

PRINCE EDWARD TODAY and WEDNESDAY Shows 3:25 - 7 - 9

From the lips of the woman he married... into the arms of the woman he loved!

ROBERT YOUNG SYLVIA SIDNEY ANN RICHARDS

The Searching Wind

LILLIAN HELLMAN America's Foremost Woman Dramatist

Unusual Occupations

GLEN VALLEY W. I.

The annual meeting of Glen Valley Institute was held on Nov. 20th at the home of M. S. William Morrell.

Meeting opened with the Ode and repeating of Creed in unison. The roll call was responded by seven members paying their dues, which amounted to $1.75. There was no collection.

The minutes of the monthly and the annual meeting were read by the secretary and signed by president.

The report of the year was given receipts $2346; expenditures $7814; leaving a total of $1332.

The Institute bought a lamp for the school. The paint was purchased for the inside walls and woodwork. The members decided to do the painting themselves. Fruit was to be bought for the sick in the hospital.

A sympathy card to be sent a member.

The Institute decided to buy a box sympathy cards to have on hand members paying for them.

Election of officers then took place: President—Mrs. Norman McDonald; Vice President—Mrs. Ella Abbott; Secretary—Mrs. William Morrell; Directors—Mrs. Stirling MacLean and Mrs. Cyrus E. Martin; Auditors—Mrs. Vernon Gillis and Mrs. Willard Abbott; Sick—Mrs. Myrtle Martin and Mrs. Abbott.

Place meeting—Mrs. Stirling MacLean.

Roll call exchange of Christmas gifts.

A vote of thanks was extended to President and Vice President and Secretary for their work during the year.

A dainty lunch was served by hostess assisted by Mrs. Ella Abbott.

CAPITOL TO-DAY and WED. Shows 3:30 - 7 - 8:45

RADIO'S GREATEST SLEUTH TRAPS A SINISTER KILLER!

THE SHADOW

BEHIND THE MASK

RICHMOND REED

News - Sports - Featurette

HAMPSHIRE W. M. S.

The Hampshire U.W.M.S. were entertained at the home of Mrs. Chester and Mrs. John Edwards for their annual meeting on December the third.

The program topic, "A Christmas Candlelight Service" was very appropriate for this meeting. The study period for the evening was on India. It revealed many of the challenges to the Canadian W. M. S. women to help enlighten some of the illiteracy of this vast Hindu Country.

"Then let every heart keep its Christmas with us, Christ's pity for sorrow, Christ's hatred for sin, Christ's care for the weakest, Christ's courage for right, Christ's dread of the darkness, Christ's love of the light.

The mite and birthday boxes were opened at the meeting and it was very interesting for the treasurer to report that the all-allocation for the year had been reached and exceeded. A box for the needy in Labrador had also been packed and shipped.

Not what we give but what we share for sin.

For the gift without the giver is bare; Who gives himself with his gifts feeds three Himself, his hungry neighbor and me.

HUSBAND'S PREROGATIVE

It is illegal for a woman in Owensboro, Ky., to buy a new hat without her husband trying it on first.

DRESSY BLOUSE

A new suit accessory for wear round-the-clock is a dressy blouse made of Irish linen. It has a notched jewel neckline in sharp contrast to the flipper of its decoration—a pair of handpainted hands!

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest. Advertisements of a news nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE

CHILD'S SLEIGHTS, just the thing for the kiddies. Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd.

HOWARD McINNIS' Fitted Footwear now located at 175 Queen Street.

COOK'S for Christmas Photographs. Evenings by appointment.

CHILD'S SLEIGHTS, just the thing for the kiddies. Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd.

CHRISTMAS CARDS—Hundreds of beautiful designs to choose from at The Absolut Gift Court. Open evenings till Christmas.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS—All advertisements to appear in the Guardian must be in office by noon of day previous to insertion to ensure publication.

ISLANDER DEAD—Mr. Joseph I. Stewart, Stanley Bridge, has received a telegram informing him of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Albert H. Morris of Vancouver. The late Mr. Morris was formerly of Granville P. E. I.

FUNERAL MONDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. John Houston was held from the home of her son, Frank Houston, Mayfield, on Monday afternoon, Dec. 9th. Services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. E. F. Coffin. The pallbearers were as follows: Davis Moffat, Ernest Houston, Alphonse Doin, Leagh Warren, Henry Houston and Warfield Orr. Interment was in New Glasgow cemetery.

FUNERAL SUNDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Malcolm Kieley of Covehead was held from her late residence on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 8th. Services were conducted by Mr. Murdo MacLeod. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Mayus Ford, Robert Dods, Everett Ford, George MacKinnon, Hilbert Hughes and Joseph Robinson. Interment was in Covehead Cemetery.

GYRO MEETING—The regular weekly meeting of the Gyro Club was held last evening with an exceptionally large attendance. A very interesting and informative address on the life of Stephen Foster was delivered by Rev. T. H. Busell Somers of this city. Frank Curtis was chairman of the meeting.

PRE-CHRISTMAS ACTIVITY—With the approach of Christmas the City Post Office is beginning to show signs of increased activity. Recently five men were added to the staff of the mail clerks on the trains. Two were added to the Charlottetown-Tignish service; two others to the Charlottetown-Sackville route; and one to the staff of the Charlottetown-Souris train. Three temporary assistants were engaged yesterday for the City Post Office and it is expected that other help will be employed according as the volume of mail increases.

FUNERAL AT TARANTUM—The funeral of Hugh H. Cumiskey was held from his late residence Tarantum, on Saturday morning to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus where Rev. Father High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Callaghan, parish priest, who also officiated at the grave. The pall bearers, all nephews of the deceased, were: Patrick Cumiskey, Frederick Cumiskey, James Cumiskey, Augustus Lafferty, Peter Trainor and Hugh Hayes. The mourners were: Mrs. H. Cumiskey, Mrs. Dan McEichern, Rose Cumiskey, Daniel McEichern, Daniel McEichern, Jr., Mary McEichern, Belle McEichern, Daniel Larzer and Thomas Patterson.

HILLSBORO CHAPTER I.O.O.F.—The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Chapter I. O. O. F. was held Monday evening Dec. 2nd at the home of Mrs. Walthen Gaudet, Spring Park Road. The regent, Mrs. Arthur Roper presided. The meeting opened with the prayer followed by the minutes of the last meeting. The Treasurer's report was read and a report on the proceeds of the tea and sale of knitted garments at the home of Mrs. Elmer MacDonald proved to be most satisfactory. A letter was read by the Treasurer from the National Treasurer, thanking the Chapter for its splendid efforts and donations toward the 2nd War Memorial. It was decided to send $5. to each of the following churches to be used for needy families at Christmas: Trinity United, St. James, St. Paul's, St. Peter's, St. Dunstan's, Basilica, Holy Redeemer, Zion, Baptist, Central Christian and the Salvation Army. Six applications for membership were received and in balloting were duly elected to the Hillsboro Chapter. Following are the new members: Mrs. Marjorie Stewart, Mrs. Jack Cameron, Mrs. Elmer MacDonald, Mrs. Hilbert Saunders, Mrs. Sydney Jeffries, Mrs. Barry Sargent. IODE calendars were distributed among the members at the conclusion of the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. George Ives.

HINTS ON ETIQUETTE

A hotel lobby is a public place, so a man need not remove his hat when he enters and walks through it. If he were talking to a woman in the lobby, naturally he would remove his hat.

Plan Celebration Of Citizenship Week

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Dec. 9.—New Year's Day, 1947, will have historic significance as the day on which Canadians assume their new, full-fledged citizenship, and civic bodies across the country are laying plans for ceremonial celebrations of Citizenship Week, Jan. 5 to 11.

Sponsored by the Citizenship Branch of the State Department, national ceremonies will be held in Ottawa Jan. 3 in the white stone Supreme Court of Canada building, with Hon. Thibaudeau Rinfret, chief justice, presiding and representatives from the nine provinces attending to receive their Canadian citizenship certificates. The proceeding will be broadcast over a CBC national network.

In the week following, all provincial capitals and other cities where there is a wider representation of various racial groups will conduct similar celebrations. Ceremonies are planned by Charlottetown, Halifax, Fredericton, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Welland, St. Catharines, Windsor, Sudbury, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Regina, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria.

The ceremonies are expected to follow fairly closely a pattern suggested by the citizenship branch. This program begins with an assembly of citizens, with a parade of the colors and the singing of O Canada, and possibly pageants or musical programs designed to illustrate the unity in diversity of Canadian life.

Part two would be presentation in court of citizenship certificates to new Canadians, and part three a civic reception giving the new citizens opportunity to meet representatives of federal, provincial and civic governments and representatives of school and community organizations. Special church services also will mark the week.

The new Citizenship Act, passed at the last session of parliament and proclaimed on Dominion Day, July 1, creates a distinctive Canadian citizenship.

EASTERN GUARDIAN

BRUDNELL PIONEERS.—To those interested a duplicate of the 1945 Centennial Publication of the Brudnell Pioneers has been printed. Booklets may be obtained from E. E. McLaren, Georgetown. $1.00 per copy.

Georgetown And Vicinity

Mr. Chester Walker was in Charlottetown on Friday on business for C.H. Llewellyn & Sons.

Fox and mink ranchers in this vicinity have just about completed their pelting operations. Some ranchers perform the pelting themselves, while a number employ the services of our local trapper and peltier, Mr. Elmer "Blim" Hatch.

Mrs. J. Waldron Lavers was a visitor to Charlottetown on Friday.

The many friends of Mrs. Helen Condon, popular Georgetown business woman, are sorry to hear that she is still confined to bed through illness, and all join in wishing her a complete recovery before the festive season.

Mr. and Mrs. B.H. Stewart recently spent a few days in Charlottetown.

Alice Assenault was a visitor to Charlottetown for several days during last week.

Georgetownians visiting Charlottetown on Friday included Mrs. G.R. Hartman, Mr. Albert Skinner, Mr. Edward Easton, Howard Llewellyn and James Llewellyn motored to Mount Stewart on Friday by truck on business.

Charles Currie, veteran of the R.C.A.F., who is employed by the Patriot Publishing Company of Charlottetown, spent the weekend in Charlottetown.

Miss Connie Scully, school teacher at Seal River, visited her home in Georgetown over the weekend.

Georgetownians visiting Charlottetown on Saturday included—Mrs. Gerald Morrison, Mrs. P.J. Henry, Mrs. Laura Lavers, Mrs. Joseph Sampson Miss Kay Publicover, Mr. Henry Martell, Mr. John C. Gotell and Mr. Watson Henry.

Mr. Henry Hemphill of Burnt Point returned to his home a few days ago from Boston, Mass., where he was called several weeks ago, due to the illness of his brother, Mr. Herbert Hemphill.

Mrs. Frank Lavender is visiting the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Murphy of St. Mary's Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lavender were recent guests of Mrs. Lavender's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarron of St. Mary's Road.

Mr. Spurgeon Walker C. N. R. sectionman at Mount Stewart, spent the weekend at his home in Georgetown.

At some date during the winter the returned men of Georgetown who have not as yet received their certificates and letters of appreciation from the Town of Georgetown, will be presented with them and this list is at present being completed and plans are being laid for the occasion.

ORWELL COVE SCHOOL

Report for the month of November:

Grade X-1. Marie Rooney; Patrick McKinnon; 3. Pauline Grant.

Grade IX-1. Michael McKenna; Grade VII-1. Kenneth MacLeod; 2. Annie Grant; 3. Joseph Rooney.

Grade VI-1. Eileen Rooney. Grade V-1. Mildred MacLeod. Grade IV-1. Clayton Cook; Georgina McKenna.

Grade III-1. Donald Nicholson; 2. Glenn Nicholson.

Grade II-1. Earl McKenna; George Smith; 2. Annette Morrison; Grade I (Sr.)-1. Rita Grant; 2. Raymond Smith.

Grade I (Jr.)-1. Winston MacLeod.

Perfect attendance: Mildred MacLeod, Clayton Cook, Donald Nicholson, Glenn Nicholson, George Smith.

Odd Accidents During This Year

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—(AP)—It used to be news when a man bit a dog. But in 1946, a dog shot a woman, a kangaroo shot a man, a rabbit wounded a sportsman and a deer startled a hunter.

And a salmon wrecked an automobile with a sneeze.

The National Safety Council, in its annual report on unusual accidents:

Mrs. Ruth Patterson was enjoying a bath in her Baltimore home when her police pup, Toby, spied a gun on the washstand. It put its paw to the trigger. Mrs. Patterson was shot in the hand.

Arthur Crosbie, an Australian hunter, shot a kangaroo through the hind legs. He reloaded his rifle and put the butt on the animal's neck to pin it down. The kangaroo twined a forepaw around the trigger and shot Crosbie through the arm.

Near Louisville, Ky., a rabbit interrupted to the activities of William Humphrey, 18-year-old hunter. It reached out from his game bag, pulled the trigger of his gun and shot him in the foot.

A buck deer staged a rescue act to save another buck deer from Del Halstead, hunting near Buckhorn Station, Calif. Halstead had just trained his sights on a bounded when the second one bounded out from a thicket behind him, struck him in the back and sent him sprawling.

The celebrated salmon was with the approach of Christmas caught by James Mackenzie of La Grande, Ore. who tossed it into the rear seat of his automobile and started for home. The salmon, Mackenzie said, gave out a lousy sneeze when he was in the car.

A buck deer staged a rescue act to save another buck deer from Del Halstead, hunting near Buckhorn Station, Calif. Halstead had just trained his sights on a bounded when the second one bounded out from a thicket behind him, struck him in the back and sent him sprawling.

Three top investigators agreed that the blaze early Saturday started in the third-floor hallway of the 33-year-old, 15-story, masonry and steel building, Fire Chief C.G. Styrum and Fire Marshal Harry Phillips said they had traced the starting point to a charred folding bed and mattress in the hallway.

Engineer A. C. Hutson of the National Board of Fire Underwriters concurred and further suggested that open stairwells of the Wincoff and the construction of doors to guest rooms contributed to the heavy toll in life.

Mary Harper, city building inspector, asserted, however, that his office had done everything possible under existing codes and laws to make the hotel safe.

WEAR SAFETY GOGGIES

Workers exposed to danger of flying particles and other hazards are urged by the Department of National Health and Welfare to wear safety goggles. The Department quotes statistics to show that 80 per cent of eye accidents in factories were due to flying particles. Figures also show that 98 per cent of all industrial eye accidents were preventable.

has English blood (he is Princess Elizabeth's third cousin) and frequently is a week-end guest at royal residences.

Princess Philip, sixth in line for the Greek throne, will forfeit his right to succeed his second cousin George II of the Hellenes by becoming a British subject.

Newspaper writers stressed that Prince Philip, who served in the Royal Navy during the war, has spent most of his life in England.

Replace Baby's Poisoned Blood

BOSTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Nine-day-old Diane Seavey, today was reported well on the road to a healthy normal life after doctors washed out all the baby's poisoned blood and pumped in special RH negative blood—all within a few hours.

The new method of transfusion in treatment of a usually fatal blood condition—commonly known as hemolytic anemia—was disclosed at Children's Hospital.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

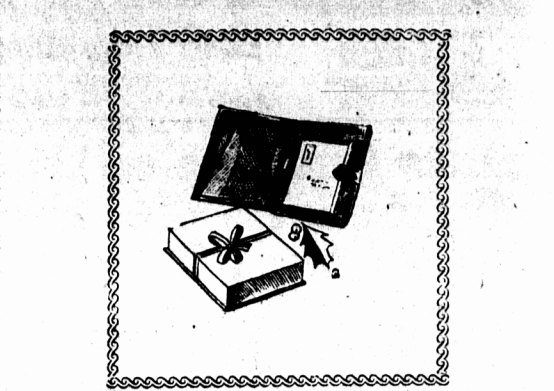

Diane, fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Seavey of Wakefield, was born at Wakefield Hospital and taken to Boston for treatment when her red blood count was less than one-half of normal.

Doctors explained erythroblastosis developed as the 12-year-old Mrs. Seavey's blood was RH negative and the baby's RH positive. This meant that during pregnancy, doctors said, the mother's blood was poisoning her baby's blood.

When only a few hours to live at her birth, Diane was reported by doctors as cured.

She was the 12th baby on which the new method of transfusion was tried. All recovered, whereas formerly a 40-per cent fatality rate was expected in babies suffering from erythroblastosis.

Smart to Give... Delightful to Get!

A Gift That Always Pleases!

Fine Stationery is such a nice gift to receive—so complementary to his or her fine tastes. Choose from a large assortment at JAMIESON'S DRUG STORE. Handsome stationery and envelopes in lovely Gift Boxes. Some with one drawer, others two drawers, children's stationery, correspondence cards and envelopes.

THE PRICES RANGE FROM 25c to $4.00

Each one very acceptable.

CALL AND LOOK THEM OVER

Jamieson's Drug Store

"THE BEST IN TOILET GOODS"

ANYTHING from a Set of Plugs to a "Major Operation"

W. R. JENKINS

208-212 Great George Street

ATTENTION! FOX RANCHERS

Our receiving station at F. R. McLaine's is now open for the season. We are receiving furs for shipment to the leading markets.

Many years of successful selling and marketing for Ranchers in the Maritimes is your assurance of good returns.

We now have orders for all kinds of furs so this should be a good year to ship to the

MARITIME FUR POOL LTD.

F. R. McLaine

Local Representative

MINK and MUSKRAT Skins are high.

BRING THEM IN AT ONCE.

Coughs And Colds Require Attention

Never take chances on a cough or cold developing into something more serious.

The immediate use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup relieves spasms of coughing, helps to cut phlegm and mucus, open the air passages and soothe the irritation.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains no harmful ingredients nor habit-forming drugs. It has been a popular household remedy for nearly 50 years.

Get a supply today. On sale at drug counters everywhere. Price 85c a bottle, or the large family size, 60c.

The F. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Announcement

CENTRAL GROCERY

ON MT. EDWARD ROAD

is now open for business. We solicit a share of your patronage.

D. McEACHERN, Proprietor

HIDES WANTED

We will be paying until further notice the following prices:

FRESH or FROZEN HIDES 11c per lb.

HORSE HIDES $5.00 each