SPECIAL SERVICES—A goodly number listened with interest to the message of Evangelist Foster on the conversion and faithful service of the Apostle Paul, from the text "What wilt thou have us to do?" Several visitors from O'Leary were in attendance Thursday night, to assist in the service and listen to the message of Evangelist Turpel from the text "How shall we escape if we neglect so great Salvation?" The speaker prefaced his message with some of the things that God had created. He then discussed the three great things involved in man's Salvation viz. (1) "The great love," (2) "The great sacrifice," and (3) "The great suffering." He closed his remarks by showing the evil consequences of neglect and urged upon his hearers the necessity of giving instant response to the appeals of the Spirit. Evangelist Foster addressed the meeting last night. The speaker Turpel will tonight. There will be three services on Sunday at 10.30, 2.30 and 7. A cordial welcome to all.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR—Members of the Christian church held a reception for their new pastor, Rev. G. W. Ford and his wife and two daughters, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McFarlin last evening. Sweet peas and tiger lilies were used about the rooms of the McFarlin home for the occasion and the evening service was informal, including singing and games and impromptu speeches. Mr. T. M. McCall gave the formal speech of welcome to the pastor and Mrs. M. E. Reilme formally welcomed the wife in behalf of the women of the church. At the close of the evening there was a service of refreshment at which the hostess was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. R. H. McFarlin. Rev. Ford and his family came here recently from Prince Edward Island. The above article appeared in a recent issue of the "Brookton Times", Brookton, Minn., where Mr. Ford and family are located. They are well known in this city.
