CHIMES TO BE INSPECTED—The chimes in St. Dunstan's Basilica are to be inspected shortly by an expert from England, who is in Canada at the present time.

WARSHIP IN FORT—The French warship, Ville D'Ys, arrived in port Saturday morning and left last evening at 11 o'clock. The crew attended 11 o'clock Mass at St. Dunstan's Basilica, and was addressed briefly in the French tongue by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan.

DIED SUDDENLY—The death of Mr. Ewen Martin, Southport, occurred suddenly at his home yesterday. The coroner, Dr. L. B. McKenna, accompanied by officers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police viewed the remains. As the deceased had evidently died from heart failure, an inquest was considered unnecessary.

FEW COMPLAINTS RECEIVED—Comparatively few complaints of Halloween damage have been received at the Mounted Police headquarters this year. During the past several years, complaints at this season were usually numerous. The indications are that Halloween passed off very quietly in the rural districts as well as in the city.

MINSTREL SHOW IN KINKORA HALL

"Minstrel days were here again" when the Holy Name Club of Charlottetown presented for the last time this season "The Merry Minstrels" in Kinkora Parish Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 3rd, before an audience of over four hundred people which taxed the hall to capacity for two and one half hours of entertainment.

The show comprising over forty members was staged under the capable direction of Mr. J. Austin Trainor, member of the N. M. P. & F. A., who put the show over in a most commendable manner playing the part of First Tambo, together with the other three bright lights of Darktown, viz: Clary Howatt, Second Tambo; Billy Morgan and Frank O'Neill, First and Second Bones, who were all special characters as professional "Black Faces." Master of Ceremonies Ed Hornby, well known amateur theatrical stage performer, acted as interlocutor and ran off every number of the program with precision, many of the numbers being encored.

The choruses were excellent, the solos all well sung, and the dancing specialties were of the Mexican type. The Merry Minstrels Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Albert Blanchard, accompanied the various numbers, and also gave a very fine violin-piano selection.

After the show the ladies of the parish served refreshments to a goodly number, and the committee in charge wish to thank those good ladies for this splendid repast.

Last but not least, do the committee, cast and all connected with the show, extend to Rev. Father Smith the genial pastor of Kinkora, their sincere thanks for his kind hospitality and for being instrumental in giving all present a most enjoyable evening.

Washington and Neville Chamberlain, the Chancellor of the Exchequer speaks in the House of Commons. It is expected that attempts will be made to whip debts into a live parliamentary issue again, but political observers think such a programme is unlikely of success.

The British official view, when expressed in Parliament, is likely to be one of disappointment over the Anglo-American inability to reach a final settlement.

MINARD'S LINIMENT "KING OF PAIN" Put you on your feet!

NRA BESET BY MANY PROBLEMS

(By James Cope)

(Associated Press Staff Writer) WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(A.P.)—Hugh S. Johnson set out for the west tonight in an endeavor to clear away opposition and discontent that has massed in the United States farm belt against NRA and the rest of the recovery programme.

It was an "air tour" that started on the ground, for weather prevented take off of his plane, and he went to Chicago by train. Johnson hoped the army transport could pick him up there tomorrow for the rest of the week's swing that will include Minneapolis, Des Moines, Omaha, Kansas City, Tulsa, Fort Worth and Louisville.

MANY PROBLEMS

The NRA Administrator left behind him many difficult problems for his aides to handle, a batch of codes for President Roosevelt to approve, and a statement informing trade associations that code authorities and other industrial agencies will be given self-government only as they are organized to administer it, and that they will not be given charge of Labor disputes until worker representation is provided for on all general employee complaints.

LABOR ASSURED

Coming on top of the week's agitation over the Swope plan for business to take over code administration, lock, stock and barrel, the statement was regarded as an assurance of labor that it had nothing to fear, and a serious urging to industries to create the machinery for desired self-government.

No further word on the Ford-NRA friction was spoken Sunday before Johnson's departure. A petition on from Ford workers at Edgewater, N. J., complaining the Company's negotiations with the men were unsatisfactory, and asking the Labor Board to take charge, had not been received. Senator Robert Wagner, Labor Board Chairman, declined to indicate his course until the petition arrived.

SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY

SYDNEY, N. S., Nov. 5.—(C.P.)—Harold C. McDonald is going back to penitentiary where he already has spent half his life.

Convicted of forging war pension cheques he was sentenced Saturday by Mr. Justice W. L. Hall to 10 years in Dorchester Penitentiary from which he was released only last June after serving a seven year sentence.

McDonald from Halifax and Rhode Island, immediately announced he would appeal the sentence and produced from his pocket four sheets of foolscap which he filed with the court as his formal notice. The appeal, he said, would be made by himself, the same as his defence. During his trial he examined witnesses and his address to the jury contended the Crown had failed to connect him with the passing of the cheques to local merchants.

Records produced showed the accused has spent more than 17 of his 36 years in prison.

CORN PRICES SHOOT UPWARD

(Canadian Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Corn prices shot skyward in the late dealings Saturday.

A sudden jump in corn prices took the market up more than 2 cents a bushel in a few minutes. The chief apparent influence was news of export sales of United States corn, together with word that the United States government's corn loan plan would be greatly broadened.

Large purchases of corn today were credited to government sponsored sources. It was intimated that the favorable position of the dollar was having an effect on foreign trade.

Has Perfected Machine For Television

Mr. A. E. MacLean, M.P., has received word from Dr. Henroteau of Ottawa, a personal friend of his, that the Doctor has perfected a television machine on which he has been working for a number of years. The Doctor has been working in the Ottawa Observatory ever since coming to this country from Belgium some years ago.

"Pictures, letters, anything can be transmitted around the world in one-fiftieth of a second," Dr. Henroteau said. "For instance, telegraph would be superseded by a device which sends a whole letter or a whole page of a newspaper in one-fiftieth of a second. The cost per message is but a fraction of a cent."

The Bell Telephone people have spent $8,000,000 on experiments in an endeavor to perfect this machine, but it remained for Dr. Henroteau to perfect same.

Mr. MacLean states that the Doctor deserves all that he can get out of this invention as he has worked long and hard, and now when the possibility of his becoming a millionaire looms up, his friends hope that his dreams will be realized.

Island Man Arrested In N. S.

TRURO, Nov. 5.—Three young men, two from Ontario and one from Prince Edward Island, were arrested by R.C.M.P. Friday night on warrants charging obtaining money under false pretences and operating a car without a license.

Leopold McKay of Ottawa and Bruce Thompson of Prince Edward Island were lodged in jail on an information laid by Daniel Byers West, New Annapolis. The young men are alleged to have been collecting money as a collecting agency. They are alleged to have been collecting in the rural districts around New Annapolis.

Maurice Munro, Ottawa, was arrested by Constable A. E. Emmett of the local R.C.M.P. on a charge of operating a car without a license.

Storm Holds-Up Search At Gaspe

(Canadian Press) GASPE, Que., Nov. 5.—A storm which swept the Gaspe coast over the week-end prevented continuation of the search for Marguerite Aschah, 17, who together with her cousin, Maud Aschah, 15, disappeared from their Peninsula, Que., on August 30.

Since the body of Maud, mutilated and only partly clothed, was taken from Gaspe Bay more than a week ago, police aided by fishermen have continued to drag the bay in the hope of discovering the body of the elder girl. Police, as well as Gaspe residents, are convinced that both girls met with foul play, their bodies later being thrown into the bay.

Identification of a foot, found in the coast, was made yesterday by Marguerite's mother. She recognized the foot of her daughter by a broken toe.

Falls Down Elevator Shaft, Fatally Injured

(Canadian Press)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Nov. 5.—Head injuries sustained yesterday when he fell three storeys in an elevator shaft resulted fatally today for J. Nelson Haviland, of the firm of G. A. Haviland and Company, Moncton. He died early this afternoon.

Making a business call at Holman's Ltd., Mr. Haviland stepped into the shaft from the top floor without realizing the elevator had just descended. Employees heard the crash of his body and found him unconscious.

N.S. INDIANS PROTEST

(Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Nov. 5.—Believing their natural rights are being violated by enforcement of certain game laws, Indians throughout Nova Scotia have rallied to the cause of one of their braves.

Representing the various tribes throughout the Province, a procession of tribal chiefs solemnly made its way into County Court here Saturday to aid in the defence of Steve Maloney of the Micmac tribe, charged with offering deer meat for sale in contravention of the Provincial Game Laws.

SPOKESMAN

Chief John Paul, acting spokesman for the group, submitted to Magistrate Ian Ross that it was the natural right of Indians to dispose of his skill in any way he saw fit. The forests, he held, were the heritage of the Indian and in them he held a prior right over the white-men. From his pockets he drew crumpled copies of old laws and treaties and read to the Magistrate clauses which he felt upheld the defendant's action.

With each declaration of the spokesmen the other chiefs nodded their assent. The Magistrate, however, suggested the Indians obtain legal counsel to put forth their claim on which they felt hinged their right to earn a livelihood in the forests.

Adjournment was made to Dec. 5 so the Indians might consult with the Department of Indian Affairs at Ottawa.

Historic Scenes To Mark Events In "Old England"

LONDON, Nov. 5.—For a display of historic old customs, of pomp and stately ceremony that only England can muster, this week is a red-letter week in the old country's calendar. The opening of Parliament by the King on Tuesday, the colorful Lord May's Show on Thursday, the traditional Guild Hall banquet Thursday evening, and the solemn Armistice Day ceremonies Saturday comprise one of the great weeks of the year for the Londoner, or the visitor to London.

The King and Queen and probably the Prince too will travel in the State procession led by outriders escorting the great State coach down the Mall through Whitehall between dense throngs for the opening of the short session of Parliament before prorogation. With the disarmament efforts at the cross-roads, a dozen other difficulties, and an opposition jubilation over the Labor sweep in Wednesday's municipal elections, unusual interest attaches to the session.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT

Parliament's opening comes the morning after the whole country, especially the children, celebrate "Guy Fawkes' Day" and the famous attempt to blow up the Houses of Parliament. Properly the anniversary comes on Sunday but most of the fireworks displays and other observances will be held Monday night.

The Lord Mayor's Show, marking the inauguration of the new Lord Mayor of London, is one of the greatest annual street pageants in the world, and costs a goodly penny. Hundreds of thousands, all children for the day, will watch the long, picturesque procession under flags and banners from the Guild Hall to the law courts and back again. Bands and tableaux, the city fathers in their dignified carriage and, topping all, the Lord Mayor in his great gilt coach with the coachman bewigged and bepowdered on the box form a great sight.

Most brilliant scene of all the city year is the Guild Hall banquet Thursday evening. The lights of the grand old building will flash, as they have done for hundreds of years on this occasion, on one of the greatest assemblages of the land. Off the city's gold plate are served rich and rare dishes and then the Prime Minister addresses the throng in what is traditionally his most important policy speech of the year.

Mr. Murdoch is to be complimented on the splendid manner in which he dealt with his subject, and it is hoped that he may address the young people again at some future date. This was the first time that the address was given by a student this year, and we hope that many of the P. W. C. boys and girls will take their part in this way before the season is over.

The address was followed by an exceptionally well rendered solo; Holy City, sung by one of Charlottetown's younger tenors, Mr. J. Burion Livingstone, who presented the number with talent and feeling. Mr. Albert Rupp was chairman and presided throughout the service. After extending the hearty thanks of those present to all who had taken part, Mr. Rupp then called on Rev. R. Moorhead Legate who closed the meeting with The Benediction.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

At the Church of The Most Holy Redeemer yesterday, the Masses were at the usual hours, 7.30, 9.00 and 10.30, at the 9 o'clock Mass the members of the Married Women's Holy Family received Holy Communion in a body. Rev. Father O'Hara, C.S.S.R. preached eloquent sermons.

In the evening at 7 o'clock services were held in honor of The "Mother of Perpetual Help." Rev. Father O'Hara preaching an appropriate sermon. This was followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The singing was rendered by the whole congregation.

ST. UNSTAN'S BASILICA

The usual services were held at St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday. At the 8 o'clock Mass the school children sang hymns. At 11 o'clock Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. MacKenzie, assisted by Rev. E. O'Hanley as deacon, and Rev. Leonard MacDonald as sub-deacon.

His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan preached at all the Masses. At the Solemn High Mass he addressed the crew of the "Ville D'ys" briefly in the French tongue.

In the evening Rev. Louis A. Dougan conducted the Vespers and gave the Benediction.

THE SALVATION ARMY

Sunday morning an open air service was held followed by an impressive indoor service. Mrs. Adj. Stevens spoke, taking as her text Prov. Chap 3 verses 5-6: Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths.

At 3 o'clock a service was held in the jail. The singing was enjoyed by all and the talk of Mrs. Stevens was listened to with rapt attention. Another open air service preceded the evening service when Capt. Hammond held the attention of all when he took as his subject "Harden not your hearts." Many were touched by his message and one knelt at the mercy seat.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. A. C. Vincent, D.D., was the preacher in both morning and evening services yesterday. Dr. Vincent's morning theme was "Let's Stop Playing at Religion." Taking as his text Colossians 1, 18, "that in all things he might have the pre-eminence," he made an earnest appeal that in every problem of life Christ should be supreme.

At the evening service, speaking to a large congregation, Dr. Vincent presented one of the very interesting series on "Men Whom Christ Changed," his subject for this occasion being "The Pessimist."

Mrs. Full gave her usual short organ recital from 6.45 to 7 o'clock. The quartette, Messrs. Quigley, Calder, Dingwell and Sterns, sang very effectively "Wandering Child, Come Home."

"They That Trust in the Lord" (Fry), and "O Divine Redeemer" (Gounod), were very finely presented by a large choir.

SACRED SONG SERVICE

The students and young people of the city held their regular S. C. M. and Y. M. C. A. Sacred Song Service in St. James Kirk last evening after the regular evening diet of worship.

The meeting opened with the singing of hymns from the Book of Praise following which Rev. R. Moorhead Legate led in prayer.

Mr. Fraser MacMillan then read the Scripture Lesson. After singing another hymn the young people were favoured with a beautiful solo by Miss Marguerite Cudmore.

The address last evening was delivered by one of the Student Volunteers of P. W. C., Mr. John J. Murdoch, who, in his characteristic forcefulness gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on the parable; "The Prodigal Son."

Mr. Murdoch is to be complimented on the splendid manner in which he dealt with his subject, and it is hoped that he may address the young people again at some future date. This was the first time that the address was given by a student this year, and we hope that many of the P. W. C. boys and girls will take their part in this way before the season is over.

The address was followed by an exceptionally well rendered solo; Holy City, sung by one of Charlottetown's younger tenors, Mr. J. Burion Livingstone, who presented the number with talent and feeling.

Mr. Rupp announced that the Sacred Song Service will be held in the Central Christian Church next Sunday evening at the same hour.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Communion Sunday, to which we all look forward with ardent joy was observed yesterday. "Thy body broken for my sake, My blood from heaven shall be; Thy testament cup I take, and thus remember thee!"

The choir sang "For God so Loved the World" and Rev. Dr. Ramsay preached the Communion sermon taking his text from I Cor. 11-24 "This is my body which is broken for you, this do in remembrance of me." In the Pre-Communion address of last Wednesday evening Rev. Mr. Brown spoke from the text "You-hath be reconciled" and in the post-Communion address last evening Mr. Brown's sermon was on this subject "Jesus my Prophet, Priest and King". It will thus be seen that the entire Communion meditation was well arranged. As British subjects we glory in our past history and achievements and we have memorials so that our interest, our enthusiasm may never falter. As Christians we must remember Jesus Christ. Jesus gave us the gospel. He himself was the Gospel and we only remember him. The Sacrament is a memorial, a symbol of his death, its usage implies deliberate acceptance of Jesus Christ and a willingness on our part to represent the father and do his will.

Part of the beautiful flowers at the pulpit were presented in loving memory of the late John H. Bell, by his widow and Miss Fannie Bell.

The inclemency of the weather has affected somewhat the attendance at Sunday School. Yesterday there were 347 present.

At the evening service the choir rendered an Anthem and Miss Alice Coffin was most pleasantly listened to as she sang the solo "Fear not ye, O Israel!"

The remembrance day service will be held in Trinity Church next Saturday the 11th inst. starting at 9.45 a.m. and lasting one half hour under the direction of the Ministerial Association.

The Rev. A. C. Vincent, D.D., was the preacher in both morning and evening services yesterday. Dr. Vincent's morning theme was "Let's Stop Playing at Religion." Taking as his text Colossians 1, 18, "that in all things he might have the pre-eminence," he made an earnest appeal that in every problem of life Christ should be supreme.

At the evening service, speaking to a large congregation, Dr. Vincent presented one of the very interesting series on "Men Whom Christ Changed," his subject for this occasion being "The Pessimist."
