The HOUSEWIFE and HER ACTIVITIES

PIPING COORD

Before using piping cord in the making of loose covers for chairs and settees, boil it thoroughly. This will shrink it, and when it is made up with the covers and the whole washed together, the piped edges will remain flat and not pucker.

A USEFUL HINT

Attach your latchkey to a small piece of rounded elastic, one end of which is sewn to the lining of your handbag. This will be found helpful when your hands are full, as the key can be found easily and the elastic stretched to the required length.

BACK EXERCISE WILL IMPROVE POSTURE

The beautiful figures of the world without exception, to women with perfect posture. If you learn to stand correctly with stomach pulled in, spinal column in a straight line and torso resting in the hip sockets, you are sure to look poised and graceful as well as much slimmer.

A protruding stomach and hips that seem too heavy make a girl appear to weigh more than the scales actually say. To maintain a graceful bearing and a slender appearance, practice this exercise every day until you get into the habit of keeping the backbone straight. Then do it once a week to "check up" on yourself.

Lie flat on the floor with knees pulled up, weight of the legs resting on the balls of the feet, weight of the body resting in the center of the backbone. Flatten in the spinal column, except the last two vertebrae, against the floor. Those last two vertebrae should be turned upward. Holding that position (it's quite comfortable after the first few minutes), raise the arms from the sides, until they are stretched high above your head. Inhale as you raise them and pull the stomach up and in. Move the arms back to the sides, exhaling slowly. Repeat several times, keeping the backbone pressed against the floor. If your position is correct, there will be no hollow in the center of your back.

Try to maintain that position when you get up and walk around the room.

OWES IMPERIAL STATUS TO EMPRESS' FONDNESS FOR APPLES AND CREAM

Mr. Pu Yi, now Emperor of Manchukuo, may be said to owe his imperial status quite as much to a woman's fondness for crab-apples and cream as to any other influence.

A history of his dynasty recently compiled at Mukden, relates how the infant Pu Yi was not in line for the throne at the death of the Emperor Kuang Hsu in 1908. Other princes of the blood had strong support in the Grand Council in Peking which chose the Emperor's successor. Most of the members of the imperial house and the Council had scarcely thought of Pu Yi as the future Emperor.

But for the crab apples and cream the selection of the new Emperor might have awaited the death of Kuang Hsu and the Dowager Empress might have lost her battle on behalf of Pu Yi.

On her 73rd birthday, while the Dowager Tsu Hsi rounded off the celebrations by over-indulgence in crab apples and cream. The result was the return of the internal trouble

Don't Blame Mother For the Children's Colds

Despite all the mother can do the youngsters will run out of doors not properly wrapped up; have too much clothing on; get overheated and cool off too suddenly; get their feet wet; kick off the bedclothes, and do a dozen other things the mother cannot prevent. Mothers will find that a few doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is all that is necessary to check the colds before any serious trouble may develop.

EASTER MISSIONARY MEETING—The W. M. S. of Trinity United Church held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday and which was presided over by the Rev. Mr. L. R. Allen, President, assisted by ex-President Mrs. Major Townsend. Mrs. B. W. Robinson read the minutes of the last meeting. A short program followed. Solo, Miss Selma Harris; reading, Miss Wanda Schurman, "An Easter Message," reading, Mrs. C. D. MacCallum, "Gifts to the Master;" reading, Mrs. Townsend; Easter Workshop Service, having as its theme "Loving and Giving," with appropriate hymns.

EASTER SERVICES AT KENSINGTON—The services in the United Church in Kensington, on Easter Sunday, were largely attended. In the morning a very large number of people received Holy Communion. The Pastor, Rev. W. G. Loring, preached on Love and Faith in the Risen Christ. During the offertory the choir sang the anthem "Morning Breaks," and after the sermon Mr. Russell McKay sang a solo in praise of the Resurrection. A large crowd gathered in the evening to hear the service of song, specially prepared by the choir. To the stirring strains of the organ, the choir marched in singing the hymn, "The Easter Story," by the choir. The congregation joined in the opening hymn, "Rejoice the Lord is King," followed by an anthem, "Risen Victorious," by the choir. A duet, "Easter Bells," was sung by Miss Dorothy Macdonald and Patterson Walker a solo by Mr. Arnold Taylor was much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Loring then gave an eloquent address, taking for his subject, "The Cross, after which, standing under a lighted cross, a quartette composed of Mrs. James Warren, Mrs. Walker, contralto, Roscoe Walker, tenor and Arnold Taylor, bass, sang very effectively, "O Wondrous Cross." A solo, Calvary, was most feelingly and beautifully rendered by Mrs. James Warren. Another solo chorus by the choir, "The Story of the Ages," and the closing hymn, in which the congregation heartily joined, followed by Benediction, by the Pastor, brought the service to a close. This inspiring service was exceptionally well rendered by the choir of thirty voices, under the able direction of Mrs. James Warren, who besides being a capable leader, has a voice of rare beauty and culture. Mrs. John Walker presided at the organ in her usual capable manner.

WEEKLY GARDEN GUIDE
B. LESLIE ENSLER, C.D.A., F.C.S.
FIRST STEPS IN THE GARDEN—Ref. Bul. No. 3
For these first steps wear something stouter than pumps, for they are to be taken on a spade which, in the garden, takes the place of the plough in the field. Don't dig too deeply, let your spade strike the soil just below the surface. In cultivated ground the top soil is the richest. Climatic and seasonal conditions, nature of soil, etc., determine the time to start gardening. Don't work a clay soil while it is wet. Good tilth is necessary for seed beds and beds in which you transplant seedlings from starting-box, hot bed or greenhouse. To have a garden like the pictures in seed catalogues, cultivate, weed, water and feed properly. Feeding of plants is important, and soil lacks adequate amounts of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash for plant needs. C-I-L Plant Food furnishes these in proper forms and proportions. Before the final preparation of seed bed in vegetable plot, broadcast C-I-L Plant Food—2 to 3 pounds to 100 square feet (10' x 10')—and work in with hoe. For flower beds use 2 pounds to 100 square feet. Don't plant out seedlings until danger of killing frosts is past. Sow peas early and again at intervals of ten days, to provide fresh supply over extended period.

TIBET LIKES BRITISH MOVIE
METROPOLITAN OPERA STARS SAY HE HIMSELF CAME TO SEE AND HEARS AUDIENCE.
TORONTO, April 5. — (C.P.) — Lawrence Tibbett, the Metropolitan Opera Company's leading baritone, likes the movies and things Marie Dressler, veteran Canadian actress, is Hollywood's greatest star, but he admires British pictures.

Tibbett, interviewed after he had flown here for a concert engagement, said he would have accepted a British motion picture offer had he not been tied up previously to make a picture in Hollywood. He expressed great admiration for the British picture "Catherine the Great" in which Elizabeth Bergner, exiled German-Jewish actress, starred with young Douglas Fairbanks. He said that English is a good language for the concert stage, but he prefers to sing in Italian. Italian, he says, is the best singing language of all, because the vowels are pure and consonants comparatively quiet. English vowels, he says, are better than those of German or French. He prefers English consonants to German and Italian French vowels are the worst of all to sing.

Despite the fact he has appeared in several motion picture plays Tibbett does not like studio work. He dislikes the wait and misses the audience, which, he says, is "half the performance for me." He says he is still camera shy.

Tibbett's favorite recreation is golf. When he can't play that game he takes exercise on a rowing machine.

HORSE NOTE
When Mr. H. E. Carver, Lyndale, went to the barn on the morning of April 1st, he found that his brood mare Hilda had a beautiful foal by her side. Hilda is now 23 years of age, and this is her first foal. She is a mare from that famous old race horse Owen D., formerly owned by Mr. T. Gordon Ives, Montague, who many horsemen will remember. The foal is stred by Belle and is owned by Mr. J. Rooney, Orwell.

Testing the new enlarged bulleye targets here a member of the South Rifle Club of Hsley, England, scored 104 points out of 105 including 30 bulls and an inner.

Greenbacks Good For Three Cents
MONTREAL, April 5. — (C.P.) — One of the first "Greenbacks" — a treasury note for three cents issued in Washington in 1863 — was discovered here in the possession of Desmond Dupuis of this city. The note aroused much interest in banking circles when the owner took it to the bank to see if it was of any value.

The "three-cent-bill" is about two and a half by one and a half inches in size and is printed in black and white on one side and in green and white on the other. The face of the note states it was issued by "Act of March 3, 1863" and recites that it is for all United States stamps, and was "furnished only by the assistant treasurer and designated depositaries of the United States."

On her one-hundred-first birthday anniversary, Mrs. Janet Torrance was hostess at a party at her home in Newmans, Scotland.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, April 5.—Displaying the same unwillingness to take an active interest in the market that has been shown for several weeks, traders on the Montreal Stock Exchange today refused to continue the buying started late yesterday and allowed the market to recede once again. The last again moved within a slim groove and for the most part price changes were only minor.

Alcohol issues, leaders in the late rally yesterday, failed to hold the limelight and, after staging a rise at the start, slipped back to close the day with heavy liquidation to close with small losses. Hollinger and International Nickel were also weak leaders. Hollinger, after holding steady for the greater part of the day, plunged a few minutes before the close to finish with loss of 1.00 at 18.00. International Nickel declined 40 cents at 37.00.

Other declines were of only small proportions. Bathurst at 5 1/2 and Brazilian at 11 1/2 declined 1/4 and 1/2 respectively and B. C. Power "B," Bruck Silk, Canadian Pacific, the alcohol and others all showed minor losses. Canadian Cottons Preferred and Canada Steamships Preferred were off heavily, the former losing 2 at 90 and the latter 1 1/2 at 8.

Canada Cement Preferred was strong to gain a full point at 43 and Bell Telephone was another to rise around a point, advancing 1 1/2 at 10. B. C. Power "A" at 29 1/2 and Canadian bronze both firmed 1/4 and small advances were registered by Dominion Steel, Howard Smith and others. Consolidated Smelters was also higher.

Just as Hubert Ineson's Symphonies Band was awarded second prize in the all-England gramophone contest, in London, Ineson, who was drummer as well as leader, collapsed and died of heart trouble.

Government Claim
The claim of the government is that the three-masted schooner "Opium Queen" founded 500 miles off the coast of Ireland in 1916 and had not been destroyed as a result of enemy warfare as submitted in evidence placed before former reputation commissioner
