DRESSED HOG SUPPLY.—Davis & Fraser have notified their shippers throughout the Province that owing to the limited supply of dressed hogs available they are to discontinue receiving them for this season on Thursday, the 9th inst. at country points, and on Friday, June 10th, at Charlottetown. By next fall, as soon as there are any quantity offering again they will resume packing operations as usual, and repeat the usual suggestion now to farmers to try and have hogs ready early.

AN ISLANDER'S VISIT.—The Maple Leaf of Lakland, Calif., had a pleasant visit the first of this month from H. A. MacDonald of Berkeley, Cal. For the past few years Mr. MacDonald has been sailing the "seven seas" the occupation of his boyhood days, and recently arrived from Santos, Brazil, as mate of the S. S. Rotarian, which brought in a cargo of coffee. The last voyage took Mate MacDonald down the Pacific Coast as far as Punta Arenas, a Chilean port on the Straits of Magellan, and the southernmost city in the world; through the Strait and up the Atlantic Coast and back through the Panama Canal to San Francisco. He visited many southern cities, including Valparaiso, Chile; Montevideo, Uruguay; Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Mr. MacDonald is a native of Souris, P. E. Island, where he left many years ago and where his parents still live in the old home, his father, Patrick A. MacDonald, now 98 and his mother 88 years of age. H. "A." is the picture of health and as nimble as a Labrador herring, and expects to make another trip to the southern continent.

MRS. LACOMBE SAYS SHE SUFFERED CONSTANTLY FOR FOUR YEARS REGAINS SPLENDID HEALTH

"My good health, and a gain of twelve pounds in weight is what I owe Tanlac, and I just can't help praising it," said Mrs. Eugene Lacombe, 235 Stratmore St., Montreal, recently.

"I suffered constantly from indigestion for four years. I had no appetite, and could scarcely eat anything. My stomach caused me no end of trouble, and at times, it hurt so bad it seemed that I just could not stand it. Often even the food on my plate would nauseate me. I got weaker and weaker every day, and was so nervous the least unexpected noise would almost frighten me out of my wits. My liver was also out of order and I always had a keen pain across my back.

"Hearing so many praising Tanlac, I decided to try it for my troubles, and in just a little while after I started taking it I began to improve. I've taken five bottles now, and I enjoy every meal, for everything agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are steady, and my sleep is always peaceful and refreshing. My strength has come back to me, and I never have an ache or pain. I certainly am thankful to Tanlac."

AN ISLAND HERO.—The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission which met at Pittsburgh, Pa., recently recognizing an act of heroism of James W. Mully, of the Cambridge (Mass.) crossing watchman who sacrificed his life in an effort to save a woman from being killed by a train at Cambridge, awarded a bronze medal to his widow and declared death benefits to her at the rate of $45.00 a month, with $5.00 a month additional on account of each of the five children. The monetary award amounts to $70.00 a month. Mr. Mully was a native of Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

AN ISLAND BRIDE.—The recent issue of the Khaki Call contains a fine photo of a Winnipeg wedding group with the following comment: "A war-time romance which culminated in a quiet wedding, was celebrated in St. Matthew's Church, Winnipeg, recently when Miss Isabella Waughan, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., became the bride of Lieutenant George Parker. The Bridesmaid was Miss Hall, R. N. of Edmonton, Alberta and Captain A. L. Cavanagh, M. C., of Winnipeg, was best man. Archdeacon McElheran officiated. The bride and Miss Hall were both overseas nurses."
