Two Nominate For N.B. Commons Seat

DALHOUSIE, N. B., Oct. 11—(CP)—A contest in the Restigouche-Madawaska Federal by-election Oct. 24 became assured today when two candidates officially entered the field before expiration of the nomination deadline.

The Rev. J. Albert Fichette, Edmundston barrister and choice of a Liberal nominating convention, and Paul L. Dube, Edmundston, locomotive engineer who is running as an Independent Liberal, will lead the vacancy resulted from the death in August of Benoit Michaud, Campbellton lawyer who had held the seat for the Liberal Party since 1945. In the general election last June he had a large majority over Progressive Conservative and Union of Electors candidates, who lost the deposits in the traditionally Liberal riding.
