CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Mrs Dr. McLeod, city, has left on return to Montreal where she resides.

Miss Katie Carragher, City, has returned home after a pleasant visit to Bonshaw and Kelly's Cross.

All should remember that tonight will be the only opportunity to hear the matchless orator William Jennings Bryan.

Revs. Messrs. Harrison and Styles will speak at the missionary meeting in Cornwall on Thursday evening under the auspices of the W. M. S.

Mrs. Finnigan who was called here by the death of her mother the late Mrs. John McQuillan left on return to Brooklyn N. Y. yesterday where she now resides.

Mrs Edward I. Herbert who has been visiting her parents John and Mrs Collings, Great George Street, has left on return to her home in Augusta, Me.

The article in yesterday's issue regarding speculation as to Germany's reply to the French Moroccan proposals was continued from page one to five and not from five as appeared.

Mrs. McAulay, Souris, who has been undergoing treatment in the City Hospital, was yesterday removed to the station in the ambulance and left on the afternoon train en route to her home.

E. H. Beer will offer for sale on Sept. 18th a quartered oak sideboard and antlers besides the many other articles referred to in the ad. yesterday. These articles were referred to incorrectly.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were—H. W. Longworth to Windsor, N. S.; Frank Hogan to Moncton; Alfred Tomlins to Woodstock, Ont.; A. J. McAdam to Pictou; Peter McGrath, to Sydney, C. B.

Those registered at the Victoria Hotel in this City yesterday were: J. J. Meehan, Worcester; C. C. Crowell, Boston; J. T. Douglas, New London, Conn.; S. C. Clark, Mt. Stewart; A. McKay, City; Mrs. W. A. Bock, Boston.

Many citizens will regret to learn that Edward Needham, long resident of Euston Street, has gone away to live in St. John. Before his departure a few days ago, he was presented with an address accompanied by an up-to-date travelling valise.

The following were registered at the Queen Hotel in this City yesterday: Geo. F. McQueen, Orwell; Miss T. McIntyre, Mrs. Edmond Walsh, Montague; J. Gordon McKay, Bradalbane; John Taper, Brockton; J. Gaudette, Quebec; D. F. Darrach, Boston.

James Walter Young and Miss Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Stephen Moore, Charlottetown, were united in marriage at 7.45 o'clock yesterday morning at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church. The groom was supported by Joseph Gaudet and the bride was attended by her sister Miss Jennie Moore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Haney, B. A. Mr. and Mrs. Young left by the Northumberland on a short honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia towns.

On Monday, Sept. 4th, at 8.30 a. m., a quiet wedding took place at Christ Church, Vancouver, B. C., when Miss Mary Ellen Laird, daughter of Wm. and Mrs. Laird, Cavendish, Prince Edward Island, and John Ferguson, one of Vancouver's prominent real estate men, were united in marriage. The bride looked charming in a tailored suit of bronze broadcloth with black picture hat. The bridal bouquet was of pink carnations. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a sumptuous breakfast at the Hotel Strand. The happy couple then left for Victoria, Seattle, and other cities on the coast. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson a long and happy journey through life.

The service of song given by the Vernon River Methodist Church Sunday evening, September 10th, was an unexampled success. The church was crowded to the doors. The pastor, Rev. George Orman, presided and conducted the devotional exercises, gave a reading and delivered a discourse, an sacred music. Miss Ida Hayden rendered a solo in a most charming and acceptable manner. The male quartette consisting of L. C. Hayden, Hayden VanDerstine, Milton Furness and Richard B. Ross, gave two pieces "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" and "Some Sweet Day" in fine style. Miss Margaret Furness was in splendid voice and sang two solos with great feeling and clearness of enunciation. Miss Lavinia Ross and her brother Richard sang most acceptably. Elmer Ross proved a most efficient accompanist upon the violin. Misses Laura and Marguerite VanDerstine took the initiative and carried through the arrangements and presided at the organ most efficiently.

Columbus Day, Oct. 12, will be celebrated this year by the Knights of Columbus in this city. There will be a large meeting of the local council that evening and a number of initiations will be put on. A large number of visitors are expected from the mainland.

There will be no afternoon service in Cherry Valley Methodist Church on Sunday, September 17th, but evening service instead commencing at seven o'clock. In consequence of this arrangement there will be no evening service at Vernon River Methodist Church.

The Guardian has received a postal card from C. Oran Thompson, the general representative of the Hewson Woolen Mills, Ltd., Amherst, showing the large automobile in which he and Mr. Hewson's son have been touring through New Brunswick for the past four weeks in the interests of their firm. At the back of the car is attached a large trunk containing the firm's samples and on it and on the sides of the car are place cards advertising Hewson's pure wool underwear so popular in this Province.

George L. and Mrs. Frask of Old Orchard Beach, Maine, who have been visiting the latter's father Alex C. McLeod, Bridgetown; her sister Mrs. McLeod and uncle and aunt Allen and Mrs. McLeod, Lot 16, leave this morning on return to Boston. This is Mr. Frask's first visit to this Province and he was greatly pleased with scenery hospitality of the people. It is eleven years since Mrs. Frask was here and she was also delighted with her visit. While in this city they visited Mrs. Currie, Dowal Street and also Mrs. John Hanson.

In connection with the recent Wanderer Sports at Halifax the following appears in yesterday's Recorder: "George L. Prowse, the speedy bicyclist of the Abegweit, Charlottetown, had an easy time in the mile and 3 mile bicycles, winning both in his final sprints. His time in the latter was 8.21 which was announced to have beaten the Maritime Province record, which was claimed to have been 8.33, made by J. E. Cornwall. This was an error, as Ayerst, Montreal, holds the record, 7.54. Prowse, however, looks speedy enough to lower that record if he made the effort."

The Herald had the following: "George L. Prowse, of the Abegweit A. A. A., of Charlottetown, clipped twelve and a half seconds off the three mile bicycle record, which was established by E. J. E. Cornwall, and Fritz Schaefer equalled the maritime record of ten seconds for the hundreds dash."
