—PARLOR SOCIAL—On Monday, April 3rd, a most delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Donad, Baltic, when the members of the Malpeque and Baltic auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society held a parlor social. Although the night was not pleasant, and travelling not the best, keeping many at home the lack of members was made up by the cordiality shown by all. An impromptu program was splendidly rendered, with Mr. C. W. Ramsay as capable chairman. Program, piano solo, Miss Eleanor Ramsay, soprano solo, Mrs. Chester Simpson, reading, Miss Jean Simpson, bass solo Mr. Albert Burgess, duet, Misses Joan and Marion Burgess, reading, Mrs. Ralph Bearisto, haritone solo, Mr. Robert Betton, male quartette, Messrs Mathieson, Belton, Burns and Bryenton, instrumental music, Mrs. Chester Simpson, Messrs Bryenton and Mathieson, accompanists, Mrs. S. L. Campbell, Mrs. C. Simpson, Miss M. Simpson. Contests were held which caused much thought and merriment. The young people had a lively sing song, and the older people enjoyed the opportunity of meeting friends. A very bountiful lunch was served. Needless to say, all took part in this without being coaxed. The party broke up at midnight, but ere they wended their way to respective homes, a hearty vote of thanks, in which all joined, was given to Mr. and Mrs. Donald for their courtesy in opening their home for this occasion.

"Americans Come To Me".

George Bernard Shaw, whose pungent wit has enlightened the world on a cruise of the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Britain", when he arrived at San Francisco recently, denied he had ever said he would never visit America.

"What I said," the Irish dramatist remarked, "was there was no need for me to visit America, as all interesting Americans come to see me."

That this was true is proved by the picture, for here in the Mayfair lounge of the 42,500 ton liner, he is seen with Mayor Angelo Rossi, who not only went to Shaw, but dressed himself in his cutaway and wore a carnation.

PIUSVILLE INSTITUTE

The members of the Piusville Women's Institute held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Gallant. Owing to unfavourable weather conditions only six members and three visitors were present. The meeting opened by the "Our Father" and the roll call was answered by "Irish Jokes." The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. All committees article made from paper." Instead of a discussion, Miss Marguerite Corcoran was appointed to read a paper on "Interior Decorating." After a vote of thanks was tendered the hostess, Mrs. Wm. Gallant, the meeting adjourned by singing "Daily, Daily, Sing to Mary." Mrs. Amb. Corcoran accompanying. A letter of sympathy was sent Mr. John T. Gallant on the death of his dear wife.

THREE BROTHERS DIE IN MINE

Three brothers lost their lives in a coal mine near Auckland, N. Z. recently. They succumbed as heroes. James Akers descended an abandoned air shaft was overcome by black damp, and fell unconscious to the bottom. His brother Jack went to his rescue and fell a victim of the fumes. The youngest brother tried to save the two, and lost his life.
