TRYON
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dixon of Augustine Cove have recently moved to North Tryon Corner, where they have purchased a pretty little house and lot. The people of North Tryon are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Dixon to their midst. Mr. Dixon is employed with Mr. Charles Ives in the electric light plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Howatt and family of West Tryon moved to Canoe Cove last week and will remain there during the lobster fishing season.

We regret that Mrs. Christie Lord of Tryon, has been confined to her bed in Charlottetown, where she went a week ago to visit her sister, Mrs. George Hennessy. It is hoped that she will soon be about again.

There are many cases of "flu" in Tryon and vicinities, some of them being quite severe, it is thought that the changeable weather is the cause of so much sickness.

The Crapaud Young People's Group was royally entertained by the "Utahian Society" of Tryon on Friday Evening, May 13th. A short meeting was held, Archy Thompson leading in the discussion taking as his topic "Jack Miner", which was of interest to one and all. Games and contests were then put on by the recreation committee and were thoroughly enjoyed by both young and old. But like all good things the evening came to a close too quickly and everyone was a little sorry when "going home" time came. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of play, after which everyone departed for their respective homes after saying "Good Bye till we meet again."

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howatt of Carleton, accompanied by Mr. Colvin Howatt of Tryon motored to Canoe Cove on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Jeffreys of Tryon spent the week-end at his home in Cape Traverse.

Mr. Lorne Mabey of Tryon, one of Tryon's energetic and popular young men has purchased the property of Mr. Artemus Leard, on the Crapaud road. Mr. Mabey has already commenced putting in his crop and everyone wishes him the best of luck in his new undertaking.

Mr. William Dean, who has spent the past winter in Tryon, left on Thursday of last week for Charlottetown where he will remain for the summer.

Everyone is busily engaged in farming in Tryon now, many farmers having most of their grain planted. There has been no potatoes planted as yet, but if the fine weather continues planting will be general in the course of a couple of weeks.—D.

New Glasgow
 The annual meeting of the "Wide Awake" group met with Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Quigley on May 11th, with the President presiding. IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HARRISON CARVELL
 Many friends will learn with sorrow of the death on Monday, May 23rd, of Alice Isabel Hows, widow of the late Harrison Carvell, after an illness of only three days. On May 21st, her eightieth birthday, Mrs. Carvell was seized with heart failure and all that could be done for her was of no avail. On Sunday she received the Blessed Sacrament at the hands of Rev. Canon Malone, and next day passed away. One who had assisted through much trouble and suffering she bore her trials bravely, and her lovely disposition endeared her to all who knew her. He is survived by her only daughter, Mrs. John McDougall, of Rocky Point, and one sister, Annie, in England.

The funeral was held from St. Peter's Cathedral on Wednesday morning to St. Peter's Cemetery, services being conducted by Rev. Canon Malone. The floral tributes were lovely.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John S. Morris, Frank Bell, Russell Bell, T. Edgar MacNutt, Hugh Simpson and W. G. Hogg. (Patriot's Please Copy)

MRS. JOSEPH BARNES
 There passed from this life into the Great Beyond at Port Arthur, Ontario, on May 16th, Mrs. Joseph Barnes in her 58th year.

Mrs. Barnes was a native of Freetown, being a daughter of the late John Cairns, and will be fondly remembered by many old friends of that community.

She leaves to mourn besides her loving husband and three step daughters, six sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Archie Stavers, and Mrs. John McCaull, North Bedeque; Mrs. (Dr.) Campbell, Alberton; Mrs. Benjamin Jardine, Wilton; Mrs. James Marshall, Port William, who was a faithful attendant during her last illness; Mrs. Percy Marchbank, New Annan; William and Elton on the old one in Freetown.

Mrs. Barnes truly possessed a Christian character. Although confined to her bed for nearly three years, she was never heard to murmur or complain and was a great inspiration and help to all with whom she came in contact. Her last visit to her old home was six years ago.

Interment took place at Port Arthur on May 19th.

MRS. ANNIE ADAMS
 There passed peacefully away to her eternal reward on Wednesday, May 4, Mrs. Annie Adams, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Brooks, O'Leary, at the advanced age of 88 years and 4 months. She was a daughter of the late John and Catherine Mountain, was born in Irishtown in 1843, and was baptised by the Rev. John Geddie in Geddie Memorial Church in infancy. She attended that church until she was married and moved to Sea View, where she resided for thirty-four years. She had the possession of all her faculties, except her hearing, until the last, she could read, write and sew without the aid of glasses. She leaves to mourn 5 children, 3 daughters, 2 sons, Mrs. John Barwise, Springfield West; Mrs. Jas. Moreshad, Springfield West; Mrs. W. E. Brooks, O'Leary; Russel of Sea View; Leigh of Strongfield, Sask.; also four brothers, William, of Amherst, N. S.; John, of Lancaster, N. H.; Michael, of Kensington, and Alva of Alma, Lot 3, besides a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The deceased picked out her text and hymns, "23 Psalm, 6th verse," "Rock of Ages," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "There's a land that is fairer than day."

A short service was held at the house, the remains were then conveyed to the Bethel United Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. A. F. Baker, assisted by Rev. John Sterling.

Mrs. Melvin Ellis, organist of the Bethel Church, sang a beautiful solo. The remains were laid to rest beside her husband, who predeceased her 28 years ago. To the bereaved, sincere sympathy is extended.

Bedeque
 Mr. Dan Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, of Clermont, met with a rather unfortunate accident, recently while operating a stamping machine. The young lad had reached to trip the machine when the horse suddenly started, and the boy's limb was caught in the machine, injuring it quite severely. However, it is pleasing to report that no serious injuries were received and he is resting as comfortably as can be expected.

The Young Peoples Society, of the Centerville Bedeque United Church, held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday evening, the President, Mr. Wilbur Wright, occupied the chair. Scripture passages, read by Mr. Angus Bernard. Prayer was offered by Mr. Henry Moyle. A very interesting feature of the programme was a debate, "Resolved that the Pulpit has done more for humanity than has the Press." This subject being very interesting it bringing up some very important facts. The speakers for the affirmative side were: leader, Mr. Arnold Henderson, assistant speakers, Miss Sue Affleck, Miss Winnifred Wright and Mr. Gilbert Bell, (one of the speakers unable to be present). The negative side was upheld with Leader: Miss Selma Myers, assistant speakers, Miss Marjorie MacCallum, Miss Etta Jewell, Mr. Fred Lowther and Mr. Wilbur Wright. Miss Helen Archibald, Vice-President, announced the debate. The judges were, Mrs. Thomas Moyle, Mrs. Ralph Calbeck and Mr. Henry Moyle. The speakers are heartily congratulated for their well prepared speeches and the splendid way in which they gave them. The judges gave their verdict in favor of the Affirmative side. Miss Selma Myers, leader of the negative, extended congratulations, on behalf of her co-workers, to the winners for their great success in winning the debate. Congratulatory remarks were made by Mr. Henry Moyle. Mr. Arnold Henderson, also made a few remarks in reference to the debate, speakers, the singing of hymns and the Missagh Benediction. A number of visitors, attended this meeting.—B.

Congratulations are heartily extended to Mr. and Mrs. Edson Wright of Middleton on the arrival of a bonnie wee lassie (Doris Louise) on Saturday, April 30th.

Miss Ella Moase, nurse at Falcouwood, Charlottetown, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Moase of New Annan.

The sad news has been received in Bedeque of the passing of Mrs. Edward Robinson, at her home in Port Elgin, N. B., on Friday. The late Mrs. Robinson was the daughter of the late Ewen and Mrs. Clark of Bedeque and had resided here in the earlier part of her life. Miss Helen Clark, of Summerside, who is a half-sister of the deceased, was in attendance at the funeral on Sunday. There are left to mourn one sister, Mrs. Purdy, of Charlottetown, and one brother, Harry Clark, of Augustine Cove, and Misses Helen and Lulu Clark of Summerside, who are half-sisters, and a number of relatives.

The Young Peoples Society of the Centerville Bedeque United Church, entertained the Young Peoples Society of Cape Traverse United Church in the Hall on Wednesday evening, May 18th. Approximately one hundred members from the two Societies assembled together, and the meeting opened with singing of hymns. Scripture passages were read by Mr. Gilbert Bell, followed by a devotional address by Mr. Arnold Henderson. Prayer was offered by Mr. Horace Wright, Jr. An address of welcome was given to the visiting society by the president, Wilbur Wright. A very interesting talk on "Athletics" was given by Mr. Hector

Nerves A Complete Wreck
Sat Up Half The Night
 Mrs. John Ross, Bark Lake, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled so much with my nerves I was a complete wreck. I could not do my work, and would have to sit up half the night on account of not being able to sleep. One day a friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I used one box and got relief, and by the time I had taken six boxes I was as well as ever."

entertainment committee for the following two meetings and Sterling Campbell to teach the class for the next meeting. The devotional period was closed by singing "The Great Physician," followed by dismissal by Rev. Mr. Quigley. The remainder of the evening was spent in contests, games, and singing. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the refreshment committee, after which a vote of thanks was tendered to the host and hostesses for the use of their home for their meetings for the past three months.

BALDWIN'S ROAD
 The April-May, meeting of the Baldwins Rd. W. I. was held on May 3 in the school room. Meeting opened by reading of the creed. Roll call was responded to by nine members and two visitors were present. A discussion of general business followed and it was decided to have an entertainment to increase the funds later on. A vote of thanks was tendered the members who cleaned the school. Two copies of the Institute News was passed to the members and some correspondence read. Mrs. Bernard McQuaid invited them to her home for next meeting. Roll call to be answered with, where I would like to travel. After the meeting adjourned a delicious lunch was served by the members and a social hour spent.
