MONDAY.

BISLEY TEAM.—The Canadian team for Bisley, of which Lieut. J. E. Sterns, Souris P. E. I. is a member sails from Montreal June 27th, and the members of the team will report in that city the day previous for inspection and orders. Col. J. Duff Stewart, of Vancouver, will command the team.

CONFIRMATION.— His Lordship Bishop Worrell administered confirmation to a number of candidates in both St. Peters Cathedral yesterday morning at the 11 o'clock service and in St. Paul's Church in the evening. At the evening service in St. Peter's Cathedral Rev. George Kewney, Chaplain of H. M. S. Cumberland, delivered an excellent sermon.

Preaching last evening in St. James Church on "Good the ultimate goal of ill." the Rev. Dr. Fullerton referred to the social work of the Church and the great progress which had been made in the social condition of the people generally. Social work had its origin in the Church, and it was due to the church that this should be recognized and appreciated. In this connection he took the opportunity of expressing on his own behalf and also in the name of the congregation their thanks to the member of the government for his munificent gift of a sanitarium for tuberculosis. That was one of the finest displays of religion pure and undefiled he knew of. But unless the community as a whole took an interset in the institution, and saw that it was properly and efficiently supported, it would be of little avail. Would it not be disastrous if the institution was not supported by the spontaneous efforts of the people and was allowed to share the fate of the Macdonald Consolidated School? Would it not be the highest Christianity to save the lives of those who were the victims of that dread scourge by any sacrifice we could make? If it was the duty of our schoolmasters to equip the rising generation that they may have the greatest success in life; was it not of even greater importance that we should unite in supporting an effort such as this which was intended to relieve suffering humanity?

TUESDAY

GOOD BEEF.—Yesterday Saunders & Newsome, Charlottetown, received from Cape Traverse a carload of choice cattle. They were fed by Messrs Wallace Lowther, Lea Lowther, S. Carruthers, Neil Lowther, W. E. Gillespie and J. C. Gillespie, who are a number of the leading farmers of Cape Traverse and Carleton. These cattle are a splendid looking bunch and Messrs Saunders & Newsome are to be congratulated on securing them.

AN EMPTY JAIL.—Mr. Joseph Coyle, keeper of the Queen's County Jail, is to be congratulated on being now able to relax the vigilance incident to his duties, his last boarder having been discharged yesterday after a rest of eight days. Peaceful and lawabiding as the province is, it is yet an unusual thing to have its largest jail empty. Only once before, in its history of a little over a year, has the new Queen's County Jail been empty; this was last summer when there was no inmate for five days. The Guardian is informed that the old jail was empty for one day only in twelve years. Mr. Coyle, while a genial host, is in no way anxious for guests and he is looking forward to a record-breaking intermission now that his house is empty. Since he took charge on the opening of the new jail on April 6th 1912 the largest number of inmates at one time was thirteen. Only one criminal has been accommodated in the new building and he became wearied with his surroundings and left while the jailer was away on a holiday.

FUNERAL HELD.—On Wednesda of last week took place in Morell the funeral of Mrs. John Sinnott, the much esteemed mother of Right Rev. Mgr. A. A. Sinnott, Secretary to the Papal Delegate, Ottawa. Over one hundred carriages followed the remains to St. Joseph's Church. Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated, the celebrant being Mgr. Sinnott, deacon, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Tracadie; subdeacon, Rev. A. McAulay, St. Peter's; assistant priest, Rev. T. Curran, Kelly's Cross; Master of ceremonies, Rev. Fathers Monaghan and McIntyre. There were several other priests present in the sanctuary including Rev. N. J. Cole, Halifax. When the Sacrifice of the Mass was concluded the solemn funeral procession proceeded to St. Joseph's cemetery, where was placed in mother earth all that was mortal of a woman, whose memory will ever remain green among the host of friends who admired her innate goodness and sterling character. Besides Mgr. Sinnott the following members of the family were present:—Mrs. John Mullally, Souris; Mrs. Thos. McInerney, Boston; Mrs. T. Scully, Portland and Miss Hannah.

AN INVITATION.—Rev. Edwin Smith, of Chipman N. B., formerly of Cardigan, P. E. I., has received a call from a congregation in the Presbytery of Macleod, Alberta. The call will come up for consideration at a meeting of the Presbytery of St. John to be held in Toronto June 3.

WILL PROBATED.—A Vancouver, B. C., despatch says. "The will of the late J. E. Lefurgey formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., has been filed for probate. He left estate valued at $300,000." Deceased was a son of the late John Lefurgey of Summerside. He had been living for some years in Vancouver.

THURSDAY

QUARTERLY BOARD.—The Fourth Quarterly Board of the Methodist Church, Murray Harbor, was held on the evening of May 30th. The reports of the year in all departments were presented and showed progress. A unanimous invitation was given the pastor, Rev. L. H. Jewitt to remain for the third year which was accepted subject to conference.

FUNERAL TUESDAY.—The funeral of Miss Frances P. Stanley took place Tuesday afternoon from her late residence 78 Cumberland street to the People's Cemetery, and was largely attended. The deceased was highly respected and esteemed and a valued member of the First Methodist Church congregation, the pastor, Rev. J. Heaney conducting the services, assisted by Rev. T. Marshall. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The following were the pall-bearers: Messrs. James and George Brady, Leon Worthy, L. Kelly, M. Forsythe and A. McCannell.

A HAPPY EVENT.—The marriage took place at Lawndale Farm, East Royalty, last evening of Miss Catherine McKay to Mr. Herbert Love, son of Mr. E. G. Love, East Royalty. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. Marshall. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. The bride was given away by her father Mr. Alex. R. McKay, while Mr. Gordon McKay acted as Best Man. Miss Annie Love was Bridesmaid. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the happy couple are held. They will make their home in East Royalty. The Guardian extends best wishes.

HANDSOME MEMORIAL. — The Light Horse are having erected a handsome monument over the grave of their departed comrade Major McDonald. The work of art was done by Messrs. Chandler & Bell, Stonecutters. The base of the monument is of freestone 2 ft. 5 in. x 2 ft. 5 in., on which is a second base of marble 2 ft. 2 in. x 2 ft. 2 in. and 10 inches thick. On this rests the die or main portion of the monument which measures 1 ft. 5 in. x 1 ft. 5 in., and on which is the following inscription: "Erected by the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the P. E. I. Light Horse as a tribute of respect to the memory, and to mark the last resting place of the remains of their late commanding officer, Major John A. McDonald, who died Aug. 28, 1911, aged 30 years." Surmounting the whole is a broken column 5 feet high and 11 in. x 11 in. at the base. The monument will be placed in position as soon as the weather clears up.

Paris Doctor Says

Dandruff, Falling Hair are caused by a Microbe—Dr. Sangerbond proves it

Dr. Sangerbond is the leading dermatologist of France.

To prove his theory that germs cause dandruff, he infected a guinea pig with these microbes and in a short time the hair from the animal's body disappeared.

Parisian Sage, which can now be obtained all over Canada, has an immense sale and is highly recommended by physicians in all parts of the world.

It is just because it is the only prescription or hair tonic that is absolutely sure to kill the dandruff germ.

It is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

In warm weather it keeps the scalp clean and cool and free from obnoxious odors. Parisian Sage is a pleasant and dainty hair dressing that will put a bewitching charm and lustre into faded and lifeless hair in one week. It is distressing for any woman to have dull, unattractive hair and women so unfortunate should use Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage comes in large 50-cent bottles at Geo. E. Hughes and is sold by leading druggists everywhere. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" is on every bottle.

Zealot
Enrolment, No. 38, Dept. of Agriculture.

Zealot is a black Stallion six years old and weighs ten hundred and ten pounds, is a fast natural pacer sired by Commodore Lydard, dam by Abdellah Messanger dam of two in the 2.30 list, also grand dam of Orwell Bell 2.20 1-4. second dam by Don Joan, third dam by old Flying Frenchman. As his breeding will show Zealot is a race hosre of first quality After a heavy season in the stud he started eight times in 1912 and was always in the pay line At Summerside on September 22nd he was second to Happy George in 2.23 on a slow track and a cold day with a strong wind blowing At Charlottetown a week later he started in the 2.40 stake against strong Field and finished third, came back the next day in the 2.17 class against a field of seasoned Campaigners and fought a four head battle but had to be content with fourth money. His Ice Campaign consisted of one start at Charlottetown, when he faced the imported mare Rexall Girl to her limit to beat him and than only could do it by a nose. Zealot has proved himself to be a stock getter among the best. One of his daughters at two years old sold last exhibition in Charlottetown for two hundred dollars and there are many more as good as she was. Zealot will make the season of 1913 at the owners stable Vernon River Bridge where he will serve a limited number of choice mares at ten dollars for the season to be settled by cash or note at the time of first service.
