

Bronchitis The next time you meet your doctor, ask him his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in cases of bronchitis. Then when you have a hard cold in the chest you will be ready to follow his advice. Doctors very generally endorse this old, standard, family cough medicine. They know all about it. They prescribe it in just these cases.

The hydrant at the corner of the Market Square is still leaking. It would be an interesting thing if some local mathematician would compute the amount of City water that has been wasted through his leak.

A MONTON newspaper contains a report of a man Thomas McLean said to be a native of Prince Edward Island having been arrested in that City for a theft alleged to have been committed in Sydney, C. B.

Some of those who "go down to the sea in ships" and come back again from the N. B. coast loaded with stuff calculated to load others unduly, were up before the authorities in Alberton last week and got plastered to the extent of $100. The locus operandi was Mimiquash, which is not the Mic-mac for fire-water.

An Advertising Agency has been established in connection with this paper. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, are having same placed by The Guardian. They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

The funeral of the late Hon. George Simpson will take place today at 2 p. m. to Cavendish Cemetery, about two miles from his home in Bay View. He was a member of Court New London, I.O.G. and that Order, including the Royal Foresters from Summerside will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

The following performers have kindly consented to appear at the concert in the Market Hall tonight: Overture, orchestra; vocal solo, F. A VERY bright and entertaining rehearsal on the program of the concert in aid of the sufferers by the Summerside fire was held last night in the Market Hall. The rehearsal had that vivacity and snap which ensures success, and all may look confidently forward to a pleasant evening's entertainment tonight. Abounding in good things the program is of added interest because of the enigmatical nature of the gentleman figuring as the Mysterious Man, No. 9.

PARTIES in West Virginia have communicated with Rev. Dr. Burke, Alberton, about the death there in the Davis Memorial Hospital, Erkin, of a Prince Edward Islander, named John McGee. He was about 60 years of age and was worth several thousand dollars. Dr. Burke writes that there are no McGees in the western part of the Island their home in this Province, being principally St. Mary's Road, Kings County, with a family or so in Charlottetown. Anyone knowing anything which may tend to indicate the dead's friends may communicate to Father Burke at once.

The marriage takes place at 6.30 this morning in Notre Dame Convent, of Annie May, daughter of James and Mr. Dorsey, King Street, to Arthur Edward Hogan, son of M. P. Hogan of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Morrison. The bride will wear a travelling suit of crushed raspberry with hat to match and carry a shower bouquet of white roses. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Ella, who will be gowned in grey silk, trimmed with Irish lace, will wear a white hat and carry a bouquet of pink carnations. The groomsmen will be Dr. John Blake. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hogan leave on a wedding tour to the Upper Provinces. The bride and groom are both well known and popular in a large circle of acquaintances, who will all join heartily in the general congratulations. An indication of the esteem felt for the bride was afforded by the array of charming presents received by her.

The re-opening services of the Methodist Church, North Wiltshire, on Sabbath last, were in every particular pronounced successful. Three services were held and the preachers for the day were greeted with interested and overflowing congregations. The pastor, Rev. W. Harrison, took the morning service; Rev. William Doherty, President of the Conference, preached in the afternoon; and the Rev. G. F. Davison occupied the pulpit in the evening. The collections were given and the committee on improvement are to be congratulated, after paying all expenses incurred, there remains a small balance to the good. The choir rendered most appropriate music in all the services of the day. The friends who by instructions from the Trustees, took the work of renovation in hand, have done their work wisely and well. Many words of appreciation were heard during the day on the greatly improved appearance of the church both inside and out.
