

No Cough

Have not coughed once all day? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine right at hand.

The latest news, first of all.

There were no cases before the City Police Court yesterday.

A. E. McLean, Lot 16, was at the Revere Hotel yesterday, en route to Truro to take the short course in the college there.

Cephus Ross, Vernon River is busily engaged painting the interior of the beautiful new residence of Malcolm McLeod, Earncliffe.

Allen and Mrs Fraser, Vernon River Bridge, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the arrival of a young daughter.

The Earl Grey did not leave this port yesterday owing to the prevailing storm. The Minto left Pictou and went direct to Georgetown.

In the Arena rink on Saturday afternoon in future there will be skating from four until six and in the evening the skating and waltzing class from 8.30 to 10.30.

The Sunday School Advocate, for Dec contains photo-cuts of Andrew Malcolm, President for N. B. and Rev. E. E. Styles, President for P. E. I., both of whom are enthusiastic and successful Sunday School workers.

A Special train will leave Charlottetown for Summerside Friday afternoon returning the same night with the Prince Edward Amateur Dramatic Club, who will play "Christopher Jr." in the Market Hall. Return fare $1.00—corresponding rates along the line.

Last week, at Jacksonville, an estimable lady, in the person of Mrs W. Alton, passed away at the advanced age of ninety years. She was a sister of the late Sir S. L. T. T. and Mrs Harrison, wife of Rev George Harrison of the N. B. and P. E. I. Conference.

Cornelius McLellan, Lot 14, won 1st for Black oats and 4th for Russian Wheat at the Maritime Winter Fair at Amherst. So good was Mr McLellan's oats that the College at Truro sent for a sample to be used in the short course lectures and judging of seed grain.

Murdock McPherson, formerly of Brookfield, has arrived on an extended visit of two months to his parents Alex and Mrs McPherson. Mr McPherson has been absent from this Province for eight years and finds many changes in that short time. Mr McPherson is a prominent farmer in Fayloboro, Sask.

On the 18th of Dec, Florence, the beloved daughter of Malcolm and Bessie Stewart, Springton, died at the Cambridge Hospital at the early age of nineteen years, being ill only six days with peritonitis. The remains were accompanied home by brother and sister and arrived at Bradalbane on the 21st, funeral taking place the following day to the Springton Cemetery, Rev Mr Gillis officiating.

Golding Abbott, Jaffray, British Columbia, who has been absent from his native shore over seven years, is visiting his mother and his sister, Mrs H. B. Haslam, Springfield. Previous to his coming to the Province he paid a short visit to his four brothers of Quincy, Mass. He spent New Year's with his sister, Mrs F. C. Dellar, Brookfield. His many friends will be glad to hear of his return.

The last picture in the series at the Hudson-Fulton celebration will be shown at New Wonderland tonight. This one is the naval parade on the Hudson River, showing exact duplication of the first steamer "the Vigilant" and at the "buff moon" in which Hendrick Hudson sailed into New York Harbor. "Amusement is good but when amusement doth instruction bring 'tis better." No one should miss this one.

On Monday evening the new officers of Victoria Division No 4, Sons of Temperance, were duly installed by the Deputy G. W. Patriarch. The new officers are—W. P. Kenneth Ferguson, W. A. A. Murphy, R. There will be a Carnival in the Arena Rink on Tuesday, January 11th. Hubert Mitchell and Noel Farrow, City, have returned home after spending some days in Summerside.

The S. S. Hillsborough, on ferry service between Rocky Point and this city, has been laid up for the season.

Frederick Cullen, son of John Cullen, Alexandria, has passed his examinations in Newfoundland and secured a Captain's certificate.

J. A. Nicholson, Registrar of McGill College, leaves on return to Montreal on the first crossing of the steamers.

The Victorias will go on the ice at 7 o'clock this evening at the Arena instead of 9 o'clock. All players are requested to be on hand at that hour.

J. D. Jenkins, city, accompanied by Mrs Jenkins and two sons, Cecil and Ralph, have returned to the city from Vernon River Bridge where they were the guests of Dingwell and Mrs Jenkins.

A. C. Burrows, of Denver Colo, son of the late W. T. Burrows, Summerside, was in St John yesterday and will arrive in this Province by the first crossing.

The Amherst Boot & Shoe Co Ltd, Amherst, has issued a fine calendar this year from an original painting by Eugene Fletcher, entitled, "The Highway of the Nations."

The wedding of Dr Murchison of Clyde River to Miss Sophia McPhail of Paton & Co's, City, took place here yesterday. The wedding was a quiet one. Rev G. E. Ross of Zion Church officiated.

The Citizen's Orchestra, under the direction of Prof Wright, of the school of music, City, held a very successful practice last evening. It was decided to have a pupils recital, including the orchestra, on Tuesday the 18th.

The Guardian has received from Hyndman & Co, City, a handsome Great West Life Calendar for 1910. The frontispiece is entitled "Another Oldtimer" and is reproduced from a picture specially painted for the Great West Life Insurance Company by Arthur H. Hider.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr McDonald, Hillsborough Street, yesterday afternoon, when Leo Hibbett of Georgetown and Mrs Gertrude Wheeler of Boston were united in marriage. The wedding was a private one, Rev T. W. Murphy of St Paul's Church, City, officiating.

Island Hospital thankfully acknowledges the receipt of $100.00 from McLean Bros, North Wiltshire, also the following Christmas donations: Christmas dinner, The Ladies Aid; three jars preserves, Mrs Louison, Turkey and plum pudding, Miss Cundall; plum pudding, Mrs Ross; Balmalm; Christmas cake, Mrs MacIntyre; Large box of canned corn, Mr Tidmarsh; Miss Mackinnon, Holly.

The United Prayer services held in the First Methodist and in the Peoples' churches last evening were very successful. Large congregations were present and the addresses on The Gospel of the Kingdom by Rev T. F. Fullerton and Rev G. E. Ross were very entertaining and instructive. The singing was most inspiring. Rev H. E. Thomas presided in the Methodist Church and Rev D. McLean in the Peoples'.

Notice To The Public

As I have a very large stock of fall suitings and overcoats and as the weather has been mild for the disposal of heavy clothing, and as I wish to reduce my stock as much as possible before the end of the year, I will give 10 to 15 per cent discount on all suits and over-coats made to order. All work guaranteed as to fit and workmanship. I also make a first-class job of cleaning and pressing.
