I still recommend your remedy to anyone I hear of being afflicted with the terrible eczema. I will never forget the great relief your remedy gave me on the first few doses. I could not sleep or sit down to eat my meals until I started to use Pellicura.

MR. ARCHIE McDONALD, 173 Prince St., Sydney
I know I have induced a great many to use Pellicura and always with good results. In my opinion it is the only thing.

THERE IS ONLY one way in which MORSE'S Tea is not economical—people are likely to drink a lot of it, likely to ask for still another cup please. And you cannot blame them when you know how good a well made cup of MORSE'S Tea really is.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOW.—There is an excellent display of Stanfield's Underwear in the windows of Patons, Ltd. The garments are neatly arranged, with a liberal sprinkling of lithographed advertising cards, on one the wording: "Zero hour found the soldier ready" and on another "Zero weather finds Stanfield's Underwear ready." Credit is due Mr. H. A. McDougall for the attractive display.

HON. P. C. LARKIN'S OPINION Attention is called to the letter of Hon. P. C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada, which was received by Premier J. D. Stewart and is published on page eleven as part of the evidence in the Mitchell inquiry. Hon. Mr. Larkin is of the opinion that whoever nominated Mitchell to represent the Provincial Government should make good the money lost by the officers who immigrated here. Personally he felt no responsibility, as he had reported to the Hon. Chas. Stewart after seeing Mitchell that he had a very poor opinion of the nominee.

PETERS—MARTIN WEDDING. — A pretty wedding took place at Notre Dame Convent, Rustico, on November 21, Rev. Father Chaisson officiating when Miss Madeline Peters was united in marriage to Mr. Russel Martin, of Rustico. The bride who wore a pretty traveling suit of blue with grey hat, was attended by Miss Florence Peters who wore a becoming brown suit and grey hat. Mr. Joseph Dougan supported the groom. The altar was beautifully decorated for the happy occasion and the altar cloth, the artistic work of the bride, was also used for the auspicious occasion. The mother superior of the Convent presided at the organ and pupils furnished sweet singing. After the ceremony the happy young couple drove to the groom's home for supper and dinner and in the afternoon drove to the bride's home at South Rustico where they will in future reside. Here a host of relatives and friends were gathered and the evening passed in dancing. Many pretty gifts were received and the happiest congratulations showered on the happy couple.

AMERICAN BOY WEDS GIRL.—A Centerville, Mass. exchange says:—St. Francis Xavier Church Hyannis, was the scene of a very happy event on Monday morning, Oct. 22nd when Miss Lillie Welt of Scotch Fort, P. The bride was attended by Mrs. Alice O'Donnell, (nee Fitzpatrick) while Mr. Geo. A. O'Donnell ably supported the groom. After the wedding ceremony breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lovequist, Centerville, after which the happy young couple amid showers of confetti left for a brief honeymoon trip motoring through New Hampshire and Maine. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George A. O'Donnell. Both the bride and bridesmaid wore travelling suits of blue with hats to match. The bride's veil to the bridesmaid was a sterling silver mesh bag, and the groom's present to the bride was a handsome sapphire stick pin. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will make their future home in Centerville and their many friends wish them years of happy wedded life.

DEATH OF MRS. E. P. KINSMAN.—Many citizens will be shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. E. P. Kinsman of St. John, the sad news having been received yesterday by Dr. and Mrs. Yeo, intimate friends. Her death is a severe blow to her husband and two little girls and to her sorrowful friends here among whom she spent such a pleasant visit last year while the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Yeo. The funeral takes place in Hamilton, her old home on Monday. The Guardian joins in sincerest sympathy to the bereaved.
