RELIGIOUS SERVICES

THE BAPTIST CHURCH In concluding an interesting series of sermons on "The Kingdom Parable," Dr. A. C. Vincent spoke yesterday morning on "The Householder." Basing his thought on Matthew 13, 31-32, the analogy of the householder who "brings from his treasure things new and old," the contribution of old truth to the problems of a new day was emphasized.

Sodality Held Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin was held at Notre Dame Academy on Sunday, April 15. The Rev. Directors occupied the chair. After some discussion, it was decided on motion of Mrs. Adrian Peters, seconded by Miss Angie Doyle, that the time for holding office should be extended to two years. The election of officers then took place. Rev. Fr. Dalton, the Chaplain of the Sodality, spoke of the splendid work done by the retiring President, Miss Minnie McKennie, and congratulated the newly elected President and Executive on their appointment. The meeting then adjourned.

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation Read this very enthusiastic letter: "Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's All-Bran. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market. My friends often laugh at my fondness for All-Bran. It gives such a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my All-Bran. If the Kellogg Company should ever stop manufacturing All-Bran, here is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Person (address furnished upon request). Science says that All-Bran provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. Also iron for the blood. The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoons daily for most cases, try it three times daily. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

QUEBEC FOX FARMER GUILTY OF FRAUDS

MONTREAL, April 15—Evidence that Louis Germain, owner of a fox farm at Plessisville, Quebec, had practiced an extensive repertoire of fraud on a number of victims was adduced at Germain's trial here last week. The accused was found guilty by Judge Bright on April 15, and sentenced to three months in custody pending sentence April 20. The complaint, laid by Miss A. Barrette, charged Germain with defrauding the complainant of $500 in connection with the sale of two silver foxes. Witnesses called by the Crown in support of the accusation, however, told of similar frauds practised upon themselves; the total amount involved ran to something over $6,000. Stories told by all witnesses bore marked similarity. Germain would sell them a couple of foxes and then arrange that the animals be left on his farm at Plessisville and cared for by him or his employees. In most cases only a part of the purchase price was paid in cash; the balance was to be derived from the litters of fox whelps produced by the couples sold. When the purchasers visited the fox farm to inspect their newly-acquired animals, said animals would be duly produced. But the fox shown on Monday to Mrs. A. would be placed in another cage and passed off on Tuesday as the property of Mrs. B. After a convenient interval, the purchaser would be informed that his or her foxes had died, or that their young had all died or both. One witness stated that she invested $4,000 in foxes at the Germain farm, supposedly in payment of Germain's debt. She was promised a profit of 40 percent per annum on her investment, she said. Napoleon Landry, resident manager of the Plessisville fox farm, was the chief witness yesterday afternoon in the case. He identified several letters as having been written to him by the accused, his employer, in which explicit directions were given for the interestingly-stuffed foxes from cage to cage, obviously for the purpose of deceiving such purchasers as might come to inspect their property. Incidentally, the letters indicated that Landry's salary had not been paid with anything approaching regularity; he testified that at the time he was forced to deprive his own wife and children of food, he owned to keep alive the young foxes in his charge. Fifty-six cash prizes were offered for the 56 best slogans. Those who did not receive cash prizes were given a package of Wrigley's containing every one of their well-known flavors.

ICE GOING—The ice in the harbour drifted into the straits with the tide yesterday in large cakes, before a light wind. The North and East Rivers are still ice bound but will probably be free of winter's grip in a few days.

NEW YORK EXCHANGE By John I. Cooley, Associated Press Financial Writer NEW YORK (Associated Press)—For a majority of stocks price changes were inconspicuous Saturday. Still hesitant and very dull, the market filled out its two hours in perfunctory fashion, only 50,160 shares changing hands, the smallest Saturday since early January. Preferred stocks, which had helped swell volume in previous markets, were quieted down. There were still some numerous sales of 1 to 2 points, or more among such issues. The chief movers in common equities were a few amusement and metal company issues. Bonds edged a trifle higher on balance United States Government loans being firm. Stocks had little news to work on. Grain prices were somewhat soggy during trade hours here. Long accounts in May positions in wheat, corn, oats and rye are said to be large, reflecting a belief among speculators several months ago that quotations by this time would have responded to inflationary influences. There was a fairly firm undertone to the share list, but bidders were unaggressive and bid changes were mostly small fractions, the averages showing a nominal decline. U. S. Smelting, Potosi and Copper, Anaconda, and Western, Eastman and Du Pont gained major fractions to nearly two points, but Industrial Rayon, Curt's Publishing, American Tobacco "B" and Exchange National Corp. preferreds had losses of similar scope. The Armour of Illinois "A" and "B" stocks eased slightly while the preferred firm; the company's reorganization plan is understood to be nearing completion, although it has not yet been formally submitted to the board. Steels were quiet and steady, together with utilities and railroads. Packard yielded half a point rather persistent offerings. The United States treasury's decision to call more fourth Liberties was being expected in view of the response to the first call and the favorable market conditions. It is assumed that holders would get a chance to exchange for new securities at lower interest rates, thus following the line of "orthodox financing" from which there has been no deviation. Congress still has on its desk several bills of a controversial nature, including stock exchange legislation, the Wagner labor measure and some silver bills, and until it is learned how these are to be disposed of many members of the financial and stock market trends. Meanwhile, the recent revival of interest in bonds and preferred stocks, part of which is being speculative, helps to keep the Wall Street market turning. Gilt-edge issues are undoubtedly reflecting an overflow of idle funds into investment channels, and this is an encouraging turn of affairs.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH Rev. Dr. Ramsay in his sermon yesterday morning contrasted the two opposite elements of faith and fear which enter into or control human lives. Faith is the great liberator and the great fear which hinders it. The scripture passage on which he based his theme was from 1 John, 5: 4, "This is the victory which overcometh the world, even our faith." Faith brings joy and peace and the assurance of the Holy Spirit. The Psalmist says, "I will trust in thee." Preceding the sermon the congregation sang one of Charles Wesley's beautiful hymns the last stanza of which reads, "Faith lends its realising light, the clouds disperse, the shadows fly, the invisible appears in sight, and God is seen by mortal eye." The anthem by the choir was Macfarren's "The Lord is My Shepherd."

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH (Continued) The Rev. C. N. Brown at night spoke from the text Proverbs 4-23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life." His address gave emphasis to the Christian's duty to live in the light of the living God, and to be individually, but not only to work for honesty, absolute unselfishness, absolute purity of motive and of action. Mr. Rupert MacKay sang as a solo, "The Day is Past and Over."

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH Yesterday morning at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Mass, was celebrated at the usual hours. At 9 o'clock Mass, the Single Women of the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family received Holy Communion in a body. At 10:30 o'clock, High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Fleming, Rev. Father Enright, preached at all the Masses. The mixed choir, under the direction of Mr. Alfred Doucette, rendered the offertory, "The Mass," with Mr. Alex. McLean as organist. In the evening, services consisted of the Rosary, Vespers and an eloquent and inspiring sermon, preached by Rev. Father Connelly, after which Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Father Enright.

THE SALVATION ARMY The United Prayer meeting held Wednesday evening was a time of blessing. The Hall was crowded many being turned away. The singing, accompanied by the Band, was an inspiration. Rev. Fr. Webster gave the address, taking as his text "By grace ye are saved and that not of yourselves it is the gift of God." The way of salvation was very clearly set out, and it is to be hoped that meetings will be continued as they are a means of meeting God's people in prayer and fellowship and of helping sinners to find salvation. Sunday was a day of special full of joy and inspiration, especially at the Infirmary, where the patients were cheered by singing and prayer. Sunday night's meeting closed with two young men at the Holy Sacrament. Adm. Stevens speaking from I Cor. 4: 20, "The kingdom of God is not in words but in power."

Would you be free from your burden of sin? There's power in the Blood. Would you o'er evil a victory win? There's wonderful power in the Blood. Would you do service for Jesus? There's power in the Blood. Would you live daily His praises to sing? There's wonderful power in the Blood. The Maritime Provinces are in a more favourable position in regard to feed supply than other parts of the Dominion. The best cattle out-let is confined largely to local channels, but any improvement in the general situation would reflect favourably on prices in these provinces.

FRENCH POLICE (Continued from Page 1) Trotsky told them that he was authorized by the Minister of the Interior to enter France and live at Barbizon with his wife, since threats of assassination and fear of vengeance from White Russians had kept him wandering from place to place since he left Russia, after his clash with Stalin, and the authorities withdrew. Receive Mail Indirectly Citizens of Barbizon had noticed for the past few months that six or seven persons lived in the villa, but only two young men ever showed themselves. They never answered questions. Mail was never received directly at the villa, but delivered nightly by motorcycle from Paris. On Thursday of this week a gendarme stopped the motorcycle and took him to police headquarters where an examination of his mail revealed that it was all despatched for the Villa Kermon que. This made the authorities decide on a complete investigation.

PUBLIC WORKS (Continued from Page 1) depression to devise some means to revive building activity not only by governments but by private firms. It made survey right across Canada calling to the boards of trade and municipal mayors and councillors. This survey brought forth a list of around 400,000,000 according to which he can say in the report that he presented to the Government. This was held by the Government to be outside the capacity of the country at this time and it was trimmed down under the committee headed by J. W. Carswell of Hamilton. The argument advanced by the Trades and Labor Congress was that the Government should take the lead in providing work for pick and shovel men alone, but work in which skilled workmen could participate in their part-time work. Another recommendation was that higher paid workmen were started at steady work, the entire construction industry would be stepped up. Economical systems which have been emphasized is that the work should be done economically. In order to give employment often men have been placed at work excavating a steam shovel should do it much more economically. The Council has recommended it is understood that this practice should be discontinued the most economical system followed. In the majority of cases the government was asked to erect public buildings to be used by the State but in some cases buildings for cooperative organizations such as storage plants have been suggested, the organizations to finally reimburse the government. Another recommendation was that the work be done by the firms usually engaged in that line of industry. The whole idea is that if the government private undertakings will move along the same lines. The works programme will be introduced into the House of Commons as a Government bill and a list of public works will be attached.

DICKENS NOTED SUDDEN SPRING Noted Author Was Impressed With Canada's Changing Seasons. (Canadian Press) MONTREAL, April 15—On his arrival in Montreal nearly a century ago Charles Dickens, English author, was impressed by Canada's quickly changing seasons and by the permanence of Montreal's roads, buildings and public works. One proof of this statement is that Rascos' Hotel where Dickens himself stayed at that time is still standing, forlornly perhaps, but none the less a memento of the famous writer's visit. Dickens arrived here from Toronto early in May 1842 years ago to help a local theatrical company who had extended him an invitation to lead them with his advice. In his letters home Dickens dealt pleasantly on the different stages of his journey and of what he had seen here. He told of how Montreal was situated about the streets and shops and different suburbs, and was enthusiastic about his Canadian visit generally. At one point he wrote "spring comes so rapidly here that it is but a day's leap from barren winter to the blooming youth of summer."
