a month at a time and I haven't any idea what I have done to offend him.

ANSWER—There is no other fault that a husband can have that is so on a wife's nerves as sulking. Nor is there any other weapon with which a man can so terrorize his family as with grim silence.

There are fastidious men who are disgusted by the methods of the petters and the neekers and who prefer dignified and reserved girls.

And so it goes. And so the only tip I can give you is to study your man and adapt your line to him.

MATURE AGE IS ALL THAT MATTERS Dear Dorothy Dix—What chance for a happy married life should a woman in her 30's expect if she married a man eight years her junior?

Dear Dorothy Dix—When I am with some fellows and I pet and neek with them they call me a flop and don't date me again.

CHANGE TECHNIQUE TO SUIT OCCASION Dear Miss Dix—I am with some fellows and I pet and neek with them they call me a flop and don't date me again.

ANSWER—You will have to vary your technique and change it to suit the individual boy. No every fish rises to the same sort of bait.

When we are very young age counts for a great deal, but when we are older it amounts to very little.

ANSWER—No reason in the world why such a couple should not marry. The difference in calendar age is no bar to their union in this world.

YOUR INDIVIDUAL HOROSCOPE By Frances Drake

For Saturday, February 1st stop short of your goal Fine for a short aggressiveness.

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—An excellent start for this new highly favorable month. Today, Dear, with officials of government, industry, with surgeons, physicians, dentists. Plan, outline new undertakings. Be careful about important instructions.

APRIL 21 to MAY 20 (Taurus)—You must be careful and cheerful in personal conduct. If you are, you can go far and obtain fine results in business relations and in furthering your other interests. Success!

MAY 21 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—On the favorable side, especially for you born after June 4. Get a clear picture and understanding of your activities for the day, then vigorously prosecute them to a successful conclusion. Anything worth while is worth working for.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Not particularly auspicious perhaps for actually seeing the dollars roll in, but certainly encouraging for laying the foundation for an enduring business through your earnest efforts. Step away from the ordinary; try new, improved methods.

UNDER PRESSURE

By GEORGE AGNEW CHAMBERLAIN

"I agree to that," said Dirk promptly. "What about yours? Do you think they would be impartial?"

"Don't think me impertinent, but there isn't time for that. Besides, since she has nothing but riding clothes she might find it embarrassing."

"I take it you're inviting me to your house," stated the ambassador.

"Yes, sir," said Dirk, "and I'd be a lot more humble about it if you hadn't waived your ambassadorship to make them so. When can you bring the paragon around?"

"Do you mind if I have a wash, sir?" begged Dirk. "I mightn't have time later on."

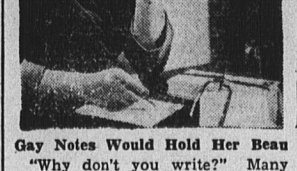

"Help yourself; you certainly need it and you know the way."

Dirk washed all he could reach without undressing. Then he used long enough to do some important telephoning; consequently several minutes elapsed before he found himself in the ambassadorial car.

Even so he was in for a shock, for the moment Pablo opened the closed door of the living room and stood back that his master and his master's chief might pass they crashed in upon an astonishing scene. Before them, back to the door and with hands thrust in unbreachable pockets, stood Joyce in an unmistakable posture of battle.

ANSWER—No reason in the world why such a couple should not marry. The difference in calendar age is no bar to their union in this world.

By Writing Dull Letters You May Lose Friends

Gay Notes Would Hold Her Beau "Why don't you write?" Many a girl has cooled a promising friendship with dull letters and never realized it.

Even old friends will forget how attractive you are if your letters just plod along. I was glad to get your note. I'm still pretty busy. As for new admirers—they fairly freeze.

And you could so easily charm—knowing a few writing tricks. One is to imagine you're talking. One is to imagine you're writing. What pen almost starts by itself. "Your pen almost starts by itself."

Beginning "My dear Mr. Hay," you of course end with "Sincerely yours," but after "Dearest Nancy," natural to write "Lovingly yours." And you'd never sign "Miss Doris Denny," but just "Doris Denny."

Learn the happy, profitable art of letter-writing! Our 32-page booklet gives right usage, sample types of friendly and business letters, vocabulary aids for lively writing.

Send 50c in coins for your copy of Good Letter-Writing Made Easy to The Guardian Home Service. Be sure to write plainly your Name, Address and the Name of your book.

Living & Leisure - The Woman's Realm

SURELY NOT

Must laughter die because the skies are grey. My eyes hold tears and every brow is frown? Must you and I, because the sun-beams hide.

Because the sun hides — is that the reason why That you and I should its dull mood reflect? Oh, surely not! If so, then pity us When we shall view life through its retrospect.

The British yard originally was defined as the length of the arm of King Henry I, by royal decree.

NO SPILLING To keep carbonated beverages from fizzing over when serving, tip the bottle slightly and remove the crown cap with a slow pull.

UNIVERSE IN A ROOM A planetarium is a circular room over which is suspended a starless steel dome, serving as a screen upon which, by means of an intricate projector, it is possible to show in a realistic manner every object in the universe.

Recommended for cocktail wear a dress with black crepe skirt, pleated all-around, paired with long-sleeved shirtwaist blouse in star sapphire blue crepe, fitted black wool suit, slim as a frock, with white pique collar and cuffs.

Puerto Rican women are noted for their fine figures, but their regular eating habits and slender figures are not accident of birth. From childhood the girls are trained to stand and walk correctly.

Interior redecorating during the fall and winter may be a new idea to many, but it is thoroughly practical and work done during these seasons is apt to be more satisfying and more economical than the same work done at other times of the year.

For Bad Winter Coughs, Mix This Remedy at Home Quick Relief. Big Saving. So Easy. No Cooking.

This well known recipe is used by many thousands of housewives, because they have found that it gives them an effective, dependable remedy for distressing winter coughs. It's so easy to mix—a child could do it.

Put the Pinex into a 10 ounce bottle and add your syrup. This gives you 10 ounces of cough remedy, usually quick-acting and dependable, and you get four times as much cough medicine for your money. If never spoils, and is very pleasant—children love it.

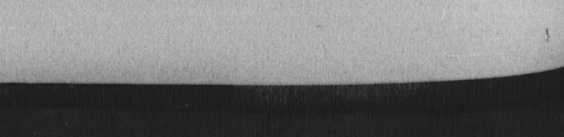

Put the Pinex into a 10 ounce bottle and add your syrup. This gives you 10 ounces of cough remedy, usually quick-acting and dependable, and you get four times as much cough medicine for your money. If never spoils, and is very pleasant—children love it.

Needlecraft - For The Home

Every woman who spends a good deal of time around the house will need this button-front frock. This pattern is made of all day wearability. This same pattern can also be used to make your favorite smock to cover your dress and keep it neat.

Style No. 2578 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 4 1/4 yards of 39-inch fabric with 3-4 yards of contrasting fabric for dress; 3 3/4 yards for smock.

Method: Beat the egg white until stiff, but not dry. Add the sugar gradually, beating constantly, then add the salt and the beaten egg yolk. Whip the cream until stiff and fold this into the first mixture, then blend in the brandy. Chill the sauce until cold, but not hard to serve.

CHILD'S MORNING PRAYER IN CROSS STITCH. Now I wake and see the light 'Tis God that kept me through the night Now I lift my voice to pray that God will keep me through the day.

THE OLDEST YOUNG MAN IN B.C. GOES FOR A WALK. Mr. C. C. Reynolds, 81 years old, walks from Chilliwack to his farm in Mission, B.C., every day.

YOUR INDIVIDUAL HOROSCOPE By Frances Drake. For Saturday, February 1st stop short of your goal Fine for a short aggressiveness.

Needlecraft - For The Home. Every woman who spends a good deal of time around the house will need this button-front frock. This pattern is made of all day wearability.

LANG'S MINERAL REMEDIES. 946 Robson St. Vancouver, B.C. Relieve misery fast - externally, Rub on VICK'S VAPORUB