New Jersey Market For Seed Potatoes Continues Promising

stock of potatoes have yet large quantities to dispose of on a market that is very sluggish and inactive.

Asked about the market for table seed potatoes, Mr. Boulter could not see any outlet in sight. The Association has been handling some small shipments of table stock. Up to the present time they have paid fifteen cents a bushel. The competition from Maine and New Brunswick makes it impossible to hold the price even at that figure.

The present situation is a very trying one for the Association, he said, as the members are looking to it to handle their surplus crop, and the Association is making plans to do so. They are having a meeting of the directors today, and if the Board sanctions the proposition suggested by the secretary, a circular will be mailed immediately to each of its members outlining the course to be followed.

The dealers visited by Mr. Boulter in the United States were better satisfied with the results of Prince Edward Island seed last year than ever before. The growers of Pennsylvania who used Island seed practically for the first time were loud in their praise of the heavy yield from the Island Irish Cobblers.

Mr. Thornton, of the Southgate Company which handles a very large quantity of seed potatoes, informed Mr. Boulter that he did not have a complaint from any of the growers in the large area over which he distributes. This satisfactory result of last year's business will be an incentive to growers, despite the depression, to purchase Island seed even at a slight premium.

In some sections of the Province the potato yield is very much below that of other years, Mr. Boulter stated. Where spraying was not properly attended to there are indications of rot, but just how general this condition is, is not easy to determine until after harvesting of the crop is completed.

Presbyterian Sederunt Of Maritime Synod

PICTOU, Oct. 8.—A feature of yesterday morning's sederunt of the fifty-eighth Synod of the Maritime Provinces of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was a discussion regarding representation on the board of the Maritime Home for Girls at Truro. The Presbyterian Church has been without representation on the board since 1925, but the clerk, Rev. Dr. Frank Baird, stated that representation had been offered under the name of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces.

After considerable discussion the following resolution, made by Dr. Hugh Munroe and seconded by Rev. W. E. Davies, was passed: "The Synod of the Maritime Provinces of the Presbyterian Church in Canada will gladly consider representation on the board of the Maritime Home for Girls, when they are convinced that full recognition is given them of their own correct name and title as submitted by the clerk of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces of the Presbyterian Church in Canada."

An amendment, moved by Dr. T. Wardlaw Taylor, and seconded by Sheriff Ronald MacVicar, that the communications in the hands of the clerk be remitted to a committee to consider and report upon, with recommendation, at a later sederunt, was lost.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur, of Moncton, referred to several matters concerning the work of the Synod and moved, seconded by Dr. Taylor, that the Moderator appoint a committee to take into account the possible enjoyment of the powers of the Synod, especially in the matter of carrying on the home mission work within the bounds. Mr. MacArthur pointed out that there were 32 mission fields within the Maritimes and that $82,000 had been raised last year for missionary and benevolent purposes, and he felt that better results could be obtained if the funds were administered in the Maritimes instead of from Toronto.

The clerk, as acting treasurer of the Synod, submitted the financial report for the year ended October 1, 1931. It showed total receipts for the year, including a balance of $200.63 to be $1,209.15, with total outlay of $986.84, leaving a balance of $222.31.

Speaking before a congregation which taxed to the limit the seating capacity of the spacious St. Andrew's Church, Rev. W. G. Brown, M.A., B.D., of Saskatoon, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, delivered a stirring address, sketching in brief outline conditions existing in the mission fields of Western Canada, and urging continued and increased interest in both home and foreign missions. The Moderator of the Maritime Synod, Rev. George S. Mitchell, of Campbellton, presided, and the regular choir of the church was assisted by the Blue Mountain male quartette, and a mixed quartette from Westville and New Glasgow.

In a vigorous appeal for workers in the home mission fields, Mr. Brown declared: "May I say to ministers in cities and towns, if you think you are going to build up the Presbyterian Church in Canada by sticking to cement sidewalks and lighted ways you are a dreamer of dreams, and bad dreams at that. Close our mission fields and outlying points and our city fields will die. Therefore I beseech you to look after the frontier points."

Mr. Brown spoke with glowing optimism of the future of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the progress made in the past six years being taken as an indication of still greater progress to come. "In fifteen years the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at the present rate of growth, will be back to the strength it had prior to the disruption," declared Mr. Brown.

Preceding the Moderator, Rev. W. M. MacKay, Synodical missionary of Northern Ontario, who has spent the past couple of months in the Maritime Provinces, spoke briefly.

In a lengthy discussion of the budget at this afternoon's sederunt the allocation of $55,000 for the whole Synod was accepted. The Synod approved the plan to remove the deficit of $189,000 by a special offering of at least $1.00 per communicant member.

Mrs. Wm. Mack, MacLeod, president of the Women's Missionary Society, eastern division, gave an account of the work being carried on by the women.

The Synod will meet next year in Westminster Church, New Glasgow.

Leave footprints on the sands of time
And you will be applauded;
But leave them on the parlor rug,
And jawed you'll get, not lauded.

Prospects Of Non Party Gov't In Manitoba

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 7.—With Premier John Bracken renewing his plea for a non-party government in Manitoba and the executives of both the Liberal and Conservative parties holding meetings to discuss the proposal, its prospects of being accepted are the subject of keen speculation. At first the Conservatives appeared definitely opposed, but Col. F. G. Taylor, Conservative leader, came to Winnipeg from Portage La Prairie today to discuss the matter at a meeting of leading party workers.

The Liberals were favorable from the start and they too were holding council over the scheme. While not opposed in principle, John Queen, Labor leader, objects to any economy programme under a union government, which will mean the curtailment of certain social services.

In a speech at Killarney today the Premier made his first public pronouncement on the question. He said the proposal was not advanced with the idea of postponing the impending provincial election. He hoped the other party leader had not yet reached final decisions in opposition, but if so the present government would carry on.

Increasing expenditure on unemployment relief and declining revenues confronted the Province, with a serious financial situation, he said. No good purpose could be served by party strife and bickering for political advantage at such a time.

So far the Government had been able to avoid a deficit and the fact that only recently it had sold a $5,000,000 bond issue showed the province was still in a sound position. It was necessary, however, to look to the future and retrench. Both individuals and governments needed more than ever to practice the virtues of thrift and frugality.

The sharp decline in the price of farm products was affecting every sphere of activity in Manitoba, said the Premier. This year the value of the Province's farm products would be only $56,000,000, while at the worst of the depression in 1923 it was $100,000,000. While the burden fell on the farmers it affected also those engaged in other industries and in trade.

Sixty-seven-year-old John Carmichael of Glasgow, Scotland, who re-married recently awoke next morning to find his second wife dead and himself twice a widower in 24 hours.

Gandhi Will Not Visit U. S.

NEW YORK N. Y., Oct. 8.—The Rev. John Haynes Holmes, friend of Mahatma Gandhi, said today that he and other friends of the Mahatma have definitely advised him not to visit the United States.

The New York clergyman, pastor of the community church, who recently returned from London where he conferred with Gandhi, said he did not believe the Mahatma would make a trip to the United States now but that eventually he probably will, when assured protection from "curiosity, exploitation and sensationalism."

Address And Presentation

A very sociable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. John McGuigan, Queen St. when a number of her friends and neighbors of Spring Park gathered there to express to her their sincere regret at her departure from amongst them also to extend good wishes for her in her new home. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. G. Robinson who explained the object of their presence and then called upon Mrs. J. Lawlor who read a short address. Complimentary remarks were made by Mr. Joseph Biggar and Mr. John McGrane and others present. Following is the address:

Dear Mrs. McGuigan:

We your friends and neighbors of Spring Park gathered here this evening to extend to you and Mr. McGuigan our heartfelt good wishes for health and happiness in your new home, but a few short months ago we learned of your intended departure from amongst us and although we felt the loss was some other gain, yet we could not let this pass without showing in some way our appreciation of your good citizenship. As a friend you were always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need and in sickness your call was always responded to with promptness and cheerfulness.

As a neighbor you were always willing to do anything in your power for the welfare of our district we may with the Poet Moore justly say:

Life is a waste of wearisome hours,
Which seldom the rose of enjoyment adorns.
And the heart that is soonest awake to the flowers,
Is always the first to be touched by thorns.

Now in conclusion we ask you to accept the accompanying gifts not for their intrinsic value but as a slight token of the good will and friendship that exists among us. Mrs. McGuigan thanked one and all for their kind remembrance and the meeting closed by singing for "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."
