Guy Bros., Minstrels Is Company of White Performers

A rumor is apparently being circulated that "The Guy Brothers Minstrels (who play in the Prince Edward Theatre Thursday and Friday of this week) is a company of colored performers."

Gallagher this morning. "I was one of the best shows she had ever attended," and this young lady attends all performances given at the Prince Edward as well as Boston and other cities during her holidays.

Local theatre goers will have an opportunity to see for themselves before Thursday night's performance as the Guy Brothers Minstrels will parade the principal streets Thursday noon. These parades are one of the features of the minstrel organizations.

NOT ALWAYS TO BE CONSIDERED

"Is it ever the right thing for a man to pay attention to a married woman?"

EXPERT KNOWLEDGE

"I bet you don't know what a featherweight fighter is, sir?" "Of course, I do. A featherweight fighter is a game rooster."

REMEMBER THIS

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the legislature in Illinois, and was badly swamped. He next entered business, failed, and spent seventeen years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful young woman to whom he became engaged—then she died. Entering politics again, he ran for Congress, and again was badly defeated.

He then tried to get an appointment to the United States Land Office, but failed. He became a candidate for the United States Senate, and was badly defeated.

In 1856 he became a candidate for the Vice-Presidency and was once more defeated.

In 1858 he was defeated by Douglas. One failure after another—bad failures—great setbacks. In the face of all this he eventually became one of the greatest men of America, whose memory is honored and loved throughout the world.

MANY PEOPLE INVITE APPENDICITIS ATTACK

Appendicitis is often due to infection from old, retained waste matter. Even though bowels move daily, poisons may accumulate in the system for months. The intestinal antiseptic, Adler-Lika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels, removing ALL food, decaying matter which might start infection. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or chronic constipation. Adler-Lika removes matter which you never thought was in your system. ONE single dose will surprise you. Hughes Drug Co. Ltd. (In Georgetown by S. C. Knight, druggist.)

MYSELF

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know. I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye. I didn't want to stand, with the setting sun. And hate myself for the things I've done.

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf. A lot of secrets about myself. And fool myself, as I come and go. Into thinking that nobody else will know. The kind of a man I really am. I don't want to dress up myself in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect. I want to deserve all men's respect. But here in the struggle for fame and pelf. I want to be able to like myself. I don't want to look at myself and know. That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hate myself from me. I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know; I never can fool myself, and so, Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience self.

"JOG ON, JEHOSSOPHAT."

Road gets rougher every mile; (Cluck) Jog on, Jehosophat, an' show some style.

Mule's gone lame, an' the hens won't lay; Corn's way down, an' wheat don't pay;

Hogs no better, steers too cheap; Cow's quit milkin', meat won't keep;

Oats all heated, spuds all froze; Fruit crop's busted, wind still blows;

Sheep seem puny, an' I'll be darned; Rye field's flooded an' the hay stack's burned!

Looks some gloomy, I'll admit—(Cluck!) Jog on, Jehosophat, we ain't down yet.

Goals in high an' crop's in low; Rich'n's doubled, get no show; Money's tighter, morals loose; Bound to get us—what's the use; Sun's not shinin' as it should; Moon ain't lightin' like it could; Air seems heavy; water punk; Tests yer mettle; shows yer spunk; No tree toppin' to be bate—(Cluck!) Jog on, Jehosophat, it's gettin' late.

Wheels all wobble; axle's bent; Dashboard's broken; top all rent. One shaft splintered; tother sag; Seat's all busted; end-gate drags; May be hangin' together—b'lieve it or not!

Careful drivin' make it still; Road's some better, not so rough; TROT! Gosh dig ye! That's the stuff.

Old trap's movin' right good speed—(Cluck!) Jog on, Jehosophat, you're some old steed.

LOCATION OF "BLEAK HOUSE"

The city librarian of St. Alban, England, writes to the London Times as follows, and thereby seems to settle a literary controversy: "There is no mystery," he says, "about the town in, near, which Bleak house is situated. Why there has ever been any controversy is difficult to un-

Give your Confidence to the Mattress Maker who Deserves it

YOU buy your new mattresses with the fullest confidence that they are well-built—sanitary, all the way through.

You take your dealer's word for it. He relies on the manufacturer.

Perhaps your mattresses measure up to every expectation. Perhaps not!

With every mattress you buy you have to take this chance on the integrity of the maker.

There are no Dominion-wide pure bedding laws.

For every responsible manufacturer there are some who do not hesitate to slip in material "renovated" from old, dirty mattresses or even mattresses discarded by hospitals and homes where there has been contagious disease.

This condition worries your dealer as much as it does you. For your protection and his own he is concentrating on Simmons Mattresses.

Simmons Limited makes this Unqualified Statement to every merchant who sells Simmons Mattresses

SIMMONS BEDS Built for Sleep

Money Lost or Destroyed. The only question is the identity of the house. It is quite probable there never was a building agreeing structurally with the one described by Dickens; but there is a house still in existence which in the middle of the last century corresponded geographically. It is situated at the end of Catherine street, and from 1817 to about 1893 was called "The Daltons" or "Dalton house," but from the latter date has been known as "Bleak house." This house when Dickens wrote his book was separated from the town by fields, but the land has now been built upon. Even now the abbey tower can be seen from the top windows. —Boston Transcript.

Getting Tired. "She said that the ebb and flow reminded her of love. 'When the tide goes out—' She left her sentence unfinished. I reminded her that some seas are tideless. She thanked me with a look. I was glad to have said it, though I knew that the ebb had already begun."—"The Shadow of Fear," by Nina Toye (Heinemann).
