BEDEQUE

A special Sunday evening service was given in the United Church at Centreville Bedeque, last Sunday, under the auspices of the South Bedeque Mission Circle. Rev. Mr. Harding of Summerside, delivered a very inspiring and interesting sermon to a very large congregation. Mr. Harding took for his text the 2nd Chap. 10th verse of St. Luke, "Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy." The members of the choir rendered special music and singing. A solo was sweetly rendered by Miss Winnifred Wright of South Bedeque, which was much enjoyed. This congregation was delighted to have Rev. Mr. Harding with them on this occasion.

The many friends of Mrs. David Pearson of Chelton will regret to hear that she was removed to the Prince County Hospital last week and underwent a serious operation on Saturday morning. The latest reports are that she is doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. H. Sudsbury has returned to her home in Moncton, N. B., from a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Saul Crossman and Mr. Crossman, Central Bedeque and other relatives.

The many friends of Master Maurice Smith of Newton, will be pleased to hear that his hand is almost fully recovered from his regrettable accident a few weeks ago.

Miss Doris Crossman of Central Bedeque left last week on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Bliss Lockhart, and her aunt, Mrs. Sudsbury at Moncton, N. B.

At the evening service of the Central Bedeque Baptist Church, Rev. A. G. Crowe, pastor, held his large congregation spellbound with his very forceful message on "What does it mean to be saved?" This sermon will not be easily forgotten, but will be long remembered by this congregation. The choir sang very sweetly and effectively, under the direction of the organist, Mrs. Earl Leard.

A large crowd attended the entertainment in the Seven Mile Bay Hall, last Wednesday evening. The program consisted of step-dancing fiddling, boxing bouts. Mr. George Bowness of Summerside rendered very sweetly, "The March of the Cameron Men," encored, and some good old songs. Mr. James O'Connell was the lucky winner of the fiddling contest, and Mr. Sabinus Johnston of Central Bedeque, won the step-dancing contest. Rev Father Monaghan gave a brief address, in which he thanked one and all who helped in any way to make this evening's entertainment so interesting and successful. Mr. George Sheen occupied the chair. The Charleston dance was splendidly given by Miss Georgina MacInnis, and Miss Blanche Gallant.

Miss Mildred Bishop has been spending a holiday with friends in Montague.—B

Winnie Judd Starts Fight To Save Life

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 26.—Winnie Ruth Judd today began what may be her last great fight to escape the hangman's noose.

Six attorneys were to present oral arguments before the State Supreme Court for a new trial for the woman whom a jury decided killed Mrs. Agnes Anne Leroi.

Defence arguments were based on six asserted errors, chief of which was the allegation that Superior Judge Howard Speakman erred when he refused to instruct the trial jury in a self-defence verdict.

The total export of Canadian farm implements and machinery was valued at $76,153 in October, showing a slight increase over the September export of $75,698 and a decrease of $39,132 from October 1931

SLAVE RAIDING COMES EXPENSIVE

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Nov. 26—Slave raiding by Abyssinians in British Africa will come higher in the future—the minimum fixed at 20 head of cattle per person stolen instead of 15 as in the past.

The payment of 15 is expected to be required for each man, woman or child killed or enslaved in the recent raids into the British Kenya Colony when 150 were killed and much damage done.

But a recent agreement between delegates of the Abyssinian and Sudan governments, growing out of the raids into Anglo-Egyptian Sudan in March, put the future payment at a 20-head minimum, which is the acceptable price of African tribesmen for a highly desirable young wife.

Digby Man A Suicide

(Canadian Press)

DIGBY, N. S., Nov. 25.—Search for Jesse V. Jefferson, prominent Digby business man, ended today in his garage, where his lifeless body was found hanging from the ceiling.

The search party had been organized by Royal Canadian Mounted Police after relatives expressed anxiety because he had not appeared at his dance hall last night.

Jefferson had varied interests. He was well known throughout the county as a lumber operator. He owned a farm and operated a milk route. He was proprietor of a dance hall, garage and tea room and a group of bungalows rented to tourists. In addition, he operated a bus service, a taxi service and several trucks. A Coroner's jury tonight decided he had taken his own life.

SUCCESSFUL INVENTOR — Cameron McKie, of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Sydney, and son of the late James MacKie, formerly of the Registry Office, Charlottetown, has come into great prominence lately owing to his discovery of a process for making steel harder than ever before. Mr. MacKie is likely to find his invention a very lucrative one, judging from the royalties which he already has received. He is a nephew of W. S. MacKie, of Charlottetown, and first cousin of A. E. MacNeill.

A meeting will be called in a few days to ascertain whether the T. A. A. C. will carry on the hockey or whether a special committee will be appointed by a meeting of hockey enthusiasts. Avard Mann is available for coach and it was today reported that he will likely be engaged to whip the youngsters into shape. W. Dodge, former manager of the Bearcats, declares Truro now has to chase either Antigonish or New Glasgow to the boards.

Crook in Drama Who Wins Favor

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Nov. 26 — Raymond Massey, well known actor in London, formerly of Toronto, Ont., plays the role of a crook in Frederick Lonsdale's play, "Never Come Back," being produced at the Phoenix Theatre here, and he does it so cleverly that he wins the favor of his audiences even as a crook.

He is of the decent sort though in a crowd of imbecile aristocrats who form a telling background for his characterization. His name is Smith.

Blondes Out And Ruddy Brown In

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Platinum and gold blondes are outmoded. Like many modes launched by Hollywood it was run into the ground, in the opinion at least of dressmakers here.

The more influential couturiers brought about the change, supported by the fabric manufacturers. The new winter fabrics are in redbrowns, with which the platinum and similar tones in hair tints do not harmonize.

A quasi-Titian tone is the new color decreed. This will not only complement the season's fabrics, but it also is more natural. In all directions, clothes, hair, make-up, Paris is going toward fundamentalism in fashions.

But that's not to say all romanticism in hairdress is taboo. Suggesting the elaborate coiffures of the Empress Eugenie, several women have been seen recently at the Opera with flocks of ringleted locks.

This odd coiffure shingles the head, near the neck, for an inch or more. Around the back of the head is a row of curled, flat ringlets in overlapping formation. Over the forehead is a tidy curl, not unlike the wig of a British judge.

Movies Rule In New York

(Canadian Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26—There is sadness today along what the actors call the main stem—Broadway. The curtain has fallen sine die on "Big Time" vaudeville.

Palace Theatre, goal of the novice and pride of the star, played its last "bill" the other day and gave up to the movies, thus going the way of its sisters on the once mighty circuit of entertainment that stretch from coast to coast in Canada and United States.

For 20 years it was the apex of the "big time," the pace setters, and the show place for show men. Hoofers boasted with chests thrown out that they had been booked for the palace and booking there was the final stamp of approval that none ventured to deny.

Officials of the Radio-Keith-Orpheum, successor to what was once simply known as the Keith circuit, say that vaudeville bills have become too expensive for a theatre with the limited seating capacity of the Palace.

Nevertheless they maintain that within a short time they will put back some kind of vaudeville fare.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER

On Wednesday evening, November 9th, the members of the Altar Society of South Shore Church along with a number of others, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Currie, Rice Point to tender a miscellaneous shower to their daughter, Miss Marguerite, whose marriage to Mr. Lorne McAleer, Borden took place on November nineteenth. The room in which the gifts were opened and the chair in which the bride-to-be sat were prettily decorated for the occasion. Little Miss Roberta Currie and Master Alfred Currie looked very charming dressed as bride and groom.

The reading of an address and the presentation of a sum of money from the Altar Society was the first feature of the evening. The remaining gifts, which were lovely and useful were then opened by Mrs. Annie Currie and the accompanying verses read by Miss Mae Murphy. The bride-to-be in a few words thanked the donors for their beautiful gifts. All then joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. In the early hours of the morning all departed to their homes wishing Marguerite many years of happiness.

Following is the address.

Dear Marguerite:—

It is with mingled feelings of regret and pleasure that we, the members of the Altar Society, friends and acquaintances have assembled here tonight. Pleasure in the fact that you are about to enter into a newer and broader field of life, regret that we are about to lose a valued mmber of our society, one which has always been loyal and true and always willing to help to the fullest measure of your capacity. You have endeared yourself to us on many occasions particularly in the performance of your secretarial duties. Therefore, dear Marguerite, we take this opportunity of presenting you with this token of our apreciation, not for its material value but as a memento of our deep and sincere respect for you. We all extend to you our best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life, deeply significant of the fact that the loss we have sustained to our community is a corresponding gain to the community in which you are about to reside.

Trusting that you and your prospective husband shall be blessed with health and happiness,

Signed on behalf of the members of the Altar Society of St. Martin's Church, South Shore.
