

The Guardian Pictorial Page

Mrs. Rosita Forbes, noted English woman explorer, has shattered many ideals concerning romantic desert Valentinos. Mrs. Forbes declares that in her travels she found Shiiks love only their camels

President and Mrs. Coolidge are shown standing in front of the Wilson home in Washington. The funeral procession of the late war-time president started for the national cathedral of Albany

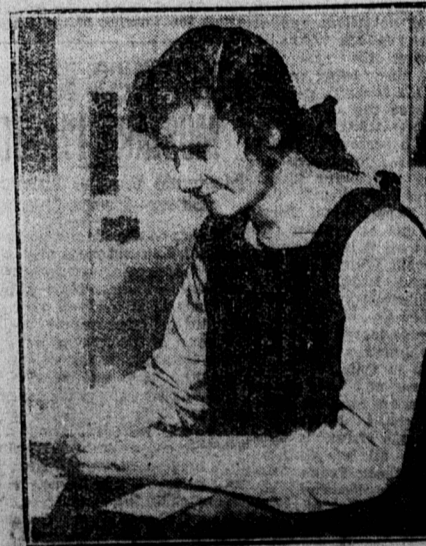

Dr. Charles H. Levermore, of Brooklyn, is shown with his $50,000 check, which he won by three weeks' work with the winning plan submitted in the Bok Peace Plan contest

Signs of spring are here. Elephants at the winter quarters of a circus in Georgia have already begun practising new stunts and brushing up on old ones preparatory to the opening of the show season

Miss Helen Lewis, popular society girl of Boston, has announced that she "would give the world a good story" when she goes to Germany in three months from now. Gossip has it that she will marry a German prince

Miss Joan MacDonald, daughter of the new Labor premier of Great Britain, is kept busy answering telegrams of congratulation sent to her father. Miss Joan is the youngest of three daughters

Otta Wiedfeldt, German ambassador to the United States, may be recalled by his country, due to his failure to half-mast the embassy flag in Washington in tribute to the late war president, Woodrow Wilson