It was James Ramsay's barn that was destroyed by fire at Tyne Valley Sunday evening, not James Rattray as reported in yesterday's Guardian.

A PLEASANT entertainment was enjoyed by the ladies of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge, I.O.O.F. on Monday evening last in their hall on Water Street, Summerside, in honor of Miss Gertrude Calbeck who is shortly to remove from Summerside to a new home elsewhere. Full announcement of which happy event may be looked for in a few days. After coffee and cake had been served and thoroughly enjoyed, Miss Lee, Truro, sang several selections very pleasingly. The program closed with Auld Lang Syne and best wishes to Miss Calbeck.

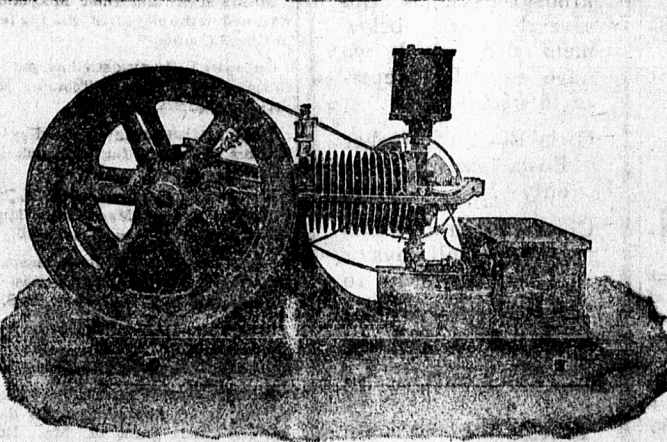

PRINCE EDWARD LODGE No 22 and Summerside Encampment No 20 observed the annual custom of decorating the graves of their departed brethren and sisters on Sunday. There was a large turnout and the lodges were complimented by quite a number of visiting brethren. After a short ceremony at the lodge room, the brethren paraded to the cemetery, where floral tributes were placed on the graves of departed brethren and sisters, to the number of fourteen. After the decoration service Rev. Mr. Fenton, Alberton, delivered a short and eloquent address appropriate to the occasion.

A SERIOUS circumstance connected with the burning of James Ramsay's barn at Tyne Valley as reported Tuesday morning in the Guardian, is that a few nights previous to the fire, one of Mr. Ramsay's sons found in the hay loft a wooden box in which was a partially burned candle. The candle had evidently been lit with the intention of setting fire to the hay, but in some way had been extinguished. As a result of discovery and the suspicion aroused, close watch was kept upon the barn for several nights, but nothing occurred. Vigilance relaxed and on Sunday the crime, if crime it was, was committed. Mr. Ramsay has no enemies that he knows of, and those who know him best know that he deserves no enemies.

LOUISA BERNARD, wife of James Bernard passed away in Kensington, Aug. 20th. She was the only daughter of John and Mrs. Bernard. Kind and gentle she was beloved by all. Every thing possible was done to save her life but all to no avail. Patient in the midst of severe suffering she passed peacefully to rest. Their many friends join in sympathy with her husband and parents in their deep sorrow also with the two brothers James and John who feel keenly the loss of an only sister.

A CONGREGATION which filled its fifty year old walls to their utmost capacity assembled within the Alberton Presbyterian Church on the afternoon of Sunday. The occasion was the unveiling of a memorial to the Rev. Allan Fraser, from 1855 to 1870, the faithful minister to the Presbyterians of the Western part of Prince Edward Island. The Rev. H. G. Grantz, minister of the Alberton congregation presided, and was supported by the Rev. Dr. Carr, of Campbelltown, N. B.—the immediate successor in the pastorate of the Rev. Allan Fraser—the Rev. Mr. McDonald, minister of the Bloomfield congregation, the Rev. Mr. McKay minister of the Hiramale, Montrose and Tigraie congregations, Hon. Benjamin Rogers, Elder in Alberton congregation, and David Gordon Elder in Montrose congregation; Appropriate and impressive devotional exercises were conducted by the various clergymen and well-known sets of praise were efficiently led by the church choir. Addresses were delivered by the presiding minister, Dr. Carr, Rev. Mr. McDonald, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Gordon. Those of Dr. Carr and Mr. Gordon were personally reminiscent of the Rev. Allan Fraser, whose memory is held in affectionate regard by all classes of the community in the West, while that of Mr. Rogers was not only an eloquent tribute of personal esteem and affection but an interesting historical sketch of Presbyterianism in the West from its foundation in 1835, down through the devoted and all too short ministry of the Rev. Allan Fraser, and of his successors to the present day.—Mr. Grantz, to whose initiation the erection of the memorial is largely due, intimated apologies for absence from the Rev. Wm. Stewart of New Jersey—successor to Mr. Fraser at West Cape,—and the Rev. Dr. Falconer of Pictou, N. S. Moderator of the General Assembly and formerly co-presbyter with the Rev. Allan Fraser on the Island. There were present in the congregation the revered widow of Mr. Fraser, and their children, including the Rev. L. K. G. Fraser, of Charleston, South Carolina,—formerly minister in Alberton,—and the Rev. Professor D. I. Fraser L. L. D. of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.—The memorial, which is placed on the south wall of the church takes the form of a handsome brass plate on white marble base bearing the following inscription in red and black:
