

Good Blood Good blood, good health; bad blood, bad health; there you have it. Why not help nature just a little and change the bad to the good? Bad blood to good blood; poor blood to rich blood! Ask your doctor how this applies to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and how it applies to you! Could anything be more fair?

THE Guardian is indebted to a reader who kindly supplies in response to the query asked yesterday, the following given in Sutherland's History. It will be noted that the debtors only were liberated: "Victoria was crowned on the 28th of June. The event was duly celebrated on the Island. A detachment of the 33rd Sutherland Highlanders was here (Charlottetown) at the time. Their gay costume, and their martial music, tended to enliven the scene. The militia did their part handsomely. The jail was thrown open, and the debtors set at liberty. At night the town was illuminated, bonfires blazed around the harbour. All was conviviality and joy."

THE Dundas Correspondent of The Guardian writes:—Farming operations are about over except in some low lying land and notwithstanding the many difficulties in the shape of rainy weather and the frost remaining in the soil so long the crops have been got in in good shape. Pasture is excellent; this is one feature in which Dundas farms excel.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Stanley McKay, of Bridgetown on the 13th, was largely attended. Mr. McKay has the sympathy of the whole community in the loss of his young wife.—Dundas Lodge I. O. G. T. is rapidly increasing in membership.—T. U. Fowler, H. Sec'y of the I. O. F. was here in the interests of the Order yesterday. Brother Fowler is always welcome in Dundas and we are pleased to note his optimistic hopes as to the future of our Province.—Mrs. Anne Peterson, of Cove, Texas is visiting her sister, Mrs. Angus Livingston. Mrs. Peterson has been absent from the Province for over thirty years. She expects to visit her old home in Orwell, and will spend several months on the Island visiting old friends.—Why don't Mr. Burke visit Dundas with his orchard lessons on spraying. W. J. Nicholson, William McLeod, F. J. Wiggington, Thomas Clay, R. J. McKensie and many others have fine orchards and as Dundas is the most central place in the country it ought not to be passed by year after year.—H. Hillson of A. Home & Co., went through Dundas yesterday.—Foreign and local sportsmen are having splendid success fishing trout in Morrow's Mill Pond. John Nichol, former owner of Annandale Mills being among the number.

In Centenary Methodist church, St. John N. B., Sunday morning Rev. R. Opte preached on "They that go down to the sea in ships," comparing the voyage of the seaman to a voyage of life. In the evening Rev. Geo. A. Ross preached. Both preachers are well known in this Province.

The schooner Henry Ellsworth arrived in Sydney lately from Prince Edward Island, with a cargo of potatoes. The Captain found little or no trouble to dispose of his cargo, as it is the opinion of many, says a Sydney exchange that before another month potatoes will reach the advanced price of $1.00 per bushel.

ALF. A. ELLIS, of St. John, who has been spending three weeks at his camp, Murray River, came into the city yesterday enroute for home. He has been particularly lucky in his fishing and has had splendid catches of trout. Three visitors who spent a day or two with him—H. T. Sutherland and H. B. McCulloch, of New Glasgow, N. S. and L. C. Stewart, of Stellarton, also returned with him, and they are delighted with the luck which attended their angling.

REV. GEORGE DUNCAN, Glencairn, Scotland, son of the late Rev. Thomas Duncan, formerly of St. James Church in this city, and a nephew of F. W. Hyndman had the distinguished honor recently of preaching before a notable congregation. The occasion was a special service in connection with the meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, held in St. Giles' Cathedral, Edinburgh. The Royal pew was occupied by his Grace the Lord High Commissioner, (Lord Colebrooke) Lady Colbrooke and a lot of others of the nobility as well as officers of distinction, aides de camp, etc. Also the corporation members and many members of the leading Edinburgh Merchant Companies, and numbers of prominent divines. The occasion must have been a memorable one. The building was crowded. The text was "We are ambassadors of Christ".
