WANTED. - Job with Army Truck for Spring or Summer. Robert Rose, Elmira.

MOST INTERESTED VISITOR. - Miss Holby on furlough from the Maple Leaf Hospital, Kangra, India, while in Charlottetown visited the Chapel of St. Peter's Cathedral and St. Paul's Parish Church and the Harris Memorial Art Gallery. She was also much interested in the beautiful Diocesan Book of Remembrance which is the Woman's Auxiliary Memorial to their Honorary President, Mrs. James Simpson, especially as she has been associated very closely with Mrs. Simpson's niece Miss Audrey DeBlais lately retired from Kangra where she has been serving 30 years as a W. A. Missionary.

CONCERT AT PARKDALE. - An enjoyable evening was spent in Parkdale Hall on April 15th, when an interesting program and auction sale sponsored by the Parkdale Women's Institute took place. Mrs. Harold Newson capably performed the duties of chairman. Following is the program: Sing song, led by Esben Arnfast, with Royston F. Mugford, A.R.C.O., at the piano; reading, Mr. Robert Tompton; trio, Mrs. Spurgeon Hickey, Miss Jennie Brown, Mrs. Cantwell; Highland Fling, Miss Dorothy Cheverie, accompanied by Mrs. Bertram at the piano; solo, Mr. Esben Arnfast; reading, Mrs. Leone Ross. The numbers were exceptionally well rendered and all performers responded to enclosures. Mrs. V. M. Hudson, president of the Institute, in a few well chosen words explained the purpose of the gathering and informed the audience that the proceeds from the auction were to be spent in the interests of the Canadian Society for the Control of Cancer, and the Red Cross. Mr. Percy Gray by his skillful auctioneering soon disposed of the articles, a good sum being realized. An outstanding donation was a half-ton of coal from the Arnfast Coal Co. This kind gesture on the part of Mr. Arnfast is highly appreciated. Lunch was served by the committee in charge. The singing of the National Anthem brought a pleasant and profitable evening to a close.

O'NEILL-SULLIVAN. - St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, N. S., was the scene of a pretty wedding at eight o'clock Monday morning, April 19th, when Bertha Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan, Cardigan, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Basil Richard O'Neill, son of Mr. Charles O'Neill and the late Mrs. O'Neill of Halifax. Rev. Father J. Mills officiating. The bride given in marriage by her father wore a long sleeved gown of ivory satin, the waisted bodice having a lace yoke and the full skirt ending in a short train. She wore a finger tip veil of tulle illusion becomingly set with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried an arm bouquet of Tails man roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Sullivan, sister of the bride, wore a floor length frock of heaven blue taffeta with fitted bodice, full skirt, short sleeves, and matching halo. Her bouquet composed of carnations and fern. Mr. Howard Smith acted as best man. A breakfast reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, 26 Victoria Road, where immediate relatives assembled. The room was beautifully decorated to fit the occasion centered with a large vase of pink and white carnations. Later on the bride and groom left by plane for P. E. I. to visit the brides home. For travelling the bride chose a three piece ensemble of wine and blue herring-bone tweed with wine and white accessories. Upon return from their honeymoon the couple will reside in Moncton, N. B., where Mr. O'Neill is a valued member of the Crown Diamond Paint Co.

ROY WARD DICKSON

Here he is, the genial master of shenanigans, of Shrifff's "Fun Parade" here on April 26th, with his daffy gang to stage a hilarious all-new evening's fun, and hand out thousands of dollars' worth of prizes, at the Forum. It's all to raise funds for Y-Grads Welfare Service work.

Ellen's Diary By an Island Farmer's Wife

It was only a nice coincidence that the mailman brought her letter with the other mail this morning. "At present" she wrote "everything continues to be very exciting."

She was always one to find much joy in life, the delight of it showing in her steps and if she were going to the corner store for a pound of tea, one felt that she was setting out on some high adventure that she would come in just beyond the hill, or maybe beyond, down by the mill in the valley. "We are being married quietly at a manse here and then are going on to Halifax to relatives and friends for our reception that evening. I suppose you'll be wondering what I shall be wearing? Am being married in a navy tailored suit - remember the blues one I got when at Alderlea, and of which I was so proud? This one is quite wonderful too, of course. Am wearing a white blouse and gloves, a divine hat and black suede shoes. Am not sure which dress of two, I shall wear at the reception, either a blue one or perhaps a salmon-pink which is very sweet. And then to a home of my very own! Just think of it! Dreams and wishes do come true, Mrs. Ellen don't they? Have had such a wonderful time lately planning and buying and all, that I sometimes have to pinch myself to be sure it is all for me and not for some other girl. Remember me to James and all, who were always so kind to me when on 'The Island and I will write you after I'm settled - Judy."

In the moonlight tonight the slopes leading to the wooded hill-tops lie dark and light, where in

"LOOK - a cheque from Ottawa!"

This year, well over a million Canadians will receive from the government cheques which represent Refund on personal Income Tax for 1942 (compulsory savings) $63,000,000 Cash from War Savings Certificates maturing in 1948 $45,000,000

CANADA SAVINGS BONDS can be purchased over the counter at any branch of The Royal Bank of Canada. You can buy them outright for cash, or if you wish, use the proceeds of your government cheque as a down payment for bonds to be paid for by instalments. The procedure is simplicity itself. Our nearest branch will look after all details for you. You'll never be sorry you saved

IF SOME of this money is coming to you, think before you spend it... remember how hard you worked to save during the war years. Remember, too, that all this additional spending power, if translated into immediate buying, would almost certainly increase prices and your own cost of living. Rather, put the money you receive into your savings account, or - better still - tuck it away in CANADA SAVINGS BONDS. This way you help keep prices down and at the same time maintain a nest egg for your own future security and need.

The year was 1830...

... a weakened Europe licked her wounds after the Napoleonic Wars. Battle-weary eyes turned to a new land... and in this one year—1830—over 28,000 immigrants arrived in Canada: Alone in a strange and sparsely-settled land; they set their strength; their youth; their courage to the task of building a new life for themselves... and for their children. How well they succeeded is shown by Canada today... once more the New Land to which we welcome immigrants from overseas; May these "new Canadians" carry on the tradition... eagerly seeking the duties of citizenship with its right to the free, unhampered exercise of the franchise. When YOU cast your vote at every election—municipal, provincial, federal—you are exercising a duty and privilege planned, worked and fought for by your forefathers: Your vote protects the future of your children: To fail in this duty is to be less than a good citizen.

In Memoriam

MRS. GEORGE BETTS Death came Friday morning to another of Amherst's oldest citizens, Mrs. George Betts in her 87th year. She was the former Catherine McPherson of West Point, P. E. Island. She and her husband came to Amherst about 40 years ago and were well known among the older folk of the Highland district. She leaves to mourn one daughter, Mrs. Cecil Vall of Kentville and six sons, William of Halifax, Walter of New York, Melvin of Toronto, Homer of Moncton, Gordon of Buffalo, N. Y., and Ross with whom she made her home. A number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear Mother who passed away April 26, 1948. Gone dear Mother, gone forever; Here we miss your smiling face; You have left to remember, None on earth can take your place. Inserted by Her Daughter, Mrs. S. Howatt, Carleton, P. E. I.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my wife, Mrs. Peter Henniger, who passed away on April 26th, 1947, one year ago today. We often sit and think of you When we are all alone For memory is the only friend That grief can call its own. When all is still and quiet And sleep forsakes our eyes Our thoughts are in the lonely grave Where our dear Mother lies. Some day our eyes shall see The face we loved so well And then dear Mother we'll clasp your hands And never say farewell. Inserted by Her Husband and Family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband, Melville Molyneux, who passed away April 25th, 1944. I have lost my life's companion A life linked with my own And day by day I miss him more As I go through life alone. Inserted by His Wife Mrs. Annie Molyneux.

NATIVES SWINDLED IN SOUTH AFRICA

DURBAN, South Africa, April 25 (CP) - Police and native administration officials are trying to solve the problem of a wave of "get-rich-quick" banks which have been operating recently in all native locations and townships in Natal. The fear now has been expressed that this "banking" racket may spread to the densely populated Rand locations. Although it is well known that thousands of clients will lose their money at these "banks" there seems to be no law under which they can be stopped. Most of the banks employ the "chain letter" system to attract clients. Each customer is given a receipt for his £1 and told he will be paid £28 as soon as 98 other natives have deposited money. After a few days the bank actually pays out and great excitement is caused as the lucky investors exhibit wads of notes earned from their £1 deposits. Then thousands rush in from the surrounding countryside with their savings. After a week a great run on the bank begins. All over Natal the drama of hope and disillusionment has followed the same pattern.

In Durban, police visiting compounds to warn natives against patronising the banks have been beaten and chased out. Two policemen were injured recently when 1,000 natives attempted to wreck the "banks" in one township. In another, angry natives carried off the furniture to cover part of their losses. One "banker" in Durban collected £1,000 in a few days and then took refuge in the police station to escape the mob.

WHITTLED-IN LOOK WITHOUT THE PINCH

A new girdle has been designed specifically for teen-agers and women with junior figures. Of fashionable new long length it has a shaped waistline with satin-covered corded ribs at the top to prevent rolling and cutting in, as well as giving the waist the whittled-in look without pinching. A feature of this girdle is the looknkit which makes the two-way stretch knit run-proof. The knitting is done in a smart zigzag pattern in two-tone effect. The bottom of the girdle is frilled and the top is trimmed with nylon elastic ribbon.

CARD OF THANKS
