WHAT'S FASHIONABLE

Spring Dress Fabrics

The demand this season is not confined to any one particular color or material but is spread over a large and varied list.

Greys, in the light and medium shades, will perhaps, for the early spring trade, predominate, with fawns, the different shades of blue, green and wine color well represented.

In materials, Chiffon Broadcloth, Homespuns, Crepe-de-chine, Wool Taffetas, Prunella, Crispine, and Lustres, plain and fancy are strongly in evidence, while Wool Albatross, Crepolines, Poplins, and an endless variety of other beautiful weaves are shown here in abundance.

Light weight tweeds will undoubtedly be very popular, and we have for your selection a handsome assortment. We also show the popular Cream Grey, which is a combination of cream and black, instead of the usual white and black. Silver Greys and Greys, also Fawns, with invisible checks, overchecks and flakes.

In Chiffon Broadcloth, we show a very fetching shade of wine, also blue, fawn, &c., in the same rich material.

In black we have a fine assortment, including a line of beautiful cork screw Cashmere, embroidered Crepe, &c.

An excellent material for Suitings, a so for little boys' Suits is a Royal-Coating Serge which comes in Navy and Black.

The trimmings this season are rich and varied and include a line of fancy silk braid made with a draw cord along the top, which admits of it being applied in different and fanciful designs.

We invite the ladies to call and examine our beautiful dress fabrics and trimmings—it will be a pleasure for us to show them.
