

This "MAN IN BLUE"

Yes, never forget that while the rest of Canada "hums" with industry and new development with an eager eye to the future, hundreds of these Canadian "Men in Blue" are training and working, in the air and on the ground, so that Canada's future will be assured.

The men of the Royal Canadian Air Force are doing one of the most important jobs in the country, and doing it well. HOWEVER there are still some vacancies to be filled—

In loving memory of my dear husband Calvin T. Reeves, who passed away September 10th, 1947.

Since death its gleam, its shadows cast
Within our home where all was bright
Here we mourn, but not in vain
For up in Heaven we hope to meet again.
