

MONDAY.
The marriage took place on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, of Miss Alice Langille to Cowan Galbraith, both of Westville, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. McNair. Mr. Galbraith is a son of Major Galbraith of the P. E. I. Railway.

The death occurred at Cherry Hill on Saturday, Dec. 30th, of Annabella Coffin, relict of the late Nathaniel Coffin, aged 89 years. She leaves to mourn their loss four sons and three daughters, as follows—David and Henry at home, Alfred in Vancouver, and Leonard, Presque Island, Maine. The daughters are: Mrs. E. Douglas, Head of Hillsboro; Mrs. A. Douglas, Mt. Stewart, and Mrs. D. McEwen, city. The deceased had forty-one grand-children and thirteen great grand-children. She enjoyed excellent health until June last, when she fell and fractured her hip. Since then she had been confined to her room. She was a most estimable Christian woman. The funeral took place on New Year's Day, and there were seventy-five carriages in the procession. The interment was held in the Presbyterian churchyard at West St. Peter's.

Departed this life, on December 30th, 1911, after a short illness, borne with Christian fortitude, Archibald M. Johnston, aged 52 years.

It is not too much to say that a community, since the angel of Death has again visited this place, and removed from its midst a beloved and respected citizen—the late Archibald M. Johnston.

Stricken by the dread disease pneumonia on the Tuesday following Christmas Day, the malady complicated by other affections, quickly assumed a most serious form and the physician from the first could hold out no hope of recovery.

The best medical skill, kind attention and the heroic resistance of the deceased could not turn aside the "call" and on Saturday, 30th, the brave spirit took its flight to its eternal home. The deceased was the youngest son of the late William and Elizabeth Johnston of Peters Road. After some time spent in the western states the late Archibald M. Johnston began business at Peters Road as a general merchant, and in a few years, by careful attention, brought his business to its present flourishing state.

He departed was united in marriage in 1887 with Isabella, daughter of the late William McDonald of Peters Road.

The bereaved family, besides the surviving widow are: Gertrude G., at present manager of the store; Fred, lately employed on the C. P. R. at Macadam, N. B.; James, attending the Hillsborough Consolidated School, Ethel and Louis. The following are the brothers and sisters—Christophers Johnston, of Macadam, N.B.; the late Mrs. James McLean of Peters Road, who predeceased her brother just one week; Mrs. F. J. Morrison, of Peters Road; Samuel Johnston Peters Road; the late Capt. John Johnston, of Bristol, England; James T. Johnston, of Portland, Me.; the late William D. Johnston, of Peters Road; Neil Johnston, Peters Road; Joseph T. Johnston, of Albuquerque, N.M.; and the late Mary Johnston O'Peters Road. Being so long and favorably known it will be seen that death has caused a blank, which seems hard to fill. He will be missed in the store, the community and the church of which he was a consistent member. The funeral ceremonies were held in the Presbyterian Church and were conducted by Revs. Andrew Gray, pastor, and A. J. McNeill of Murray Harbor South, both of whom spoke in fitting and impressive terms on the occasion. Solemn instrumental music was rendered most appropriately by Mrs. Allan Morrison. Among other selections the writer noted the favorite hymn of the departed brother, "Hiding in Thee." The pall-bearers—all relatives of the deceased—were: Allan Morrison, Wil-

There's Something Wrong.
Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Will Right It.

When it seems as if you simply could not bear up any longer it is high time to look for the cause of the trouble—and the remedy.

In an astonishingly large number of cases the real cause of woman's misery is found to be constipation, and the remedy that always cures is Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Neglect of the daily movement of the bowels, so necessary to health, soon poisons the whole system from the impurities retained in the body. Headaches, indigestion, biliousness and lassitude follow, and often more serious female disorders are brought on or aggravated.

James and Mrs. Kelly, City, will have the sympathy of their many friends in the death of their little daughter Catherine Gertrude, which took place yesterday. The little one took suddenly ill on Sunday and passed away after about one day's illness. She was a bright little child and her endearing nature will make her loss the more keenly felt by the bereaved parents. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.45 o'clock from the residence of the deceased's parents to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and thence to the R. C. Cemetery. The Guardian joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

The death occurred at Hillsboro, N. B., last week of Mrs. Murray, mother of John Murray, lately of Curryville, Albert County. Mrs. Murray retired at night in her usual health and at an early hour in the morning she awakened her son, informing him that she was feeling unwell. While the son was making the fire and getting some remedies ready, the deceased expired. Mrs. Murray was a native of P. E. Island and was seventy-seven years of age. She leaves a son John Murray, with whom she resided and one daughter, Mrs. Lewis Fenton of Curryville, also another son, by a former marriage.

There passed away recently at his home, Argyle Shore, a good man in the person of the late John McLean, whose death requires more than a passing notice. Mr. McLean was born at Argyle Shore in the year 1835 and was at the time of his death in his 77th year. He enjoyed good health until a few months ago, when disease settled upon him which boded the skill of his physicians, and to which he succumbed on Nov. 30th. He bore his sufferings with patience and resignation to the Divine will, and quietly fell asleep trusting in the arms of his Redeemer, leaving to his family the legacy of an unblemished reputation. Mr. McLean was twice married, his first wife was Miss Catherine Livingston of Ning Mile Creek; his second, Miss Mary Myles of Tryon, both of whom predeceased him. His funeral, a very large one, was conducted by his pastor, Rev. James McHoughall, instrument being made in the beautiful cemetery at Canoe Cove, where beside the remains of his wives he laid him to rest waiting the Resurrection morn. He leaves to mourn two sons, Donald and Alexander, at home, one daughter Annie May also at home, one son Eben Charles in the United States, one sister Mrs. Peter McDonald of Bonshaw, and one brother Allan in California, besides a host of friends and acquaintances who feel keenly the loss of a true friend and neighbor.

MARSAILLES, Jan. 16.—The captain of the French steamer Sinai reports as he was entering the harbor of Smyrna on Jan. 7, the Turkish forts fired on two British steamers coming out.

In the ensuing confusion the Sinai nearly collided with these vessels.

Next morning as the Sinai was departing the forts fired three shells at her, one of them bursting within 300 feet of the ship and causing a panic among the passengers. The Sinai was flying the French colors. The captain returned to port immediately and filed a complaint at the French consulate.

CONSANTINOPLE, Jan. 16.—The Minister of Marine has not received any information re the sea fight off Kufundia in the Red Sea where the Italians declare they sank seven Turkish gunboats, on Jan. 7 after a sharp battle.

The Turkish Minister of Marine says the only Turkish boats along the Arabian coast of the Red Sea are small revenue cutters, armed with a single small calibre gun.

TUESDAY

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Coombs, City, will leave her late residence, 113 Euston St., this afternoon at two thirty o'clock. Mrs. Coombs was formerly a Miss McKinnon of Lot 48 and leaves besides her husband, several sisters and brothers to mourn. She passed away at her home on Sunday. The funeral will be conducted by undertaker Wadman.

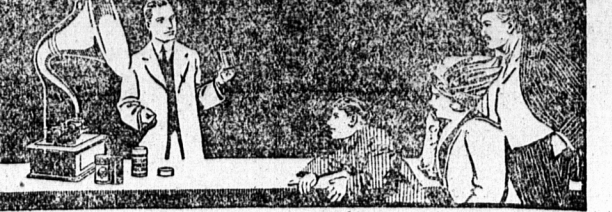

The death occurred at Revere Mass on Tuesday of last week of Robert B. Steele formerly of this city. The deceased leaves to mourn a widow, formerly Mrs. Binns of Charlestown, one son Bern of Boston, and three daughters, Mrs. James Lawson, Manitoba, Mrs. Jason Carson, Somerville, Mass., and Miss Minnie, at home. The deceased succumbed to an attack of heart trouble and his funeral took place on Thursday.

On Friday, Jan. 12th, many of the friends and relatives gathered at the home of John MacNeill, Cavendish, to pay the last tribute of respect to one of the most respected citizens of the community, Miss Jane MacNeill, who passed away Jan. 10th, after an illness of about five days. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Sables, pastor of the Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. John Sterling, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The pastor spoke from the text, Rev. Day: 13. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 10th, at 6 p.m., the home of James Graham, Bay View, became the scene of a very happy event when his daughter Lilla Bell was united in marriage to Herbert Lee of Togo, Sask. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Sable. The bride was dressed in cream silk luster and was unattended. At 8 p.m. a splendid reception was held at which a large number of friends assembled to congratulate and shower upon the happy couple their best wishes for a bright and happy future. The guests were then ushered into the dining room where a sumptuous repast was partaken of, after which Miss Campsie Clark and Henry Burgess rendered some excellent music. The wedding presents were many and beautiful, attesting to the popularity of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will make their home in Bay View until the spring when they will remove to Togo.

AMBEROL RECORDS

—the record which plays twice as long

THEN you will understand why so many good songs, so much good music of every character never appeared in record form until the Amberol Record was perfected.

Then you will understand how, when you own an Edison Phonograph, you can have all of the very best entertainment of every kind.

Then you will understand how this one advantage alone makes the Edison Phonograph the greatest sound-reproducing instrument as well as the greatest musical instrument—even if it had no other advantages. But it has: the sapphire reproducing point, that does not scratch or wear the record; the luster—no changing needles; exactly the right volume of sound for your home; home recording—the ability to make and reproduce your own records in your own home. Any Edison dealer will demonstrate these great Edison advantages to you.

A very interesting event took place at the residence of Robert and Mrs. McGowan, of Malpeque, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 10th, when their daughter Miss Ethel Blanche was united in marriage to Robert L. Sutherland of Sea View. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. Rattree, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding march was played by Mrs. E. Howatt of French River and promptly at the hour of 7 o'clock the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father. The young couple were unattended, and, without flattery, their friends think it right to record the fact that both looked exceedingly well. After the brief but fitting service of the Presbyterian church they were very heartily congratulated by the guests assembled. Then followed supper, and an evening of true enjoyment made up of music, social intercourse and games, in which all participated with a heartiness that left nothing to be denied, the oldest member present and even the minister entering into the fun with greatest pleasure. The night was cold and the wind blew fiercely, but inside the home there was a delightful evening of innocent merriment. The presents were numerous and elegant, among which might be mentioned a beautiful rug, a mink muff from the groom, and a handsome fur-lined coat from the parents. Others might be recorded but space forbids. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have the very kindest wishes of a large circle of friends as they begin together.

You Can Make Better Foods For The Children With "Beaver" Flour Than You Can Buy

Next to a returning Arctic Explorer, the hungriest mortal on earth is a growing boy. He is always ravenous. "He will eat anything". But why should he?

Right now is the time when his parent should be most particular about his food—to prevent injudicious eating and to protect him against unsuitable food.

Good, home-made bread, made of "Beaver" Flour—light, flaky biscuits made of "Beaver" Flour—these are real foods for growing children. "Beaver" Flour is a blended flour. That is, it is made of exact proportions of nutritious, beautifully flavored Ontario Fall Wheat and a smaller proportion of the stronger Western Spring Wheat.

It is both a bread flour and a pastry flour—and makes the real nutty flavored home-made bread and delicious pastry such as cannot be made with any purely Western Wheat Flour.

Just try "Beaver" Flour—and see for yourself how thoroughly satisfactory and dependable it is for all kinds of baking. Your grocer sells "Beaver" Flour or can get it for you. Dealers—Write us for prices on Feed, Coarse Grains and Cereals.
