RETURN FROM TRURO — Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Ives and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel McDougall and son Allan, returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Truro. While there Mr. Ives paid his official visit as Provincial Grand Prior to the Malta Preceptory of the Masonic Lodge and installed their officers. On May 5th he and Mrs. Ives were in Amherst, where he made his official visitation to the Beausejour Preceptory, which takes its name from the historic fort on the heights nearby, and installed the officers there. Mr. Ives said that he could see no difference in the roads in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia from those in this Province. The pavement was broken up just as badly there as it is here, he said. He went by Borden and returned by Wood Islands.

Deepest sympathy goes out to the family of the late E.C. LePage in his passing and would offer these words of comfort: "To live in the hearts of those you leave behind, is not to die."

The latest news from Mrs. Melvin McLeod who has been with her sister, Mrs. Stubbs of Cambridge, Mass. states that her sister's condition is greatly improved and Mrs. McLeod will return to her home at an early date.

Mrs. Ernest McNeill has returned home from the P.E. Island Hospital where she had been a patient under observation for a few days, her many friends will be pleased to learn she is feeling much better.

In a recent letter from Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Andrew they told of their happy surprise while attending a show of receiving the door prize of a beautiful three way torch light, and as Erwin stated, although late in the night, they were happy strutting home with their prize.

Among the contestants at the musical fesival this past week were little Elaine Cousins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cousins and Doris Andrew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Andrew. Doris was awarded third place in a class of twenty-one in singing. Congratulations to those young ladies in their effort.

Mr. William Stewart has returned to his home here after spending the winter with his niece Mrs. J. Weeks Murphy and Mr. Murphy who is principal of Kensington High School. His friends are happy to see him back looking hale and hearty. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and son Max and Mr. Lorne Campbell accompanied him and enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Dickieson.

The pulpit of New Glasgow Christian Church was occupied by Rev. Richardson of Montague who conducted services in the morning and evening, preaching forceful and inspiring sermons on "the Kingdom of God". Under the direction of Mrs. George Dickieson at the piano, the young people led the music which was greatly appreciated by the congregation. It is hoped that Rev. Mr. Richardson will supply this congregation when at all possible.

Dr. and Mrs. Schopeiro were at home to a number of friends on Wednesday evening, April 28th when they entertained to a card party of four tables. Attractive prizes were won by Mrs. Lorne Stevenson and Mr. Dingwell, the boobies going to Mrs. Ed Stevenson and Mr. Lorne Stevenson. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. O'Neill. A social chat and jolly sing song brought a pleasant evening to a close all too quickly when the guests departed for their home loud in their praise of the hospitality of this esteemed young couple.

A number from this district attended the funeral of the late E.C. LePage on Saturday, to offer their respect for one that had lived most of his life in Rusticoville and North Rustico where he conducted a general merchantile business until his retirement a few years ago when he made his home in Charlottetown. His passing will be mourned by a host of friends and acquaintances but especially by his own immediate loved ones namely, his bereaved widow, and two sons Dr. Elois who is practising in Ontario, and

Smith-Bourke Nuptials Yesterday

St. Paul's Anglican Church was the scene of a marriage of wide interest yesterday morning when Frances Isabel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bourke, of Charlottetown became the bride of Mr. Ronald Burns Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith, of Halifax. Sheaths of pastel snapdragon and fern covered the chancel lattice and bouquets of spring flowers were placed on the communion table. Rev. J. T. Ibbott performed the ceremony and Mr. Royston F. Mugford, A.R.C.O., played the wedding music. St. Paul's Church Choir sang as their processional hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Anne Sadler, as maid of honor. Miss Margaret Palmer and Miss Irene MacLeod were bridesmaids.

Mr. Arthur Plummer of Saint John, was groomsman, and the ushers were Mr. Edward Burns of Saint John, Mr. Ralph Dumont, Mr. Donald MacLeod, Mr. Crilly Bourke, all of Charlottetown.

The bride wore a gown of opalescent satin with a long train which swept back from a peplum. The fitted bodice which was gathered to a sweeping circular skirt, had a jewel neckline and long pointed sleeves. At her throat she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her headdress was a finger-tip veil of net, and she carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore gowns of similar design to that of the bride with peplums draping back into short over-tunics.

Miss Anne Sadler, the maid of honor, was gowned in pastel green taffeta. She wore a large golden picture hat trimmed with a wreath of pastel flowers and finger-tip streamers of green velvet. She carried an old fashioned nose-gay of pastel flowers.

The bridesmaids' gowns were of golden taffeta. Two single pink roses were caught on each side of their large picture hats. They too carried nose-gays of pastel flowers.

Mrs. H. C. Bourke the bride's mother, chose a tourquoise dress with jeweled belt. She wore a tiny black hat trimmed with a single pink rose. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The groom's aunt, Mrs. Colin Burns of Saint John, wore a navy blue and white dress, navy accessories and pink corsage.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the Charlottetown Hotel. Following this Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a motor trip through Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride wore a vermilion top coat over a grey wool gabardine suit, plaid taffeta hat and navy blue accessories.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Miss Jeana MacRae of Montreal, Mrs. Colin Burns, Saint John, Mrs. Roxie Bond, Saint John, Mr. S. S. Smith, Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Steele, Saint John Mrs. W. A. Warwick and Miss Isobel Warwick, Saint John, Dr and Mrs. W. B. Howatt, Miss Isabel Howatt, Mr. Hubert Howatt, Mrs R. T. Mussen, Miss Dorothy Wyatt, Miss Wanda Wyatt, all of Summerside and Dr. and Mrs. William Tidmarsh of Bedeque.

This summer Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in Charlottetown. In the fall they will make their home in Fredericton where Mr. Smith, an R.C.A.F. veteran, is completing his course in engineering at the University of New Brunswick. The bride, a graduate of MacDonald College was for the past year, dietitian at the Saint John General Hospital.

Chignecto Canal Project Survey

AMHERST, N. S., May 12 — (CP) — The Maritime Transportation Commission will make a thorough survey of the Chignecto canal project this summer, commissioner Clyde J. Fitch of Moncton, N. B., announced here tonight. Plans for the survey were approved at the annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade at Saint John, N. B., last December.

Mr. Fitch told a conference attended by president N. S. Sanford and secretary A. R. Lusby of the Amherst-Sackville committee that Commission chairman Rand Matheson had said the way now was clear to make the survey. Complications arising from the freight rate issue had made earlier action impossible.

It was suggested that Maritime Boards of Trade be asked to provide "factual information" to assist in the long-boosted project for a canal across the Nova Scotia isthmus.

Arctic Beckons To Veteran Explorer

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., May 12 — (CP) — The Arctic wastes again are beckoning Donald B. MacMillan and today the 73-year-old explorer was enroute to Boothbay Harbor, Me., to prepare his sturdy schooner Bowdoin for his 27th visit to the polar bear's domain.

MacMillan plans to sail June 12 and hopes to reach a point within 10 degrees of the North Pole as head of an expedition sponsored by the Cleveland, Ohio, and Bowdoin College Museums.
