MALPEQUE

The recital in Malpeque Hall on Tuesday evening given by Mrs. Campbell and her pupils, was even a greater success than those given in previous years. The night was favorable, the attendance was large and the hall was tastefully decorated with flowers.

The Rev. D. M. Grant presided. Those taking first year work took their parts well, while those in second and third year work showed a marked degree of advancement. Both teacher and pupils came in for a large share of commendation and the evening on the whole was one of real enjoyment.

The reading by Mr. Charles Lowe formed a pleasing variation from the rest of the program and was heartily enjoyed. A vote of thanks expressive of appreciation of the evening's enjoyment was moved by Mr. John Simpson, seconded by Mr. Edward McKay and conveyed to Mrs. Campbell and her class by the chairman. Mrs. Campbell acknowledged in a very pleasing manner this expression of appreciation on behalf of herself and the members of her class. The following is the program in full:—

Remarks by Chairman, Rev. D. M. Grant; piano duet, "Guards March" (Stresbog), Louise Simpson and Jean Owen; piano solo, "Hearts and Flowers" (Neyin), Mrs. Campbell; piano solo, "Fairy Waltz" (1st year), Rena McGillivray; piano solo, "Woodlakes Waltz" (2nd year), Ruth Montgomery; reading, selected, Mr. Charles Lowe; piano duet, "Overture from II Trovatore" (Verdi), Mrs. Campbell and Jennie Matthews, (2nd year); piano solo, "Little Fairy Waltz" (1st year), Dorothy Thompson; piano solo, "Arbels Waltz" (3rd year), Louise Simpson; piano solo, "Evening Breeze" (3rd year), Jean Owen; piano duet, "Flowers and Ferns," Jone poem by Keisler, Mrs. Campbell and Matilda Owen (3rd year). God Save the King.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. McG. McLean and daughter, Mary, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Hamilton.

Miss Helen Ramsay, teacher at Fernwood, is spending her Autumn holidays at her home in Hamilton.

Her many friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Everett Ramsay of Hamilton has been called to her former home in Tyne Valley on account of the illness of her father, Mr. William Phillips.

MRS. GEO. A. PARKER. After a lingering illness of some weeks Mrs. Geo. A. Parker passed away at her home in Georgetown, Ontario, on Monday evening Sept. 30, at the advanced age of 87.

The funeral was held on the following Wednesday and was conducted by her Pastor Rev. C. U. MacNevin who spoke about the Fading of the Leaf. A choir from Georgetown furnished very suitable music. The pallbearers were Messrs. Michael Keenan, Philip Morrison, D. P. McKinnon, D. Gordon, A. Crawford, and E. S. Norton.

Mrs. Parker was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of the community and has been a very faithful member of Georgetown United Church for a large number of years. The following are left to cherish the memory of a most devoted mother; Charles and Margaret in the old home, George H. in the Royalty, Mrs. John Knight in Georgetown, Mrs. John Aitken at Lower Montague, and Wallace in Portland, Oregon. To the bereaved we convey our deepest sympathy.

Summer reigns o'er field and stream. Summer reigns on land and sea. Summer reigns the world supreme; But summer doesn't reign for me. Go I to the woods or shores, Summer doesn't reign—it pours.

Sweet and palatable, Moths Graves' Worm Exterminator is acceptable to children, and it does its work surely and promptly.
