Scout News and Notices

The regular meeting of the 5th Charlottetown Troop was held in the Zion Church on Monday, June 5. This was joint meeting of the Scouts and Wolf Cubs held for the purpose of a "Going up" service. At the meeting Waldo Dingwell, Keith Rodd and Allison Swan were received into the Scouts.

The Scouts acknowledge with sincere thanks the receipt of a Challenge Shield presented to the Troop by Mr. Vernon Rodd, in memory of his son, G. C. Taylor Rodd. The shield, which is a very beautiful one, is presented for patrol competition annually, and this year has been won by the Wolf Patrol.

The games period of the meeting took place in Victoria Park where the patrols engaged in a game of Soccer, after which various other games were played. The Rev. G. C. Webster and Mr. Murdoch Ross paid a visit to the Troop at the Park.

Saturday the Troop had a hike to Keppoch Beach. Going out the following Scouts were successful in passing their tests in the "Scout's Race": Davis Carson, Waldo Dingwell, John MacLeod, Keith Rodd. Upon arrival at the beach the boys donned their bathing suits and thoroughly enjoyed their swim. This was followed by an inter-patrol game of soft ball, which resulted in a draw; the score being 9-9. Following the game the Scouts did full justice to the "eats" which had been brought from home. After a brief rest tests were conducted in fire-lighting on the shore. Davis Carson, Waldo Dingwell, John MacLeod and Keith Rodd successfully passing their tests in fire-lighting.

At the next regular meeting, owing to the additional members being admitted to the Troop it is planned to form a third patrol. Any boy wishing to be admitted should hand his name either to the Scoutmaster or one of the Patrol Leaders before the next meeting, so that he may be assigned to one of the patrols. Patrol Leaders and Seconds will also be chosen at this meeting and a full attendance of Scouts is requested. Next meeting at the Church June 13, at 7.30 p.m.

Stabilized Money Not Troublesome Experts Believe

NEW YORK, June 12—(C.P.)—Should the major powers agree at the London economic conference upon a far-reaching tariff policy to mend the current economic nationalism, stabilization of currency would probably not be an extremely difficult task, in the opinion of American financial experts.

A general undertaking pledging governments to maintain their currencies at approximately the existing ratio with only a normal margin of fluctuation would, they believe, probably be entered upon.

It is considered likely such an agreement would not attempt to stipulate the means by which this would be accomplished, since a great variety of machinery must be created to deal with myriad problems, and these details might well be handled by committees of specialists. Where countries command sufficient gold, experts feel the task would be relatively simple.

Much of the work presumably could be accomplished through the co-operation of central banks of the various governments. Countries whose resources are at low ebb possibly would be given loans, to assist them to stabilize their money. France has advocated such loans especially to the small central European countries which are in great currency distress. Great Britain and the United States probably would be asked to participate.

Britain, France and the United States are the "big three" in the financial world, and their agreement would be essential to any stabilization plan. These three nations, as well as other important powers, apparently are agreed in principle the gold standard is the goal which all countries must achieve eventually. But under present conditions it is held this is not possible and that until commodity prices are restored the best that can be done is the establishment of a fixed ratio between currencies to be maintained under international agreement.

Whether France will cling to the gold standard alone is a problem which is attracting attention in financial circles. Should France go off the standard experts believe it would probably be easier for some stabilization plan to be worked out at London.

Great Britain, through the Chancellor of Exchequer, Neville Chamberlain, and other leaders has repeatedly let it be known its chief consideration for the moment is the increase in prices. Consequently Britain probably will be willing to have a ratio fixed between various currencies at the London meeting which will keep the pound sterling in much the same position as it now stands with relation to other currencies.

Sun Will Play Tricks In 1935

By Logan Bruce in Toronto Star Weekly

In the year 1935, which is not so far in the future, the world is to be treated to a heavenly show which no man now living can recall ever seeing before. From January to December there will be seven eclipses, five of the sun and two of the moon. This is the greatest possible number of eclipses that can happen in any one year, and it is 123 years since the event has occurred. The last time this series of eclipses took place was during 1805, when Lord Nelson won Trafalgar.

As far as Canada is concerned the interesting thing about the seven 1935 eclipses is that five of them will be visible from various portions of the Dominion.

There will be a partial eclipse of the sun on Jan. 5. This will be seen over much of Ontario and Quebec if the weather permits. Less than a month later, on Feb. 3, the second partial eclipse of the sun will occur. This will be visible over much of central and western Ontario and perhaps eastern Manitoba.

The third and fourth partial eclipses of the sun will occur on June 30 and on July 30. The former should be seen to best advantage in the maritime provinces and the latter in the west. The fifth eclipse of the sun for 1935 is a total one but unfortunately it will not be visible in Canada. It takes place on Christmas Day and the path of totality crosses over the south pole.

What about the moon? The two lunar eclipses which complete this extraordinary cycle for 1935 will occur on Jan. 19 and on July 16. In the case of the January lunar eclipse the light will be visible to any portion of Canada which is not covered by clouds. The shadow of the earth will be over the full moon for more than three hours. It will of course be seen earlier in the east than in the west of Canada. Taking a more or less central point, say the Lake of the Woods region, the eclipse will start about 8.15 p.m. and continue until about 11.40 p.m.

The lunar eclipse of July will be visible in the extreme east of Canada and will take place about breakfast time. Only the start of it will be visible as the moon sinks over the horizon.

This series of eclipses, five solar and two lunar, will not take place again until such time as the inhabitants of the earth will boast that they had a great-great-grandfather who took part in the war of 1914-1918.

Knight Of Fiji In London For New Clothes

LONDON, June 12.—Sir Maynard Hedstrom is "home" for the holidays all the way from Fiji—10,000 miles by train and steamer. And what he wants to do most of all is to buy some new clothes.

Though he was born in Fiji and has spent all his life there, England is still "home" to him.

While here he is having a quiet celebration, too, on completing 25 years as a member of the Legislative Council of the island.

"Let me see, Sir Maynard," I began, when I met him at Grosvenor House today. "Fiji is somewhere near Samoa, isn't it?"

It was a bad start. Sir Maynard looked really pained.

"It is not," he said emphatically. "Samoa is near Fiji—actually it's 800 miles away. Remember that please. Fiji is more important than Samoa ever was, ever is, ever... in fact. Their chief asset was, Robert Louis Stevenson! Now Fiji..."

Motor-Cars and Talks

It is nine years since Sir Maynard and Lady Hedstrom were in London—the came over in 1924 to look after "Fiji" at the British Empire Exhibition.

And it is quite wrong to imagine him as a sort of a King of a Cannibal Island.

"Of course I have watched the island grow up," he told me, "and in my father's time the people were cannibals, but now..." he spread his hands in a spacious gesture.

"Fiji nowadays is quite civilized. We have good shops, roads, motor-cars and even talkies!"

"Do you know why I'm proud to come from Fiji? I'll tell you.

"Ours is the island that starts the Empire day. Our time is just twelve hours ahead of you. When

(Canadian Press)

KENTVILLE, N. S., June 11.—John A. MacDonald, prominent Annapolis Valley agriculturist, was chosen at a Liberal convention Saturday to contest the constituency of Kings in the approaching provincial election. Mr. MacDonald was Minister without portfolio under the Liberal administration previous to 1925.

All Fiji is stilled to silence for those two minutes on November 11 you are still in bed on the day before!

"And no British colony or dominion celebrates the great occasions of Empire more fervently or more loyally than Fiji. We may be only a very little bit of the British Empire, but we are very proud to be that little bit."

Sir Maynard looked at his watch. "I had such a busy day yesterday—my first in London for nine years," he said, "and today, why, it will be even busier."

"What were you doing?" I inquired curiously.

"First to my tailor, then my hater, my hosier... very exhausting. Today my shirtmaker, my bootmaker, my tailor again..."

Sir Maynard is a man of "comfortable proportions. He smiled a slow and pleasant smile, unbuttoned his jacket and gave his waistcoat an easing tug.

"Not only London has changed in nine years," he chuckled.

A HERO'S SWORD

EDINBURGH, June 12.—The statue of Sir William Wallace overlooking the Castle Esplanade is disappointing many of the visitors who expect to see Wallace standing with a six-foot double-handed sword instead of the ordinary length weapon.

Mr. Alexander Carick, the sculptor, told me that his original drawings depicted the Wallace of tradition, but owing to controversy he altered his plans and designed a small sword.

Forest Fires Threaten Quebec Villages

VAL ALAIN, Que., June 12.—(C.P.)—Forest fires still threatened Val Alain and nearby Lotbiniere county villages tonight. Volunteer fire fighters joined with forest rangers and fireman had to yield one house on the outskirts of Val Alain to the flames but were confident of holding the fire to the edge of the village.

All women and children have been evacuated to Laurier and Villoroy. A fire pump from Levis and one supplied by the Canadian National Railways have been called into action against the fire which started in dry bush back in the hills on Friday and wiped out the homes of 70 back country settlers. Injured 40 people destroyed 1,000 cords of wood in the Laquarre lumber yard and burned two flat cars. Telephone poles in the path of the flames were also destroyed, cutting off communications in some sections.

Suggests Canada Take Immediate Action

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, June 11.—"Now that other exporting countries are showing a willingness to discuss some equitable reduction of acreage, it would be just too bad if Canada should make the very grave error of passing up the opportunity," John I. McFarlane, General Manager, Canadian Wheat Pool, declared in a statement today replying to arguments against limitation of wheat acreage.

While weather varied from year to year, its results over a series of years were fairly constant, he said. Wheat acreage, exclusive of Russia and China, had increased from 227,000,000 in 1931 to 261,000,000 in 1932 with an increased production of approximately 490,000,000 bushels.

"Over-production of wheat is of such magnitude that if any one wheat-producing country should be compelled to bear the burden of making necessary reduction, it might be ruinous to that country for many years to come," he stated.

"I would suggest it is high time that advocates of continuing over-production should come forward with something constructive and favor us with a solution."

New Evidence In Morgan Probe

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(A.P.)—Senate investigators of J. P. Morgan and Company today disclosed evidence that members of that huge banking firm are directors of 89 corporations and banks in the United States with total assets of more than $10,000,000,000.

FRANCE AND GERMANY OFFER STIMSON JOB

Senate Ready For Adjournment

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(A.P.)—Congressional leaders whipped their forces into line today for a quick adjournment of the special session—by midweek at latest—confident of complete enactment of the Roosevelt emergency programme.

Nevertheless, rumblings of discontent rose from the Senate side of the Capitol. Republican Independent, old guard Republicans and a scattering of Democrats made no secrets of their dissatisfaction.

When plans for a sine-die adjournment were suddenly abandoned close to midnight Saturday, with tempers drawn fine by the rush toward that goal, the discontent was centred upon the huge Industrial Recovery Bill and the Independent offices appropriations measure containing the controversial veterans' cuts.

The whole fate of the situation rests in the care of the debate-free Senate. The keystone of the Roosevelt recovery legislation, the public works industrial supervision bill, already has received final House approval and the conference report upon it will be taken up tomorrow by the Senate for a last ballot.

The unexpected failure to adjourn Congress Saturday brought new hope to those seeking approval of the St. Lawrence Waterways Treaty with Canada, and the Bill seeking governmental insurance to certain bank deposits. Hope was slim, however, that these measures could be taken up by the Senate.

PRICE OF WIVES IS UP $100-$350 IN TURKEY

ERZINCAN, Turkey, June 12.—There's one sign of prosperity which is drawing no hurrahs from menfolk here. The price of wives is going up.

Parents who used to demand only $150 from suitors now demand from $250 to $500—$250 for their plainest daughter and $500 for their prettiest.

GALT, ONTARIO, HAS ONLY SCHOOL OF ITS KIND IN THE WORLD

GALT, Ont., June 12.—Believed to be the only school of its kind in the world, the Waterloo county training school for girls, now nearing completion, was inspected yesterday by Hon. W. G. Martin, minister of public welfare for Ontario and M. A. Sorsolle, deputy minister of that department, under the jurisdiction of which the school comes.

Delinquent girls between the ages of 10 and 16, who have not been committed by a magistrate will be admitted and it is believed to be the only school on the continent where psychiatry will be applied to juvenile delinquency.

Girls admitted to the school will be recommended by big sisters and other social welfare agencies and will have to have an intelligence quotient of at least 80 per cent.

Fire Losses In Canada

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, June 11.—Fire losses in Canada for the week ended June 7 last were estimated by the Monetary Times at $328,500, against $327,800 for the preceding week and $129,000 for the corresponding week a year ago.

Fire losses to June 7 in 1933 are estimated at $8,386,950 compared with $13,841,940 in the corresponding period of 1932.

SHOULDER FULLNESS ON EVENING GOWNS

PARIS, June 12.—All the shoulder fullness and flippancy that Chanel veers away from in the daytime she puts on with additional fluency in the evening. Here are three of her choice models for formal summer evenings.

The first is of black chiffon with sleeves from shoulder to elbow consisting of six fluffy ruffles in pink and black, beginning with the black off the shoulder and ending with the pink that just swishes past the elbow. The décolletage is low both back and front and oval in shape. The skirt is long and very full with up-and-down ruffles on the top layer of chiffon that begin in the neighborhood of the knees and tip the floor.

The second costume also is black. Its décolletage is so daintily low that the splash of creamy skin it reveals is breathtaking. There are fairly wide shoulder straps made of braided folds of chiffon. A diamond shaped section of upper arm is revealed and from another band of braided chiffon are folds and folds, loose and flowing, of chiffon that go all the way to the wrist or stop at the elbow if preferred.

81-YEAR OLD WOMAN GETS WANTED MEAL AT WHITE HOUSE, NOW AIMS FOR HEAVEN

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The climax to ambition achieved, Mrs. Pattie Willis South, the 81-year old Nicholasville (Ky.) woman who wanted a meal at the White House was photographed yesterday with Mrs. Roosevelt on its front steps after a luncheon there.

"Now," said Mrs. South, with a sigh of supreme satisfaction, "my aim is to get to Heaven."

Tall, energetic, "Ma" South opened up her little black bag, worn in keeping with her black dress, with an old fashioned gold and onyx brooch at the throat and her black straw hat trimmed with velvet ribbon and a cluster of flowers, to show newspaper clippings that told of her career.

She showed the letter she got from Mrs. Roosevelt's secretary. "I knew she'd answer my letter," she said. "Cause they're sensible folks here in this White House."

"I was 'sprised to be advertised—but I didn't care. I didn't let a livin' soul know it till it come out in the papers."

SLEEPING CHILDREN SOFTEN A BURGLAR

RUNNEMEDE, N. J., June 12.—The four little children of Harry McMichael stirred the heart of a burglar. The "second storey man" broke into the McMichael home and found the four babies asleep on the kitchen floor. The father is unemployed and bedding and furniture had been sold.

The sympathetic thief wrote a note for McMichael which read: "I saw the little tykes and so will give you a break."

A one dollar bill was left with the note.

Montreal Market Holding Own

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 11.—While Brazilian traction was soaring to a new high in heavy turnover, the balance of the Montreal Stock Exchange listings barely managed to present an improved front during Saturday's short session.

Brazilian dominated the two hours of trading and provided nearly half of the session's volume, approximately 22,500 shares changing hands. Higher prices for the issue in London before the opening here was a factor in the upturn, although some relaxation in exchange restrictions in Brazil, already effected, with the prospect of further action through the World Economic Conference was a current influence.

BIG SUMMER FOR INSECTS AND BUSINESS

CHICAGO, June 12.—There are 1,000,000 insects per person in the United States which is very satisfactory, the American Association of Insecticide and Disinfectant Manufacturers decided today.

The anti-insect men, in annual convention, viewed with joy the possibility that ere Summer is over the odds may be even greater—say about 1,500,000 insects to every human.

"Things are about right for a big insect invasion," said Ira MacNair, secretary of the association. He pointed to recent rains and warmth as factors responsible for the increase of insects.

"This will greatly improve business conditions," MacNair said.
