Prairies women in double jobs
By CHARLES GUNNING
Canadian Press Staff Writer
WINNIPEG, Sept. 24—(CP)—Women of Western Canada's farming rural communities are doing double duty these days as they help fill the farm jobs of young men who have joined the armed forces, then cram rare spare moments with work designed to aid the democratic war effort.

Each day from scores of county towns and villages, centres of rural activity come reports of wartime donations, collections and work by patriotic women anxious to do their bit.

Organized under church societies, women's institutes, Canadian Red Cross branches, service clubs and other organizations, western farm community women are supplementing the British war achievement with welcome gifts of money and clothing for air raid victims in Britain, food, clothing and other comforts for men in the army, navy and air force and salvaged metal, paper, fabric and other scrap.

Some examples of the work women are doing day by day in brief news items received from rural centres, for instance:

Minnesota: Residents of this northwestern Manitoba town have contributed more than $2,000 to the Red Cross alone and have donated thousands of articles of clothing for bomb victims and members of the armed forces.

Stonewall: From this small town 20 miles north of Winnipeg, have come numerous cash contributions as well as clothing and hospital supplies for soldiers, sailors and airmen, women and children.

Denholm: A tiny village in the North Battleford area of northwestern Saskatchewan, Denholm recently sent nine blankets made from old wool to bomb victims in Britain.

Watson: An aluminum salvage campaign in this town 200 miles east of Saskatoon is bringing good response from housewives whose quiltings bees this year have produced 67 quilts for war purposes.

Trma: Sweaters are being knitted for members of the merchant marine by women of this community, 100 miles east of Edmonton, and these are being filled with jams for shipment to Britain.

Rochester: From this central Alberta town have gone to Britain and to the armed forces both at home and abroad bundles of mittens, socks, scarves, sweaters, caps, bed gowns, sheets, quilts blankets and dresses.

Innisfail: A "Jam for Britain" campaign is in full swing in the Innisfail area of southern Alberta. At the same time, housewives are contributing freely to an aluminum drive which has as its objective sufficient metal to build an airplane.

CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

"People Vs. Dr. Kildare" Offers Top Entertainment

AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE

Medical mystery and a dramatic lawsuit figure in the latest adventure of young Dr. Kildare, in "The People Vs. Dr. Kildare" now showing at the Capitol Theatre, with Lew Ayres as the young doctor in quite the toughest "spot" he has ever seen in.

The dramatic story revolves about a malpractice suit and medical detective work that solves the problem.

The young doctor operates in an emergency on a beautiful ice skating star, played by Bonita Granville, guest star of the picture. Paralysis follows, then a malpractice suit. Dr. Gillespie (Lionel Barrymore) aids his young protégé in discovering the obscure cause of the trouble, and in a dramatic speech to the jury, reminiscent of his famous "A Free Soul" winning speech in "A Free Soul", solves the problem.

Ayres is compelling in his dramatic moments and Barrymore gripping in the stirring climax. This Granville proves herself a skilled actress, and Laraine Day as the young doctor's sweetheart, also acquires herself in dramatic sequences.

Comedy is contributed by Red Skelton, Alma Kruger and others, and Barrymore garners laughs when he sings "Mademoiselle from Armentieres" as a lullaby for a baby. Also deserving of special mention is the work of Alma Kruger, Paul Stanton, Diana Lewis, Walter Kingsford, Neil Craig and Tom Conway.

Harold S. Bucquet turns in one of his most skillful jobs as a director, and excellent photography is contributed by Clyde DeVinna, whose "X-ray room" lighting is spectacularly effective. David Snell composed the musical score.

Forecasts huge Drive for war Services funds

OTTAWA, Sept. 24—(CP)—Hon. J. T. Thorson, Minister of National War Services, appealed tonight to communities throughout the Dominion to confine their charity fund appeals to the collection of money for local, non-war welfare activities.

He said a separate national campaign confined to war service organizations will be held next spring, with an objective which may be from $17,000,000 to $20,000,000. He urged that peace-time needs of local communities should not be mixed with next spring's wartime appeal of a national character.

Mr. Thorson said it is impossible to make the various community allotments for the spring drive until the national war charities fund advisory board examines the budgets for 1942, which must be based on the expenditures for 1941 and cannot be prepared until the end of the calendar year.

TORONTO, Sept. 24—(CP)—The weakness of the Toronto stock market increased as the session advanced today. Volume was a little heavier than on Tuesday at 176,000 shares.

Malartic gold fields shuttled between 2.33 and 2.53 and closed at 2.35 for a net loss of 15 cents. It traded 46,000 shares. Wright-Har greaves dropped 10 cents to 3.90, San Antonio 9 to 2.31, O'Brien was off 8 cents to 1.47 and losses of 4 to 5 cents came through for Cariboo, East Malartic, Francoeur, Kerr-Addison, Farnour, Pickle Crow, Sheep Creek, Toburn, Sylvanite and Upper Canada. Preston gained 10 cents to 3.25.

use of her name in connection with the Dominion campaign, which is officially known as "The Queen's Canadian Fund for Air Raid Victims."

Every dollar contributed to the Queen's Canadian Fund goes without deduction to the Lord Mayor of London for distribution to the homeless and needy.

Contributions from this Province should be forwarded to the Royal Trust Company, Charlottetown, which reports the following receipts to date:

Received yesterday:—

QUEEN'S CANADIAN FUND DONATIONS

Repeated bombing raids on British port areas and the industrial Midlands has attracted fresh attention to the frightful suffering of the many thousands of civilians in Great Britain who are harried from shelter to shelter and finally driven into the open country by successive raids. Eventually places are found for them all places of relative security, but their belongings of all kinds are destroyed. The task of emergency feeding alone is difficult. The task of setting them up once more with some quantity of clothing and bedding is much more difficult.

To meet these enormous needs, funds have been started in various parts of the world. Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth has permitted the

Egmont Bay, Mont Carmel Exhibition Is Huge Success

Record attendance at Prince County Fair; Lieut. Governor LePage compliments Exhibitors

The Egmont Bay and Mont Carmel exhibition was held yesterday afternoon and was, as usual, a great success. The beautiful weather brought a record attendance and the exhibits were up to their usual standard, although in some sections down a little in quantity. This was particularly noticeable in the grain and roots. The poor summer was chiefly to blame for this as the land in that part of the country is very low lying and the farmers could not get on the land very early. Dr. J. A. Clark, Superintendent of the Experimental Farm, who judged the grain and roots, was very pleased with the year the timothy seed was excellent. There was also some very high grade turnip seed and some very good wheat.

His Honor Lieutenant Governor B. W. LePage officially opened the exhibition with a few highly complimentary remarks on the quality of farm produce. He had a special word of praise for the women, who had excelled in their arts and crafts.

There were many improvements on the grounds this year including much better accommodation for the pigs, sheep and poultry. Great interest was displayed in the livestock and particular interest centred around the horse pulling contest.

Mr. John F. Arsenault presided at the opening and introduced the speakers. Very sincere regret was expressed at the absence of Rev. P. X. Gallant, honorary president, who from the inception of the exhibition has always presided and taken the most active interest in the exhibition. It is to be regretted that the Reverend Father is quite ill at his home in Egmont Bay.

Mr. Justice Arsenault who addressed the gathering both in French and English, brought greetings and best wishes from the exhibitors and his most sincere regret that he was not able to attend.

Other speakers were: Hon. Wm. H. Dennis, Minister of Agriculture; Hon. Clark MacGilligan, Dr. J. A. Clark, Hon. H. H. Cox, Hon. Horace Wright, P. A. McIsaac, M. L. A., Souris; W. L. Brenton, dairy superintendent; P. Driscoll, T. M. Linkletter, M. L. A.; and Marin Gankler, M. L. A.

Dr. Clark gave some very good advice on what to plant to sow and praised the quality of grain and seed at the fair. He also had a word of praise for the showing of cranberries and honey, both of these everywhere. The flowers which Dr. Clark also judged, were very lovely and in Dr. Clark's opinion could be shown anywhere and come out tops.

The fruit was good but no large entries said Dr. Clark.

Mr. W. L. Brenton, who judged the dairy products in a short address spoke of the tremendous task before Island farmers today to produce more dairy products particularly butter, cheese and eggs. Mr. Brenton regretted very much the absence of cheese in the entries.

Mr. F. A. Driscoll spoke on the poultry exhibit, which he judged. There were more poultry than last year and the quality is a little superior to last year. In the older hens there were some very fine specimens which would do credit at larger fairs. Mr. Driscoll stressed the importance of poultry raising on the farm and also the advantages of sticking to one good breed when able. All the speakers spoke in high praise of the exhibits and the efforts of the farmers in continuing to progress from year to year in their showing of livestock and farm produce.

Ladies Exhibit
It is at this exhibition that the work of the ladies excels. The home crafts of the French Canadian is shown at Egmont Bay in all its beauty. Beautiful homespun blankets, an abundance of lovely knitted articles, an exquisite piece of needlepoint, fine hand made lace and hooked rugs were on display and won the admiration of all. In the culinary arts the bottled fruits, vegetables, fish and meats were of the finest. There was a particularly fine exhibit of bottled mackerel and many complimentary remarks were heard about it.

Livestock
There was a very good exhibit of livestock, an excellent showing of horses and calves. Professor W. J. Reid judged the horses and said the entries were larger and for the most part in better condition. Emanuel S. Gallant had a very fine French Canadian draft stallion which he had imported to the province which was worthy of special mention. The cattle exhibit was judged by Stewart C. Wright. The Holstein entry was small but there were some good Ayrshires and Shorthorns. Cyrus

Feed Your Way to More Profits

by balancing low-protein roughage with Quaker 24% Protein Dairy Ration

QUAKER Dairy Rations are made to keep your cows up to peak production. Dairy cows, just like machines, make more profit and reduce overhead costs when they are working at capacity. When you spend your money and years of effort in breeding producing ability into your herd, it is only logical to feed a ration that contains the necessary ingredients in the proper proportions to permit them to make all the milk they are capable of producing. That is what Quaker Dairy Rations have proven they can do—they are available in 18% and 24% protein content so that you can choose the one that will work best with your home-grown grains and roughage.
