PATRIOTIC ISLANDER.—The Calgary News-Telegrams says:—His offer to throw up his rank as a captain so that he might accompany his men to the front at once, being refused, Capt. C. V. Macdonald, one of the best known Calgaryans at the Sarcee, is now engaged in the 103rd Calgary Battalion in the big building next to the Alberta Hotel, on Eighth Avenue, and is proving a success, too, as a recruiting officer. As soon as D. Company of which he is the commanding officer, was selected as a draft to go forward as reinforcements, Capt. Macdonald, realizing that only lieutenants are allowed to accompany their drafts, offered himself at once and stated his willingness to be reduced in rank. The patriotic offer, however, was rejected, and the gallant captain is now busy signing on recruits. A resident of Calgary for the past nine years, during which time he has been manager for the Bitulithic Pavement Company, Capt. Macdonald was born in Cardigan, Prince Edward Island, and until 1899 he led a peaceful life. In that year, however, the Boer war broke out, and in his eagerness to get away, the young man enlisted in the 4th Garrison Artillery of Charlottetown, which regiment he remained for three years, afterwards going as its representative to the coronation of King George. Mr. Macdonald then went to the States for four years, and in 1906 came up to Calgary, and immediately joined the ranks of the 103rd Calgary Rifles, handed in his name to that body as a member, being connected with the regiment until the outbreak of the present war, when he signed on then for active service. Capt. Macdonald's mother resides at 338 Brent's Avenue West, and he has two brothers and two sisters also in the city.

FEED CHILDREN

On Properly Selected Food. It Pays Big Dividends

If parents will give just a little intelligent thought to the feeding of their children the difference in the health of the little folks will pay many times over, for the small trouble.

A mother writes: "Our children are all so much better and stronger than they ever were before we made a change in the character of the food. We have quit using potatoes three times a day with coffee and so much meat."

"Now we give the little folks some fruit, either fresh, stewed, or canned, some Grape-Nuts with cream, occasionally some soft boiled eggs, and some Postum for breakfast and supper. Then for dinner they have some meat and vegetables."

"It would be hard to fully describe the change in the children, they have grown so sturdy and strong, and we attribute this change to the food elements that I understand exist in Grape-Nuts and Postum."

"I don't know how my baby was feeding and had great deal of stomach and bowel trouble. Nothing seemed to agree with him until I tried Grape-Nuts softened and mixed with milk and he improved rapidly and got sturdy and well."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

SOLDIERS FAREWELL.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cudmore on Wednesday 20th, the occasion being a surprise party for H. J. McRae and his soldier friends who will be leaving shortly for the front. The evening was spent with music and singing and then they marched out to the dining room where an eloquent repast was served by Mrs. Cudmore and Mrs. Dennis. Before serving supper Mr. John McRae was presented with a number of gifts amongst them being a bible from his sister and a razor from Mr. Cudmore. After supper the soldiers stood up and gave a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Cudmore also Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. McRae from French River after which they returned to the party, the singing being selections on the Gramophone and the violin and the boys heartily sang Old Lang Syne, He's a Jolly Good Fellow and a number of other songs and before leaving they all clasped hands and sang God Be With You Till We Meet Again. They were most happy after spending a very pleasant evening.

KINGSTON METHODIST Church, Wednesday evening, Oct. 20th, the visit of Rev. E. E. Styles and Rev. Hugh Miller in the interests of the Methodist Sunday School work and of social service and evangelism was greatly appreciated by all who were present at the gatherings. There was an afternoon conference for workers and a public meeting in the evening, both of which were ably presided over by Rev. George Cruwys who, in his expected notes and entire family, among the most faithful workers in church and school. Rev. E. E. Styles dealt with the Sunday School work and workers, showing up weak points, delated on the duty of inculcating Methodist doctrines, the great value of the Sunday School, and the vital importance of the co-operation and encouragement by the parents of the children. Rev. Hugh Miller ably handled his theme, the Evils of Liquor Traffic and the blessings of Temperance, and displayed the value of the program was made more enjoyable by the determination of some young gallants to procure a certain basket at any cost. One of these paid the sum of $10.50 but no doubt he felt that the basket, and especially what went with it, was well worth this outlay. The proceeds of the sale, which was not terminated until nearly 12.30 were very satisfactory amounting to nearly $115. This with the proceeds at the door brought the total up to over $160. The committee are very thankful to all, and particularly to the strangers, who contributed to making the affair such a success.

WEDDING BELLS.—The following items are from the High River, Alta., Times of Sept. 16th, Married, at the Pro. Cathedral, Calgary, on September 8th, by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon returned to High River on Thursday evening and moved to their house west of town, where a reception was held in their honor. Dancing was kept up till the small hours of the morning, and the merry evening closed by the assembly of friends singing "They are jolly good fellows." The Times joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.—Mrs. George Nightingale, at her home on September 4th, entertained to a very delightful shower, given in honor of Miss Mabel Sheaf, who has since become the bride of Mr. James McKinnon, of Meadow Bank. The ladies assembled in the afternoon and were kept busy knitting towels for the bride-to-be. This finished, Miss Sheaf was made the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. Piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Jasper Thompson. A very dainty supper was served on a table tastefully decorated with white sweet peas, the bride's place being marked with a pretty bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon. We embrace the opportunity of extending to you our North Wiltshire congratulations on that so happily happy event, and expressing the hope that you and your amiable partner may be granted to enjoy a long, happy and prosperous life together. When first you sought admission into our Lodge the great doors were open to you gladly believing that you were endowed with the qualification essential to becoming a good and worthy Mason. In this our expectations have been fully justified. Your genial and cheerful disposition; your zeal for the success of our Lodge; the explanations of its teaching; in your life mark you as one of our most highly esteemed members. As an expression of this esteem we ask you to accept this gold watch as a wedding gift—not for its intrinsic value, but as a token of our regard for you as a worthy and well behaved brother. We would cherish the hope that it may be the means of sometimes recalling to your thoughts your Brethren of Misspall Lodge and aid you in dividing your time as you have been wisely doing.

RED CROSS CONCERT.—A very successful concert and basket social under the auspices of the local branch of the Red Cross Society was held in the hall at North Wiltshire on Thursday last. The spacious hall was well filled and it was difficult to find even standing room. Mr. L. L. Jenkins occupied the chair and the exceptionally large audience was favoured with an interesting and delightful program contributed by the following: Frank Flood, Amos and Miss Monaghan, George Beers, the Misses McGuigan, Miss Murray, Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Stewart. The sale of baskets was directed by the very efficient auctioneers, Messrs. Ben. Carter, A. A. McDonald, and John Stewart. This part of the proceedings was interspersed with numerous little battles of wit between the auctioneers at the expense of one another and they made desperate attempts to prove numerous and please the audience with their pleasantries. The committee are deeply indebted to them for their willing services. This part of the program was made more enjoyable by the determination of some young gallants to procure a certain basket at any cost. One of these paid the sum of $10.50 but no doubt he felt that the basket, and especially what went with it, was well worth this outlay. The proceeds of the sale, which was not terminated until nearly 12.30 were very satisfactory amounting to nearly $115. This with the proceeds at the door brought the total up to over $160. The committee are very thankful to all, and particularly to the strangers, who contributed to making the affair such a success.

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITIES.—The regular meeting of the Board of Directors was held on Thursday last, with a good attendance. The report of the Secretary showed that a busy program was being carried out, and that good use was being made of the Association equipment. Reference was made to the fact that the receipts to the end of September, from the first of the year, had equalled expenditures. This was agreed upon as the only business like way of handling the finances of the Association, and it was unanimously decided to make every effort to finish the current year in the same way. Reference was also made to the case of the Association who had enlisted of last year's Gymnasium Class, over half had since gone to Military duty. This materially affects the work with the local young men, but is more than made up for, by the work with the Soldiers. The following special features of the Fall work were mentioned:—Boys Department; 2 Gymnasium classes, Junior School and Senior School Boys; 2 Bible Study Groups; Game Room open afternoons; Boys' Library and Magazines; Boy Scouts Troop. (Open to all boys of city, members or not); 53 Scouts enrolled in different Churches; Zion 6, Kirk 3, First Methodist 20, Grace 1, St. Paul's 6, St. Peter's 3, Christian 1, Baptist 3.
