This season of the year when coughs and colds are so prevalent, it would be advisable to keep a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in the house.

It allays all inflammation and irritation of the breathing organs, and cures coughs and colds of young and old more quickly and effectually than any other remedy.

Mrs. Arthur Molesey, White's Point, Queen's Co., N.B., writes: "In the fall of 1899, I was taken down with a severe attack of La Grippe which left me with a bad cough. I tried several remedies and could obtain no relief and was almost in despair of a cure when a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I took three bottles in all and it made a complete cure."

RADCLIFFE THE HANGMAN.

WINNERS, Nov. 23.—Tuesday's train in the west had an interesting passenger in Radcliffe, the hangman, who was returning to his home in Toronto, after executing Yip Luok, the Chinese murderer, at New Westminster, last Friday. From all accounts Radcliffe did not terminate the career of the unlucky Yip Luok with the same neatness and dispatch that usually characterizes his performance.

MEETING of the Junior Abewites in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday, Nov. 28th, at 8 o'clock.

As intimated the Northumberland crossed early yesterday morning, and the mails reached the city by the regular morning train from the west.

THERE will be a meeting of the Eldon District Sunday School Association at Hazel Brook in the Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon and evening Nov. 29th. It is hoped that a large number of delegates from the schools of Lots 48, 49, 51, 52, 53, 54, will be present. The Field Secretary, Rev. G. P. Raymond, will be at both sessions, and other Sunday School workers will assist in the program.—T. D.

A Pitou despatch of Nov 27th says:—The inquest on the body of Ernest Munn was resumed yesterday and a large number of witnesses were called. Nothing pointing to foul play was elicited. It appears that shortly before the train arrived Munn had been in a fight without receiving any injury. A few minutes before the train arrived he was seen going up the track. The impression appears to be confirmed that his death was entirely accidental.

NOT SO YOUNG AS HE USED TO BE.

When "Bobs" Fell from his horse the other day many newspapers raked up Kipling's poem: "If he bucks or kicks or rears, 'E can sit for twenty years, With a smile round both his ears, Can't yer, Bobs?" The explanation is that Bobs is probably not so young as he used to be.
