HOCKEY

Hunter River Royals 2; Highfield Granites 2.

In sixty minutes of thrilling hockey played in Hunter River Rink Friday night before a large crowd of enthusiastic fans, the Hunter River Royals and the Highfield Granites, winners of the Northern and Southern Bethune Trophy's respectively, played a tie game 2-2.

Both teams were very evenly matched with goalies making sensational saves, with Weeks having more shots to turn aside than Watts in the Royals net.

In the first period both teams started away very fast as the ice was in perfect condition, about mid period J. Rodd scored on a beautiful shot from left wing for the first score of the game shortly afterwards Boyle went in close for a shot but Weeks turned it aside, Wedlock came in fast for the rebound and evened the score, shooting the puck between the goalies legs.

In the second period play was very even but neither teams were able to score.

In the third period the Royals forced the play and after about twelve minutes of play H. Wedlock picked up the puck at his own blue-line, stickhandled through the forwards, drew the defence out of position, made a perfect pass to A. Wedlock in front of the net who shot Weeks again turned it aside, but Wedlock picked up his own rebound to make the score 2-1 in favor of Royals. The Granites then forced the play and with only a few seconds to go W. Rodd evened the score on a shot from a mix-up inside the blue-line. Mr. Russell Vessey very capably handled the game to the satisfaction of all.

The lineup:

Royals: W. Watts, goal; C. Sellar, H. Wedlock, defense; A. Wedlock, R. MacMillan, P. Boyle, D. Whitlock, S. Bernard, forwards.

Granites: A. Weeks, goal; A. Lewis, G. Carson, defense; W. Rodd, S. Hurry, J. Rodd, MacKinnon, forwards.

CONCERT A SUCCESS - The entertainment given by the Emerald Branch of the Women's Institute in the B. I. S. Hall on the evening of the 17th March inst., was well patronized and passed off quite satisfactorily. The three-act drama entitled, "Red Acre Farm," was presented by the Emerald Dramatic Club and reflected credit on all that took part. One and all performed their parts in an excellent manner and will be warmly received when they come before Emerald audience on a future occasion. Music was furnished by Todd's Orchestra and was of a high order, Miss Ada McKay, of Springfield, rendered two beautiful solos, Mrs. James W. Allen presided at the organ, and Miss Webster, of Norboro, contributed a reading that was very amusing. Subeaneas Johnston, of Kinkora, delighted especially the younger portion of the audience by his step-dancing. Mr. Emmet Clow presided and the best of order was maintained throughout.

Dust Causes Asthma. Even a little speck too small to see will lead to agonies which no words can describe. The walls of the breathing tubes contract and it seems as if the very life must pass. From this condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy brings the user to perfect rest. It relieves the passages and normal breathing is firmly established again. Hundreds of testimonials received annually prove its effectiveness.

NEW PENPOINTS IN POST OFFICES

WASHINGTON, Mar. 21—The Postoffice Department yesterday inaugurated a "new deal" on pens in postoffices throughout the country, thereby conceding to Eddie Cantor a major reform victory. Assistant Postmaster General Evans issued the following order to all postmasters:

"The inconvenience to patrons of postoffices because of lack of proper writing materials, including penholders, penpoints and ink in the lobbies of the postoffice has been widely commented on for years.

"Please see to it that postoffices are served properly and in sufficient quantities with the necessary penholders, penpoints and ink."

Evans directed postmasters to change penpoints at least once a day. He estimated that this change would require 4,557,600 penpoints for all postoffices during the next fiscal year.

SCOUT PATIENTS ARE COURAGEOUS

An article, "A Trip from the Thistleton Hospital to the City and Back Again" (for an operation), contributed by two Boy Scout patients to February "R.L.S. Cheerio," the magazine of the Boy Scout Group at the Thistleton Children's Hospital, brought a new tribute to Scouting from the Chief Surgeon, Dr. D. E. Robertson. The development by the boys at Thistleton of character and morale "that is rare in the ordinary run of patients" is in large part credited by the surgeon to the "self-imposed" ideals of their Scout training.

ALBERT WILSON

Residents of Corraville and vicinity were deeply grieved when on February 19th, it became known that Albert Wilson, a highly esteemed young man of that district, had passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. McLaren, Forest Hill.

The deceased had been in failing health for some time, and in the early summer of 1932 he moved to Forest Hill in hopes that a complete rest and careful nursing would restore him to his former vigorous health. But it was not in the decrees of Divine Providence that these hopes should be realized, for despite the best efforts of medical skill and the loving attention of his devoted sister, the angel of death touched his eyes with his golden wand and gently closed them in the eternal sleep of death.

The late Mr. Wilson was a young man of estimable character, kind, and obliging to all, and a large circle of friends were profoundly grieved to learn of his demise at the early age of 27 years.

He leaves to mourn, his father, Dan A. Wilson, Corraville; two sisters, Mrs. S. McLaren, Forest Hill and Mrs. F. J. McViney, of Dorchester, Mass.; three brothers, Jeff, at present in Nova Scotia; Romey, of Southampton and Dan, of Corraville. His mother and one brother, John James, predeceased him.

During his last illness, he was visited by his pastor, Rev. A. McAulay who administered to him the last rites of the Catholic Church, of which he was a devout member.

The funeral, which was held on February 22nd, from the home of his sister, was largely attended by friends from surrounding localities. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. A. McAulay, who also conducted the services at the grave. The pall bearers were: D. M. McDonald, Francis McAulay, Damien Morrison, Malcolm McLeod, Francis McKinnon and Norman Mathieson.

The following Mass Cards were received: Mr. and Mrs. Frank McViney, Dorchester; Mr. and Mrs. John D. McIntyre, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Graham, Boston; Miss Mary Wilson, New York, (two); Miss Annie Morrison, Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Florence Burns, Boston; Mr.

and Mrs. Romey Wilson, Southampton; Mrs. S. McLaren, Forest Hill; Miss Clara Wilson, Boston, Spiritual bouquet.

ALEXANDER McMILLAN

The town is the poorer today on account of the passing of Alexander McMILLAN, who departed this life at his home on Chapel Street on Monday afternoon, the 6th inst., at the ripe age of 85 years. He was the son of Hector McMILLAN, of Wood Island, Prince Edward Island, one of the pioneer families of that province whose grandfather, Malcolm McMILLAN, emigrated from Argyleshire in 1806. Alexander McMILLAN was a man with many friends, for all who knew him were his friends. Gifted with a wonderful memory and having a love for books, his mind was stored with the best in the books he read and nothing pleased him better than to discuss with a congenial friend the marrow found in a good book. His store of anecdotes made him a pleasant companion. But of all his reading the Bible was his hand-book that guided his steps on the way to the heavenly Jerusalem.

He was a blacksmith by trade, a rare mechanic, which trade he learned in the smithy of his father, the late Hector McMILLAN, in the days when Pictou was a great shipping port and Pictou business men made fortunes in shipping and the McMILLAN shop did a successful business in outfitting and repairing the ships that thronged the harbor. His end came in quieter days.

He leaves his widow, formerly Miss Isabel Sutherland, a son James, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and two daughters, Mrs. S. S. H. vie of Pictou and Mrs. Rod Campbell, of Providence, R. I. A third daughter, Greta, predeceased him by seventeen years. A half-brother, Hector, of California, also survives.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. S. T. Nicholls officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Baird. Interment was at Laurel Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were Ansell Whiteman, Edward Logan, J. W. Priest, Herberman Cameron, Ritchie Fraser and John Munro—Pictou Advocate. (Patriot please copy)
