PRETTY ANSWER
"You look as if you had been kissed by a breeze from Northland," said a poetic young lady to a pretty friend, whose cheeks were glowing with color. "Oh, no!" was the laughing reply; "it was only a soft hair from Baltimore."

The Verdun Cathedral

It is incredible that the cathedral of Verdun is so little damaged. Perched on its hilltop, it dominates the city and the silvery thread of the river below. For miles about the rolling country it stands out as a landmark. Though by night and day shells whistle by it, destined for the supply-trains on the roads that feed the Verdun sector, its outlines are intact. The railing that sur-

CATARH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

THE SILENCE.

A grip of the hand, a kiss on the cheek. And so we parted, my son and I. Could I break the silence and dare to speak. When his heart and mine were bidding "Goodbye?" Was there need for words, was there call for tears? When a touch of the hand told all, and the whole Of a thousand hopes, and a thousand tears Was flashed in a moment from soul to soul? So I held my peace and he went his way. Then I clung to Hope for she whispered "The boy Will come home again on a glorious day. And clasp your hand with a shout of joy." But alas! pale grief has come in his stead, And the vision of joy has ceased to be; For he lies at rest with the honored dead. And a glory of sorrow remains to me. A gift of the hand, a kiss on the cheek. And so we parted, my son and I. But he read the thought that I dared not speak.

SCOTT'S EMULSION NEVER TAKE SUBSTITUTES

Prepare This for a Bad Cough—It's Fine

Cheaply and Easily Made, but Does the Work Quickly. The finest cough syrup that money can buy—costing only about one-fifth as much as ready-made preparations—can easily be made up at home. The way it takes hold and conquers distressing coughs, throat and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a 10-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 54 cents and gives you 16 ounces—a family supply—of a most effective, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly. It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed or swollen throat membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with menthol and is known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

And he heard the heart's unuttered cry. And he knew of a truth that love the more Had sprung from the silence which on us lay. As he stood with me at the open door— On that faithful morn when he went his way.

"HEART SONGS"

Refreshing as a drink at the OLD WELL

400 SONGS! 500 Pages of Sweet Music 400 SONGS!

HEART SONGS is not a mere collection of music and words! It is a book compiled directly by more than 20,000 people, who, in sending their favorite songs, told why they sent them.

From the lone cabin on the trackless prairie—from the snowy wastes of Alaska—from the mining camp amidst the pines of the lofty Sierras—from the coral strand of an island in the far Pacific, so remote that the ships come only once a year (it they do not forget)—from the garrets of London and Paris, with only the stars above—from the sandy deserts of the Orient, somehow seemingly forgotten by even God himself—came these outpourings of the human heart—from the men and women who loved them—and the singing of which oftentimes saved their sanity and faith in Heaven.

Every song in this wonderful book has had some sacred memory—some touching experience—some sweet and hallowed association—connected with it in the hearts of thousands. It is their song of joy—of sorrow—of thanksgiving—of love—of bereavement—of home-coming—of reunion—of all the tender sentiments that lift the human heart in worship to its Maker. It is for this—by inspiration—that this unique volume is entitled "HEART SONGS!"

ANOTHER HEART SONG THAT WILL LIVE FOREVER THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

WRITTEN by Samuel Woodworth, the son of a poor Massachusetts Farmer. His fame rests on his exquisite portrayal of the old-fashioned well on the home farm at Scituate, Mass. "The Old Oaken Bucket was composed one summer day when living on Dundane Street, New York. He came home one afternoon overcome with heat and draining a glass of cold water said to his wife, "That is very refreshing, but how much more refreshing it would be to take a good long draught from the old oaken bucket I left hanging in my father's well at home." Thus inspired, he gave the world that matchless poem and song, "The Old Oaken Bucket," one of the "heart songs" which will live as long as the English language is spoken.
