SUM'SIDE AND WEST Join the crowd to the Methodist tea in Epworth Hall to-morrow evening. Give your supper with all your friends at Epworth Hall to-morrow evening. Tea on tables at 4 p.m. The heavy rain of Sunday has done more to stop us bare roads and wheels have been brought into use again. TODAY'S trip by the Northumberland to Point du Chene will beat the record—and the end is not yet. Be only a fraction on New Year's Day at the high tea at Epworth Hall. Admission and tea only 25 cents. The funeral of the late Neil Matheson takes place from his late residence on Foundry Street to-morrow afternoon at 2.30. The Northumberland made the round trip from Point du Chene yesterday in clear water and she returned to Summerside about five p.m. Thus far this season teamsters need keep a sleigh and wagon in readiness all the time. Almost daily one sees both in use the roads being scarcely fit for either. No. 3 Co., 82nd, Regt. will meet in Montgomery's Hall this evening at 7.30 o'clock to make arrangements for attending the funeral of the late Corp. Neil Matheson. Mr. D. Schurman, Charlottetown, crossed by the Northumberland yesterday on a business trip to St. John. Mrs. Schurman accompanied him as far as Moncton to visit friends. The members of Court Chataqua, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet in their hall at 8 o'clock this evening to arrange for attending the funeral of their late brother Neil Matheson. This question of an excursion to Sackville via the Summerside-Tormentine route on New Year's Day has been cancelled as the Stanley is not likely to be on the route for some days yet. The adjourned case against Daniel Loder, charged with burning Mr. Frank Jelley's barn, was heard before Mr. Leonard Morris, J. P., yesterday, and the evidence for the prosecutor concluded. At the request of the prisoner's counsel, Mr. A. C. Saunders, the case was further adjourned until Thursday. At the December meeting of Court Tignish, I. O. F., 3,738, the following officers were elected for 1902: J. T. Reid, C. D.; B. D. McLellan, C. R.; T. M. Ryan, V. C. R.; James T. McCallum, R. S.; Albert Glidden, E. S.; John McLeod, Treasurer; A. C.
