

Run Down?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.

Originators of the Big Shows Imitated but Not Equalled
Flight of M. De Valette
Beautifully colored drama. De Valette has a fine record for alleged political crime. He is captured and imprisoned. See how his wife effects his escape.

Crocodile Hunt
The swish splash of the water which flows along under the banana tree is heard as the deft hand of the native propels the low flat boat through the Java waters. They snare the upper jaw of a lizardlike creature with long wire and drag him to the shore. Exciting sport.

The Sleeper
A Pathic Comedy. The hypnotist arrives at the village. He casts his spell on Nellie. She can't be wakened. She is driven home. Her husband turns his misfortune into account and puts her on exhibition. From a poor cabin they move into a mansion on the money made on the "sleeping beauty." See the real funny ending of it all.

The New Chief
Another of those comedies that is a real good laugh. The new chief puts on the disguise of a tramp. The Chief of the division is warned but makes a mistake—see the fun.

Persistent Poet
A comedy that will make you laugh whether you want to or not. See how he talks himself out of jail.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

The death of Alexander Robertson, which occurred at his home, Melrose Farm, Marshfield, on Tuesday, the 22nd inst., removes from this community and Province one of the most representative and progressive farmers of the present generation. He was a son of the late Alexander Robertson, Marshfield, being born there sixty-eight years ago. He spent his life in this part of the Province, where by diligence and foresight he gained for himself one of the finest farms at Marshfield. In early life he married Emma Vickerson, daughter of the late Conrad Vickerson, of Vernon River, by whom he had four sons and one daughter. Afterwards he married Sarah Vanderstine, also of that place, who with his family survive him.

Lens Grinding Department

When you have your eyes tested here you can depend upon one thing, that is, your glasses will be ground to suit your individual requirements—it will not be a haphazard selection from a ready made set of glasses. We won't sell you glasses that will not suit your eyes, such glasses would prove more injurious than beneficial. They have not to suit you and you alone. With our Retinoscopy system and lens grinding facilities you can depend upon our optical work to be unexcelled. It will be to your advantage to call today.

A Home Without a Phone is Like a Man With a Wooden Leg

It is placed at a disadvantage. A telephone in your residence is sort of an insurance against worry and grave emergencies. You are offered a sure protection in time of trouble. Police and fire protection is right at hand and in the event of sickness the telephone will do the errand double quick. In any particular case it will pay for itself time and time again.
Get our figures—they will prove to you that you positively can't afford to get along without a phone.
No woman who values her time can do without a phone. Any woman can find out just how much it will cost her to have a phone, and she can make it pay for itself. Call or ring Contract department.
