Stock Markets
At A Glance

CHICAGO, Jan. 25 — (AP) — Profit taking and hedging erased
early gains made by grain futures markets today but the setback was not severe and most prices were within minor fractions of yesterday's finish.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 — (AP) —
The Stock Market reversed its course today and, on the first day since Jan. 17, negotiated an average advance although on one of its smallest 1-hour turnover of the past two months.
The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .04 of a point at 38 7/8.

MONTREAL, Jan. 26 — (CP) —
Golds gave a rallying display today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market Other divisions, which have been passing through a soft spell induced by a combination of nervousness over the effects of a shortened war on post-war reconstruction and profit-taking, showed signs of steadying. Volume, mainly contributed by golds, was the best since last July. Of the 134 issues boarded 52 were up, 26 down and 56 unchanged. Golds went to a new high in the averages.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 25 — (CP) —
No export business was reported by traders today on the Winnipeg
Grain Exchange. Oats: 1 feed 50-1-2; 2 feed 49; 3 feed 47; other grades 51 1-2. Barley: All grades 54 3/4.

TORONTO, Jan. 25 — (CP) —
Small index gains were held by the gold and western oil stocks and the Base Metals recorded a minor increase today on the Toronto
Stock Exchange.
Interest was active in the gold group and some sizable gains were noted. Transcontinental resources was again a trading feature. It climbed to a new high at 215 and closed at 214 for a net advance of 20 cents. Trade in this issue totalled 102,600 shares, stimulated by the recent announcement that drilling on the property at Yellowknife would be started soon. Con-west, another Yellowknife concern, traded actively and climbed 10-cents to close at 147. Springer-Sturgeon advanced 6 cents to 140.

Public Announcement

The following extracts are taken from the Statute Law and Regulations in force relating to DESERTION and ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE from the Canadian Army and are published for the information of the public and personnel of the Army.

Offences against Military Law which are dealt with by Military Tribunals

ARMY ACT

Section 12
“(1) Every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences; that is to say,
(a) Deserts or attempts to desert His Majesty's service; or
(b) Persuades, endeavours to persuade, procures or attempts to procure, any person subject to military law to desert from His Majesty's service.
shall, on conviction by court-martial—
if he committed such offence when on active service or under orders for active service, be liable to suffer penal servitude or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.”

Section 14
“Every person subject to military law who commits any of the following offences; that is to say,
(1) Assists any person subject to military law to desert His Majesty's service; or
(2) Being cognizant of any desertion or intended desertion of a person subject to military law, does not forthwith give notice to his commanding officer, or take any steps in his power to cause the deserter or intending deserter to be apprehended, shall, on conviction by court-martial, be liable to suffer imprisonment, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.”

MILITIA ACT

Section 71(3)
“3. Any officer or man of the Militia may be tried by court-martial for the crime of desertion at any time, without reference to the length of time which has elapsed since his desertion.”

Section 72
“72. Every member of the Militia called out for active service who absents himself without leave from his corps, for a longer period than seven days, may be tried by court-martial as a deserter.”

Offences against the Criminal Law which are dealt with by the Criminal Courts

CRIMINAL CODE OF CANADA

Section 82
Inclining to desert.
“82. Every one is guilty of an offence punishable on indictment, or on summary conviction before two justices, who, not being a seaman in His Majesty's naval service, an enlisted soldier or airman in His Majesty's Service
(a) by words or with money, or by any other means whatsoever, directly or indirectly, persuades or procures, or goes about or endeavours to persuade, prevail on or procure, any such seaman, soldier or airman to desert from or leave His Majesty's naval, military or air service; or
(b) conceals, receives or assists any deserter from His Majesty's naval, military or air service, knowing him to be such deserter;
and is liable, on conviction under indictment, to fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, and on summary conviction before two justices, to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars, and not less than eighty dollars and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months.”

Section 83
Resisting execution of search warrant.
“83. Every one who resists the execution of any warrant authorizing the breaking open of any building to search for any deserter from His Majesty's naval, military or air service is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction before two justices, to a penalty of eighty dollars.”

Section 84
Enticing militiamen or mounted police to desert.
“84. Every one is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to six months' imprisonment, with or without hard labour, who

BACK TO OLD JOBS
(By The Canadian Press)
LONDON—Several thousand munitions workers are being sent back to their old jobs in the clothing industry to enable the Board of Trade to honor the February issue of clothing coupons.

Intensive Search For Absentees in Montreal
MONTREAL, Jan. 24 — (CP) —
Persons of military age will be stopped on Montreal streets by members of the R. C. M. P. in future, and will have to produce military status papers or go to police or Provost Corps headquarters to establish their status, it was announced today.
The announcement arose out of despatches from a meeting between R. C. M. P. officials and military authorities yesterday for which an "intense search" for about 1,700 Home Defence troops listed as absent without leave in the district.

"Nubbins" Reported Spry As A Squirrel
DENVER, Jan. 25 — (AP) —
Forest (Nubbins) Robinson, 3, of Cheyenne, Wyo., who celebrated Christmas in November because his parents believed he wouldn't live until Dec. 25, came home today for his 3rd birthday. He was reported as absent on an operation performed to remove a bladder obstruction which had threatened his life. Hospital attendants reported him "ten pounds heavier and spry as a squirrel."

MUSICAL FILIPINOS
Three living in the interior of Mindoro in the Philippines are good musicians, playing ukuleles strung with human hair and bamboo flutes.

Train Delayed By Engine Break-Down
(By The Associated Press)
BETHEL, Me., Jan. 24 — A Canadian National Railway train from Montreal was held up several hours four miles east of here tonight by a breakdown and way stations by bus. C.N.R. officials in Portland ascribed the delay to a locomotive break-down and said buses had been obtained at Bethel for "few" passengers aboard the train.
