Georgetown And Vicinity

Among the students returning to Acadia University from Montague are Miss Shirlee Dunning, Miss Hazel Yeo, Mr. Malcolm Johnston, Mr. Jack MacIntyre and Mr. Harold Stewart. Having spent their Christmas holidays at their respective homes they are returning to take up the work of the second semester.

Miss Ann Matheson, Bellevue and Miss Mary Gill, Iona, who have been enjoying the Christmas holidays at their homes, have returned to Montague for the opening of the High School where Miss Matheson is principal and Miss Gill is the teacher of the primary department.

Mr. Dan Power, staff of Vere Beck & Son, who has been absent for some time in the Prince County Hospital, has returned to his home in Montague completely recovered from his recent illness, and expects to resume his work shortly.

Miss Catherine MacLean, Mr. William MacIntyre, and Mr. Richard Buchanan, students attending Prince of Wales College, are returning to take up their studies for the second semester after having spent their holidays in Montague.

Mr. William Burden, who has been spending his Christmas vacation in Montague with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Burden, has returned to Emerson, Manitoba, where he is employed in the Bank of Nova Scotia. Mr. Burden formerly worked in the Montague branch before joining the armed services. After his discharge, he worked in St. John's for a short time prior to his transfer to Emerson.

Friday night witnessed the first hockey practice for the Montague hockey team. Although there has been a heavy snow fall, there has not been sufficient frost to make ice during the past few weeks. Mr. Lorne Wisginton, manager of the rink, and Mr. Dave Vandorsten, ice maker, are to be commended in their efforts to have so much ice although the weather has been unfavorable. With cold weather, fans will be on edge for the first game of the King's County League, which should give evidence of a good brand of hockey this season. Every team is strong, and it is quite possible that one or more teams will be entered into the intermediate playdowns. Judging from the strength of the teams, they should give a good account of themselves in the intermediate league.

Owing to the recent heavy snow fall a gang of snow shovelers are working hard on clearing the railroad track between Montague and Georgetown. Royalty. The snow in the cuttings is deep, and piled high on either side by the snow plow, necessitating laborious work in clearing them out. The condition of the tracks has delayed the arrival of the train considerably, but it is hoped that within a short time it will resume its regular schedule. Bus transportation has been re-opened to Charlottetown, although the road way is still somewhat narrow with snow piled higher than the bus on either side in certain localities. Although traffic in Montague is now almost back to normal, there is still considerable snow along the sides of the main street which encourages motorists to proceed with caution. The plows have been doing excellent work in clearing the streets and other roads, and within a few days traffic should be back to normal.

This year the Montague Curling Club instituted a new innovation by forming a junior league to be composed of one and two-year curlers. In order to create interest and competition, Mr. Walter M. Bears donated a lovely trophy for the winning team, but to be played for each year, while each individual of the winning team is to receive an individual cup to place among his own collection. Needless to say, this is a step forward in the right direction, for it gives junior curlers not only an opportunity of acquiring more practice, but also teaches them the fundamentals of the game, and above all team co-operation. This method will also quite likely provide a stronger team in the playoffs of the Regal Trophy, which is at present held by Alberton, winning it from Montague last year.

The junior teams have been drawn up, and are composed as follows: Bryer Llewellyn M. Beaton G. Greene H. Jamieson R. Johnston J. Larkin R. Beck C. J. Boudreau -Skip

G. Peardon W. Ladner George M. MacGregor H. Fraser E. Carver Dr. C. S. Inman E. Fraser -Skip

E. G. MacKinnon J. Shaw George S. MacGregor M. G. Patterson D. Nicholson N. Hooley D. Coffin

Sparo - J. A. MacDonald, P. Lucas, E. MacIntyre, W. MacPherson, D. MacGowan. his moustache, already 3 1/2 inches long, grew until he, his wife, three children and mother-in-law find a house.

A good turn out of fans enjoyed a hard fought and well played hockey game on Saturday night between Queen Square School of Charlottetown and Georgetown High School. The game ended in a victory for the local team by a 7-5 score - Geo.

Both the Georgetown-Lower Montague and the Newport-Georgetown ferries are still in operation and as things look at present they will be for some time. In Memoriam

MRS. ARTHUR G. MOORE

Early on the morning of Sunday, November 30th, 1947, after entering into her home in Pownal, P.E.I., Mary, beloved wife of Arthur G. Moore. Although she had been in poor health for several months and was at times ill, her passing was unexpected and came as a distinct shock which saddened the whole community.

Mrs. Moore was born at Milltown Cross, P. E. I., fifty years ago, the daughter of the late John J. and Mrs. Bruce. Prior to her marriage she taught school in Pownal for two years. She was an active member of the United Church of Canada in Pownal. At the time of her death she was president of the Pownal Auxiliary Women's Missionary Society, which office she had filled for three years. She was a valued member of the choir, assistant organist, and taught in the Sunday School. In addition she was for many years secretary of the Alexandra branch of the B.I.S. Society, and was also a member of the Pownal Women's Institute, in which organization she had filled many offices. She was actively interested in Temperance work and everything that was in the best interests of the Church and community. To all she was a friend and her passing leaves a gap that will not readily be filled. Yet her many interests did not interfere with her building a fine Christian home. For this she needs no greater memorial than her family of God-fearing sons, all of them professed followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. To her many friends she was always a gracious, kindly hostess. A welcome always awaited those who went to her home. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 2nd, conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. R. MacVicar, assisted in the home by Rev. S. B. Stackhouse of the Baptist and Christian Churches, and in the Church by Mr. Stackhouse and Rev. M. D. Macleod of Dundas. The pastor's message was based on Revelation, Chapter 14, verse 13: Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." He touched upon her life of faith and good works and ended by preaching the Gospel of God's redeeming love which alone would be pleasing to her whose life was spent in preaching the Gospel in many ways.

The hymns sung were: "The Lord My Shepherd, I'll Not Want", "Safe In The Arms of Jesus", and "Peace Perfect Peace". At the graveside the pastor was assisted by Mr. Stackhouse and Rev. T. A. Duke of Calabona. The large congregation of friends from far and near that more than filled the Church, and the many floral tributes, testified to the esteem and affection in which she was held. Besides her husband, there are left to mourn, three sons, Gordon, engineering student at McGill University; Bruce at home and Bailing in the entrance class in Pownal school; three sisters, Christine, Mrs. Peter MacDonald, Milltown Cross; Belle, teaching school in Montpelier, and Anne, Mrs. Angus MacDonald, Brantree, Mass.; and two brothers, Neil at Milltown Cross, John D. at High Bank, P. E. I.

Servant of God, well done, Rest from thy loved employ. The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's joy. The pains of death are past, Labor and sorrow cease; And life's long warfare closed at Her soul is found in peace. Soldier of Christ! well done; Praise be thy new employ; And while Eternal ages run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy.
