WOMAN SUFFERED 12 YEARS

Finally Made Well by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emmitsburg, Md.—"I suffered for twelve or fifteen years, and was treated by a physician, but got little relief. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, so thought I would try it, and it did me more good than all the doctor's medicine. I am a farmer's wife and do my housework all the time, and I am better now than I have been for years. I am never without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house and have recommended it to several of my friends. You are perfectly welcome to publish my letter for the good it may do other women."—Mrs. Ettie Warren Emmitsburg, Md.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms of nature's warning, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Warren's experience, and by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

—A STENTORIAN MUSICIAN. —Evidently trying to reconcile the musical world for the loss of Caruso's voice, recently reported in the public press, a burly countryman on Friday night after lubricating his vocal cords with some bootleggers' "hooch" gave a recital before Holman's store, on Water Street, Summerside. Quite a crowd gathered and the artistic diamond in the rough was obliged to repeat several of his choicest numbers, one in particular relating to a certain madamoiselle in Armentieres The police were not present at the time.

—CIVIC HONORS A-BEGGING. —Within a few weeks the office of Mayor of Summerside will be vacant but no one seems to be coveting that honor. Three town councillors are also to be elected next month but no candidates are tumbling over themselves in order to place their merits before the electors. It has been suggested, and the idea is favored by a large percentage of the citizens, that the retiring council should hold a public meeting, or the citizens should hold a meeting of their own, when the retiring town fathers could give an account of what they did and what they did not do during their term of office. Many questions of public interest should be given consideration by the retiring council before it closes its books on a job finished, and it is quite possible that a citizen's meeting would throw some light on public questions for the incoming council. Just now the administration of the police department is receiving adverse comment from many public spirited citizens.

Hockey Player Is Reinstated

FREDERICTON Jan. 21.—Official announcement was made shortly before noon today that the Amateur A. U. of Canada have reinstated Fred "Big Larry" McLean to amateur standing.

McLean was professionalized for figuring with Quebec in the National Hockey league last season. Early this morning Sandy Staples, the local representative, received word from President Covey, of the Maritime branch of the A. A. U. of C. that if McLean would sign certain documents headquarters at Winnipeg had authorized his reinstatement. By noon the papers were signed and Mr. Staples issued an amateur card to McLean.

profits in pictures which Dempsey has appeared and $100,000 for personal services.

Both actions are scheduled for trial here at the term of supreme court which opens on January 31.

Spellman was said today in boxing circles to have been active in Dempsey's behalf in San Francisco at the time the fighter was facing charge of draft evasion some months ago.

Spellman, representing the moving picture company, which at that time was featuring Dempsey in a serial picture, made the trip to Wells, Nevada, it was said, and secured from the fighter's wife, Maxine Dempsey, an affidavit to show that Dempsey had not avoided active service without cause. The affidavit was signed before Dempsey's indictment and was not used at the trial in which Dempsey was acquitted.

Minards Liniment used by Physicians

Heavy Meat Eaters Have Slow Kidneys

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. DONALD McQUARRIE

There passed away at Riverdale on Dec. 8, 1920, Mr. Donald McQuarrie. The deceased was born at Bonshaw 73 years ago but moved to Riverdale with his parents when only a boy. He was of Scottish descent, his parents having emigrated to this country from Ulva, Scotland in 1844.

Mr. McQuarrie was married twice, first to Miss Mary Ann Osborne, who predeceased him about thirty years ago. Of this union ten children were born, eight of whom are still living, seven sons and one daughter, John Robert of Elmwood, P. E. I., Joseph, Charles and Mrs. Powers of Lowell, Mass., Allen of Lynn; Hugh of Perth Amboy, N. J. Alexander of Alberta and William of Vancouver, B. C. Later he married Christie Murray, who survives him as well as four sons and two daughters, James, Daniel; Roy; Florence and Mary at home and Neil of Portland, Oregon. In addition to the large family, he leaves two sisters; Sarah at home and Ann of Fairview. He will be mourned as a doving nusband affectionate father and brother. He will also be much missed in the community in general as he was well read; a good conversationalist and pleasing story teller. The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Dec. 10; the service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. D. M. Lamont of the Church of Scotland, assisted by Rev. J. S. McKay. The pall bearers were John McFadyen; J. Curley; Wm. McQuaid; John McKinnon; John Cameron and Chas McKinnon. He will be missed because his place will be vacant.

—G. W. V. A.—The dance held at the Olympia Cabaret, Friday evening last was a grand success. The proceeds go towards their rooms which have recently been tastefully furnished.

—MUSSEL MUD diggers are preparing for their usual work on Bedeque Bay. Several diggers are being put in readiness for the Spring's output, and it is expected that a number of cars will be loaded, not withstanding the high cost of transportation. Several local men have orders for immediate shipment.

—BACK TO P. E. I.—Friends of Mr. Chester Wyand are glad to welcome him back. Mr. Wyand, who a few years ago was one of Linkletter Road's popular farmers. Having sold his farm he removed to Summerside and later went to Western Canada where he secured a section of land in Kisbey, Sask., where he and his family resided for the past two years. Owing to ill health, he sold his land to his two sons, and is now in Summerside, where he intends to purchase again. Mr. Wyand speaks highly of the West, but prefers the land of his birth, P. E. I.

—QUIET BRIDGE.— Bridge is the craze again this winter in Summerside and one of the new adult card clubs recently formed is distinctive in many ways. Each member takes to the meeting place, her own folding chair and a bright ten-cent piece, the price of her share of the refreshments. The games are keenly contested but not much excitement is displayed as the "tables", formed of one piece of wall board, are carefully balanced on the knees of each set of four players.

FAREWELL TO MR. AND MRS. SLACKFORD AND MISS SLACKFORD

On the evening of Jan. 7, the many valued friends of Mr. Wm. H. Slackford, wife and family waited upon them at their home in Huner River to commemorate their transfer thence to Kensington and while their friends were sorry to learn that they were so soon to lose citizens and friends so respected, they were pleased to know that Mr. Slackford had been promoted to a more extensive field at Kensington.

Mr. Donald Andrews was elected chairman and the meeting assumed formal proportions. The following address to Mr. and Mrs Slackford and daughter was read by Mr. J. K. McKenzie, manager Royal Bank, Hunter River.

Dear Friends:—Having learned of your intended departure from our midst and the severance of the social and business relations that have existed between us during the years of your residence here, we cannot allow the occasion to pass without bearing testimony to our appreciation of your worth as an official and citizen We have always found you most competent courteous and obliging performing your duties in such a way as to win the esteem and good will of all who had business relations with you. The self control, enthusiasm and good cheer made you a popular official, secured for you a like esteem in private life. As a citizen you have heartily identified yourself with every movement that has had for its object the material improvement of this place and the general advancement of our citizens while in the social circle, you, Mrs. Slackford and daughter have always taken a lively and pleasing interest.

In the chuch, Mr. Slackford, as superintendent of the Sabbath school and choir director, you leave a vacancy not easily filled. In all church work you and your family have proved altogether efficient and in idelity have been an inspiration to the best of us.

In conclusion we beg to assure you that we shall always cherish the most pleasing remembrances of your residence at Hunter River and that you, Mrs. Slackford and Miss Slackford carry with you our very best wishes for your prosperity and happiness wherever your lot may be cast. D. M. McLead; Donald Andrews; H. T. Pickering; P. J. Noy; Duncan McDonald; J. A. C. Rogerson; A. B. Cudliffe; Ira Rackham; R. N. Nicholson; A. Cpmmings F. Bagnall; Gordon Brown; B. Wonacott; Murdock Cuthlife; J. W. Patterson; J. K. McKenzie; Jas. Andrews; Everette Wedlock; Wilfred Andrews; J. H. Vanlderstine John Waye, Edwin Carew; Willard Seller; Robert Bagnall; Rev. R. H. Stavert and Rev. Geo. Ayesr.

A supplementary address was presented to Miss Mildred Slackford as follows:

Dear friend:—For some time it has been reported that there was a great probability that your father would be transferred to some station other than Hunter River. The residents of our village were all hoping that such a report was not true, but of recent date we have learned that it was all too true. Today we were told for a certainty that your father was to take his departure and that too on the morrow. We believe that this means that we are soon to lose you from our community or at least we have judged that this is so. Yet while we believe that this is correct, we would not be surprised that at a later date you might be persuaded to come back and become one of our number. But, be that as it may, we nevertheless believe thata for the present you are going along with your father and mother. This being so, we as members of the Presbyterian choir, together with a number of your other young friends felt that we could not allow you to go away without in some way telling you how much we have enjoyed having you among us and how greatly we have appreciated your kindness in helping us in our work in the choir. Often you have sung for us and occasionally you have played for our services. But whatever you did, you did it so willingly that it was always a joy to help us in any way that you possibly could In the days which are to come we shall miss your kindly help and not only in the sphere of music but also in the social world in general we shall miss you. In what ever was for the betterment of our village life, you were always willing, to take a part.

We would ask you then to kindly accept this small purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us. We would ask you to value this not so much because of its intrinsic worth but rather because of the expression of admiration and of good will conveyed by the giving of it from us to you. As you go out into your new sphere of life and as you gather new friends around you, we would have you know that our best wishes shall ever follow you and we trust that among the many new friends whom you no doubt will make, the old ones at Hunter River will still have a place. And should it be that at any near or even far distant date in the future, you would decide to come again to live in our midst, kindly remember a very hearty welcome will be found awaiting you. Signed on behalf of your many friends.—Mrs. Duncan McDonald; Eda Nicholson; Mrs. Everett Wedlock; Ruby McDougall; Helen Rogerson; Rev. R. H. Stavert and others.

Mr. Slackford on behalf of himself, Mrs. Slackford and daughter acknowledged the address and the present in concise and grateful terms, showing how keenly he appreciated the kindly thoughtfulness of his many good friends in Hunter River.

Safe as the Bank of England

NEVER has a policyholder suffered loss through the failure of a regular life assurance company operating under charter from the Dominion of Canada. Can as much be said of any other class of business?

The soundness of each Canadian life company is rigorously tested, and the renewal of its license each year depends upon the result of an examination into its affairs by inspectors from the Government Insurance Department. Where else are trust funds so carefully guarded?

To guarantee the fulfilment of policy contracts, the Dominion Government has fixed a minimum standard of reserves to which every company is obliged to conform. The Imperial Life maintains reserves greatly in excess of the Government standard.

Every regular life assurance company in Canada must at all times provide security of an amount at least equal to its liabilities to policyholders. The Imperial Life provides security of more than $130 for every $100 of liability to its policyholders.

A deposit is required to be made with the Receiver-General by each regular life assurance company doing business in Canada. The Government deposit maintained by The Imperial Life is more than four times the amount required by law.

Just write your name and address on the coupon below and mail it to us. Then we'll send you a free copy of our booklet, "A Few Facts." This outlines many distinguishing features of The Imperial Life—features which ensure absolute security and liberal profits for Imperial policyholders.
