Yankee Maid Favorite In 19th Hambletonian

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—If some of the other horses don't start moving faster very soon, a Kansas-owned filly is going to win the major share of the 40,000 purse when the 19th Hambletonian is trotted over Goshen's Good Time Track on Aug. 9.

Yankee Maid, owned by A. L. Derby, Wichita oil man, already has whipped other leading candidates for the Biggy Whip Derby in the matron and champion stakelashes at North Randall. In both races she won in straight heats, 1:50 1/4 and 1:50 1/4, and 2:05 3-4 and 2:09 1/4. An easy winner of both stakes, she is the favorite to repeat her record of 2:04 1/4 in winning the Lexington stake last fall. Under the guidance of Henry Thomas, driver of two Hambletonian winners, Yankee Maid turned in the fastest time of any two-year-old last year after being purchased as a yearling for $1,500.

Nine winners of the championship stakelashes have come on to capture trotting's richest prize. The list includes Greyhound, who was out of the same mare (Elizabeth) as Yankee Maid, and Volo Song, last year's winner when the Hambletonian was run at the same track. City for the first break in the Goshen series since it was turned over to Bill Cane's Good Time Track in 1930.

Roosevelt And Medical Students

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt declined today to interfere with a Selective Service order banning occupational draft deferments for pre-medical students after July 1.

"No one is more keenly conscious than I am of the need of maintaining the health of the nation and of making sure that we have an adequate supply of doctors," the President wrote representative A. L. Miller (Rep-Neb.), "but in this war the need of the armed forces for young, vigorous men must also be given thorough consideration."

Miller had written the President asking him to review the order withholding deferments for pre-medical students.

Howard Green Critical Of Manpower Policy

OTTAWA, July 5 (CP)—Howard Green, Progressive Conservative member for Vancouver South constituency in British Columbia, said today in the Commons that the government's manpower policy is "making a mockery of the equality of sacrifice which a mockery in this land."

In his announcement of the loss of the minesweeper, Mr. Macdonald identified it as the one which pumped shells into the water in Halifax harbor when it caught fire. The vessel, which carried a $1,000,000 cargo including tons of explosives, was sunk but the name was not released until today.

Work in salvaging the cargo described as one of the longest and costliest operations ever undertaken here, is expected to be completed this week.

Liberal Agrees In Part

ROSS MACDONALD (L-Brantford) agreed today that the home defence reinforcements should be sent overseas for reinforcement, but he said he disagreed with Progressive Conservative party supporters who said that if the men were not sent overseas they should be returned to civilian life.

Mr. Macdonald said the home defence reinforcements should be able to grab the pick of civilian jobs before the volunteers would return from overseas.

If the advice of the Progressive Conservative party was followed, there would be no reinforcements when needed then "Canadians would hand their shame for years to come."

Mr. Macdonald said Earl Rowe (PC-Dufferin-Simcoe) had talked about the home army but had mentioned nothing definite, however, Mr. Rowe was getting different leads on the question from the various sources.

C. P. McTague, national chairman of the Progressive Conservative party, had urged in a statement that there be no home army be sent overseas, John Bracken, the party's leader, had agreed to a general approval.

Mr. McTague's suggestion, but Hon. R. B. Hanson (PC-York-Sunbury), former House Leader of the party, had said in the Commons "in uncomfortable silence." Mr. Macdonald said he said Mr. Rowe's suggestion was a financial critic, had urged that income taxes in the lower brackets be decreased.

Where Nazis Mass-Murdered Italians

Nazi terrorists, on night of March 24, machine-gunned to death from 300 to 500 Italians in a cave just outside Rome. They then blasted the entrance to the cave. When Allies liberated Italian capital, cave was opened and the dead given burial. Photo at left, above, shows re-opened cave. At right, a woman whose brother was shot places his picture among those of other victims on one of many sheets of flowers outside the cave.

MEMORIAL DAY

F. H. MacArthur
Again we pause to honor
The memory of those
Who are in silence sleeping—
In peaceful calm repose.
Once more in fond remembrance,
Are floral tributes borne;
To grace the earth's resting place
Of those we miss and mourn.

In many lands far distant,
Faded graves, unnumbered, lie;
Where dust has turned again to dust,
Beneath a shell-torn sky.

So now we pause to offer
This brief and honest prayer:
"God rest the Souls of those who die
For freedom—everywhere."

Century Old Sport

Tran shooting began in the United States in 1825.

Photo above is the first released of a recently disclosed Allied "secret weapon," the portable Bailey bridge, which General Montgomery credits with much of the success of the Tunisian, Sicilian and Italian campaigns. Named after its inventor, Donald Coleman Bailey, a Ministry of Supply worker, the bridge consists of sections, each 10 feet long, with 17 parts, the heaviest of which can be handled by six men. As parts are fitted together, they are pushed forward on rollers until gap is spanned. Bridge can cross any gap up to 240 feet without pontoons. Now being used in Normandy, the Bailey bridge was developed after other types failed to support weight of new heavy tanks.
