DRESSER, Ont. July 17th, 1910.

PROVINCIALIST WRITES FROM MEXICO

The following are extracts taken from a letter received by Daniel McWilliams of Mt. Stewart from his daughter Mrs. Eicho E. Bourke who lives in Sonora County, Mexico, and tells a little of the hardships they had to endure during the recent storm and flood in Mexico:
Empalmo, Sonora, Mexico, Oct. 8, 1911.

Dear Father:—I am a long time answering your letter but dear knows when you will get it as the trains are all at a standstill. Well I am going to tell you a little of my experience lately, I have had experience with the war, soldiers passing daily and battles fought not far from us and also with the Indians and the third, and I hope the last, the flood. It started the 4th of October to rain in the morning, then to blow. They say it blew at the rate of one hundred miles an hour. It blew the roof of our house and the houses in Empalmo village were blown down.

Thursday morning was fine and clear, but the water from the mountain poured down on us from both sides, tore up and washed out all the railroad ties and everything, and it was built high up off the level. Well we are about a mile and a half from Empalmo Village. We saw the water coming and the men down the track told us the track was all washed away above us. Of course we did not think it would be much so I stayed in the house but the water came with such a rush on us that my husband had to carry me down to the railway and then wade back and get some clothes that we could take in our suit cases for we were going to try and get into Empalmo Village on the volecepede. We started and got the length of three telegraph poles, when all the track ahead of us went, so we had to put back. The water was coming over the rails by this time. We retraced our steps as soon as we could and no sooner were we back than away went the rest of the track. By this time the water was over the track opposite the house. There was one little place that was still dry and we got on that. We did not know what to do. Here we were and could not get out of it. The track was gone on both sides and there was about three feet of water on the level for miles around us.

It was terrible. We did not know how long we would have a dry spot to stand on. We sat down to await the results. This was about noon time. By and by we could see by the poles that the water was going down a little, but oh, so slow. We stayed on that track all that night and next day and next night till Saturday about noon. I got into the house by laying plank over the road. The water was three feet deep in the house and oh, such a house. Nobody could get to us until the water got down and all our food was spoiled, with the exception of some bread that was on a high shelf and water.

On Saturday the "Super" and a gang of men came out and we got the roof on the house. It was awful to see the poor cows standing in the water. They had to be killed afterwards. Well here it is the fourteenth of the month and no trains since the fourth. I can see two working trains from our door, one at each end of the track. This is only one railroad, the other one we go out on is on the opposite side of us, on the road that goes out on to the States. It is all gone, too. Over in Guaymas the vessels and steamers are up on the rocks. This is the nineteenth of October and no trains as yet, but they expect to be running the first of next week. It is such a sight away up the country where it started. There is not a house left standing. The telephone men were in the other day and they said it was dreadful and that we only had the tail end of it. We are poor Mexicans by the hundreds going by looking for work both men and women, with no homes left to them. They said there never was the like this number of years back. This is the twenty-second and no trains yet. It is said there will not be any for five days more.

A Mexican was here just now. He said it was very bad on the other line, lots of people drowned. The tram-master was telling my husband it was like building a new railroad, for the old one was gone, rails, sleepers, bridges, everything swept clear to the mountains. All right but not so with many a one. This is the 27th and the first train came in yesterday and I know there will be big mail for me.

A GIRL'S CHANCE

No girl can afford to enter womanhood hampered by ill health and nervousness. Whether she expects to be mistress of her own home or instead chooses the independent life of the "bachelor girl" that seems so attractive to many, she will have full control of her strength.
Every girl is entitled to a fair chance. You can better your young daughter's chance by giving her Vinol to make her strong at the critical time of her young life. It is a remarkable tonic having all the curative properties of cod liver oil and iron, yet being free from grease, and is delicious to take. Vinol makes all sorts of weak, sickly people well and strong. Mrs. J. G. Brown, Anderson, Ind., says her daughter was very ill, but Vinol made her well and healthy. You get your money back if Vinol does not please you.

'MARVELOUS' CURES OF SKIN ERUPTION

Four Children Constantly Scratching Nearly Tore Limbs Off. Cured in a Month by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

"Two of my daughters and two of my sons were suffering from very bad heads, the doctor ordering my daughters to have all their hair cut out so as to prevent it from spreading all over their heads, and to get to the seat of the trouble in order to be able to rub some ointment into the sores, which he gave them, well into the sores. These sores started in a small child which soon grew larger and larger and then burst and ran down their backs and bodies. The doctor said it was eczema, but they seemed to get no better. The sores formed like little boils, then filled with matter, and looked like abscesses. They became all inflamed and irritated, causing them to be constantly scratching themselves. This made the sores burst, and the matter flowed all over their heads. We had to cut their finger nails, and at times to put gloves on their hands. The irritation was so bad, to keep them from itching into the flesh, and at night they would nearly tear their limbs off. Mothers would be literally covered with blood."

"The teachers would not let them attend school for fear of infection spreading among the other children, so I resolved to try the Cuticura Remedies, which I found to benefit my children really. I continued to use them one month, and the result is a marvelous cure. (Signed) George Arthur, 4111 48th Street, Toronto, Ont., Canada, Jan. 3, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 25c. back on the skin will be sent free, on application. Boston, U. S. A. Price 25c. per box. Sold by all druggists."

RED SOX QUARTETTE AT B. F. KEITH'S, BOSTON.

A real all-star vaudeville show is promised for next week at B. F. Keith's Theatre, practically every act on the list being of headline calibre. Sam Chip and Mary Marble will appear in their dainty Delft dialogue with droll ditties, entitled "In Old Edam." This is one of the prettiest and most delightful one-act musical comedies ever staged. The scenery and costumes are all done in a delicate shade of Delft blue, and as the little Dutch boy and girl who live in the little house in the midst of the tulip fields, Miss Marble and Mr. Chip keep the audience in good humor with their quaint sayings and doings. The music, written especially for the act, is of the most pleasing and catchy character. John C. Rice and Sally Cohen will return to Boston after a long absence in their amusing comedy, "The Bachelor's Wife." These two clever comedians have just completed a long western tour where they were the hit of every bill where they appeared. One of the novelties of the week will be the Red Sox Quartette, composed of four of Boston's most popular ball tossers. Buck O'Brien, the pitcher, Marty McHale, Hughie Bradley, and Bill Lyons will offer a number of popular selections, and reports from other cities where they have appeared are to the effect that these boys can play even better than they can play ball. Stuart Barnes, the story teller and entertainer; M. Witt's Melody Lane Girls in songs and dances; Bradna and Derrick, the equestriennes from the New York Hippodrome; H.T. MacConnell, "President of the 13 Club," and McCormack and Wallace in a ventriloquist novelty, will be other big features.

"The best showing of winter caps we have ever had is here for you to choose from. Fancy tweeds, with fur or knit bands. Black or Blue with fur or knitted—and in Golf, or Driver fur or knitted—and in Golf, or Driver fur or knitted—and in Golf, or Driver shape. Prices from 65c to $1.50.—D. A. Bruce.

"Special sale of melton goods at Patons. These goods make very serviceable school dresses and coats for the little folks at a very popular price 32c per yard 44 inches wide.—D. A. Bruce.
