Mr. J. S. Wilson, Director of the Scout-International Bureau at the Inter-American Scout conference in Mexico City, May 1948 said: "We must turn to our ideals for future guidance. The Scout Promise and the Scout Law must become in reality the guiding principles of the lives of all Scouts and of all Scouters - and of the Old Scouts who are being rallied to this anniversary and the aid of Scouting. These are subjects for practice rather than parchment, so that practice must be intensified so as to affect others outside our ranks as well. That is possible locally, as has been often proved in many parts of the world. The Good Turn and its universal practice are guarantees that Scouting is promoting a spirit of unselfish concern for the welfare and happiness of others."

Guest speaker for today's meeting of the Charlottetown Rotary Club will be Mr. Boyaner of Saint John, N.B., New Brunswick Provincial Boy Scout Commissioner who is at present conducting the Maritime Gilwell Training Course for Scout Leaders at Camp Buchanan.

CHATHAM, Ont. - (CP) - Twenty-three new Canadians completed naturalization proceedings here. A majority - 12 of the 23 - were women. DOROTHY DIX SAYS. - Continued from page 12. During all of this time he has never told me that he loved me or asked me to marry him. Once I questioned him and he said he wanted to be sure before he said anything, but that if I ever went with any other boy he would never come to see me again. Should I wait for him to decide what he wants to do, or should I go out with other men? UNDECEITED ANSWER: When a man goes with a girl for several years and monopolizes her completely, yet never speaks of love or pops the question, it is absolutely certain that he hasn't the slightest intention of marrying her, and she is lacking in gumption if she doesn't break off all of her relationship with him. She is wasting time and opportunity.
